Four Fisher Seniors Honored

Four St. John Fisher College seniors received good news about their post-graduate activities last week. Two earned New York State Regents College Fellowships and two were accepted in the Peace Corps.

The two fellowships winners, shown on the left, are Michael Kaspan, 300 Pemberton Rd. in Irondequoit and Donald George, 422 Campbell St. in Rochester. Peace Corps appointees on the right are William Maloney, 833 St. Paul Blvd., Rochester, and Richard Milice, 89 Elmcroft Rd., Rochester.

To earn their fellowships, Maloney and Milice are now attending their specific overseas assignments from Peace Corps headquarters in Washington.

Both their fellowships, Kasper and George excelled in competitive examinations with thousands of other New York State students. Fellowships enable them to attend any university with approved graduate courses that will prepare them for teaching at the college level.
