Corpus Christi Class Reunion Mapped for '68

A class reunion was held at George's Lounge, Hudson Ave. Saturday, April 4, for members of the 1943 class of Corpus Christi School.

ATTENDING were more than one third of the class with their husbands and wives and two of the three parish priests who were at Corpus Christi in 1943.

Father Roy Morphy, now pastor at St. Jerome's Church, East Rochester, was the first speaker. Father Thomas McVeigh, now the pastor of Church of the Holy Angels in Nunda, also spoke. He commented that it was the pastor at Corpus Christi late Msgr. William M. Hart who in 1943 would surely have enjoyed this reunion.

Father McVeigh added that this is the only class of Corpus Christi to have a reunion since the Class of 1919 and he encouraged a 25th year reunion in 1968. Father John Malley, now pastor of St. Joseph's Church in Penfield was unable to attend due to a last minute emergency.

Donald Goonan, class president, presided at the reunion which consisted of dinner and dancing. A committee which was organized last September assisted Mr. Goonan and was happy with the response of class members and will be glad to organize another reunion in 1968. Committee members are Rita (Heckle) Welchman, Barbara (Woodhull) Shannon, Paul F. Brown and Bernard Lynch.
