Catholic Scouting Bishop's Report Dinner

The Catholic Committee on Ambrose School Hall on Empire Blvd., at 6:30 p.m.

EACH YEAR, the Committee on Scouting makes its report to the Bishop on the physical and spiritual progress of the boys and leaders in the Scouting program under Catholic guidance.

John E. O'Brien, Rochester area chairman, will contact men in the Otsego Council area of Monticue County.

John C. McCarthy, assisted by Joseph Cesarone, Elmer Lisow, Ed Murli, Ed Lederman, John Baker and Edward Lorscheider will contact local units.

Maurice Petin with Vincent Carroll and Arthur Emmighausen are assigned to the arrangements and decorations of the hall.

Candidates for the Saint George Award, highest Catholic honor for adult Scouters, will be presented by Paul S. VonSachs of the Otsego Council.

Because this is a Diocesan wide activity, any Scout planning on attending this honorary dinner should contact the Catholic Committee on Scouting to make reservations before the deadline of May 4.

Foreign Students Feted By HNS At St. Patrick's

Four Catholic students from other countries were the guests at a St. Patrick's Holy Name Society dinner April 26 in Elmira.

The students, currently attending Cornell University, spoke briefly about life in their respective homelands and participated in a question-and-answer period.

THE GUESTS—Anil Rodrigues of India, Mrs. Ampara G. Rigor and Romualdo B. Tadena of the Philippine Islands and Shaw Lei Yu of Formosa—dealt specifically with the economic, political and agricultural ways of their respective countries.

Questions from an audience of about 60 Holy Name members and guests ranged from the sale of air conditioning units in the Philippines to the threat of Communist China in Southeast Asia.

Leo Krolok, Holy Name president, was master of ceremonies and Miss Eva Firra, president of Tompkins Toga Deansery Council of Catholic Women, acted as moderator.

James Casey, retiring president of the Holy Name Society, was presented a plaque of appreciation by the Rev. Otto Vogt. The plaque stated "Sword of appreciation..."

Diocese, Friars Schedule June Boys Retreats

The second annual vocation retreats sponsored by the Diocese of Rochester and the Graymorn Friars will be held at St. John's Seminary, Montour Falls from June 23 through June 29.

Announcement was made this week by Father Louis Hohman, diocesan director of vocations, S.A., rector of St. John's.

The retreats will be restricted to boys with a serious interest in the priesthood and to those who will have finished at least the seventh grade by this June. Vocational retreats are designed to offer these boys a suitable atmosphere in which to consider their possible vocations. It will give the boys an opportunity to meet and talk to priests, to experience what a great success because of the cooperation given by the priests and sisters. The retreats are geared to the priesthood in general. Father Hohman wrote, and therefore serve to increase vocations to both the diocesan and religious clergy. He urged the cooperation of all involved so that this year's retreat will also be a success.

Any young man interested in making the retreats should contact his parish priest or write directly to: Vocation Retreats, c/o St. John's Seminary, Montour Falls, N.Y. 14865.

Canisteo Church Campaign Listed

Parish collections and of other fund-raising activities.

Nearly 100 men will visit all parishes of both churches on May 17 to seek their cooperation with the program. Committee men will have a rally on May 13 and a kickoff dinner on May 16. Co-chairmen of the campaigners are: St. Mary's—Paul Dempsey and Emmett Harkender; St. Joachim's—Allan J. Hecker and John C. Schwartz.

Advisory committees include: St. Mary's—Robert Grumley, James C. Harkender, John Leonard Sr., James McCaffrey, Edward McCarthy, Vincent McCormick; St. Joachim's—John Dagen, Sam Dineen, Frank Felster, Sam Vigt.

FATHER COLLINS said the church includes a "2838-foot addition to the rear of the church to provide new sanctuary space, allowing for conversion of the present sanctuary to added seating.

Erected in 1880, the red brick edifice seats 128 persons. The pastor said it is inadequate for many religious functions. Other aims of the St. Joachim campaign include reduction of debt and renovation of the parish catechetical facilities.

The St. Mary's drive will stream entire parish support in the one Sunday offering envelope, with elimination of extra collections.
