Roman Fashions

Miss Arlene Robinson, Latin teacher at St. Agnes, with the help of her Freshman Latin Club, staged an "Early Roman Fashion Show." The audience viewed the typical attire and ornamentation of men and women, children and slaves of early Roman society.

Lead by Miss Robinson herself, the models included Patricia Burgess, Amelia Nasca, Michelle Cumming, Judy Caputa, Patricia Shaw, Linda Stapley and Mary Lou Gilmore.

Junior Prom

Presented by the Class of '65, the Junior Prom at St. Agnes High School will be held at the school Saturday, May 9, from 9 to 12 p.m. Ray Anderson and his orchestra will provide the music for these juniors and their escorts.

General chairman of the dance is the class president, Michelle Cournoyer. Her co-chairmen are Judith Amann, Anne Marie Blum, and Margaret Lynd.

The following committees and their respective chairmen assist them: Decorations, Kathy Nicols and Susan Stanwix; Tickets and Bids, Marcia Skromak; Refreshments, Mary Egan; Publicity, Sally Jack; Chaperones and Invitations, Deborah Normand; Rearrangements, Sharon Sutton.

Latin Contest

Eleanor Celenti, junior class honor student at St. Anges High School, tied with a student from Monroe High School in the winning of the Latin Conest conducted at Penfield Central High School last Saturday, April 24.

Chosen by the Latin department of St. Agnes, Eleanor together with Mary Egan, also an honor student of the junior class, and Elaine Kuns of the sophomore class, represented St. Agnes at the contest.

Prize Winner

Mary Egan, honor student of the junior class of St. Agnes High School, won third prize in the American Essay Contest conducted by the Young Republican Club of Monroe County. Senator Thomas Laverne presented Mary with an engraved plaque at the 1964 School of Politics at the Rochester Chamber of Commerce.

Also attending the School of Politics were the St. Agnes delegates, Mary J ane Keating and Kathleen Ziebra, and the following representatives: Deborah Caldwell, Margaret Lynd, Maureen O'Neill and Donna Hunt.

Writing Rewarded

Three Nazareth Academy seniors have won recognition in national writing contests and have received certificates this week.

Susan Cudzilo earned a Certificate of Merit for a formal article entered in the Scholastic Awards program conducted by Scholastic Magazine.

Rosemary Tomczak and Maureen Ferron received Certificates of Merit in the Atlantic Monthly Creative Writing contests.

The winning entries in both contests were written in a fourth year Honors English Class under the direction of Sister M. Rosalie.

English Conclave

Six members of the St. Agnes High School English Department attended the New York State Teachers of English Convention in Syracuse.

Through audi-visual aids, lectures by experienced teachers and specialists, a wide choice of sectional meetings, and commercial exhibits of pertinent materials, many areas of English teaching were focused upon from the teaching of Skhapespeare to the latest trends in the teaching of linguistics.

Representing St. Agnes High School were Sisters Evelyn, Marie Vincent, Peter Mary, Melita, Maria and Ann de Porres.

May Queen

As a result of a vote by the senior class, Mary Walsh has been chosen as this year's May Queen at Mercy.

She will crown Our Lady at May Day ceremonies on Tuesday, May 26. Mary Jo Brach and Claudia Siewert, also elected by the senior class on the same basis, will serve as Maids of Honor.

MARY WALSH

Ten other seniors, runners-up in the election, will serve as members of the queen's court. These girls are Mary Anna Sheppleman, Joan Riley, Eileen Geraghty, Dianne Salt, Bonnie Foos, Ann Bonsignore, Ann Fassanella, Carol Johnson, Jeanne Carey and Jan McClellan.

In addition, six girls were chosen from the junior class to participate in the May Day activities. The following juniors will serve in the court: crown bearer, JoAnn Grass; scroll bearer, Carol Burns; train bearers, JoAnn Belle-Isle, Karen Pascuzzi, Linda Scarlata, and Marty Keller.

Three banner bearers were selected by the Student Spiritual Council members from among the council. These girls are Mary Keller, Mary Gilligan, and Kay Walsh.

Essay Award

Mercy senior, Sally Schreiber, has won the fourth place award in the statewide "Attorney-General-for-a-Day" essay contest sponsored by Attorney General, Louis J. Lefkowitz.

Her essay on the topic "What Should Be Done About Cuba?" was hailed by the judges as showing a careful analysis of the question.

Ceremonies honoring the winners will be held in the Capitol Building in Albany on May 28.

Math Contest

Sally Schreiber, a Mercy senior, recently was informed that, as a result of the 1964 Annual High School Mathematics Contest, she has placed in the top five per cent of all students who tried the exam.

This rank entitles her to a recommendation for college scholarships, according to Nura D. Turner, contest chairman and associate professor of mathematics at the State University of New York at Albany.

Style Show

Home economics students will model for Mercians and their mothers the clothes which they made in class this year on Wednesday afternoon, May 13. The style show is under the direction of Sister Mary de Chantal, home economics teacher.

Shades of pink will be predominant in the fashions, which will include A-line and princess-style dresses, skirts, blouses, sport clothes, and several formals, according to sewing teachers, Sister Mary Dismas and Sister de Chantal.

English IV students are writing appropriate descriptions to accompany each girl's outfit.

Home economics students are also preparing refreshments for the Mothers' Tea which follows immediately after the fashion show. Mothers of the seniors will be the guests of honor, and junior mothers will act as hostesses.

Receives Grant

Joyce A. Kircherer of St. Agnes High School is judged the winner of the Monroe County Scholarship of the American Legion Auxiliary, as announced by Mrs. Arthur L. Hollis, chairman of Education and Scholarship Committee of the Monroe County Committee.

JOYCE A. KIRCHERER

Joyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Kircherer of 5306 East Henrietta Rd., Rush, plans to attend the State University College of Geneseo to prepare for a career as a biology teacher.

Joyce is vice president of the St. Agnes GAA, is on the varsity basketball team, and is also a member of the Glee Club.

Mercy Graduate Elected at College

Barbara L. Brairton, a graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School in the class of 1961, has been elected president of the dormitory council and executive board of discipline at Mercyhurst College, Erie, Pa.

She is a member of St. Helen's parish and is a member of Mercyhurst's 1965 graduating class.

She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard T. Brairton of 64 Overbrook Rd., Rochester.
