Bishop's Fund Presented By K. of C. Units

Knights of Columbus councils and Fourth Degree assemblies in the Diocese of Rochester presented Bishop Kearney with various checks Saturday night at a dinner in Hotel Sheraton for his use in advancing education in the diocese.

The affair is an annual one started about 10 years ago by affiliated units with the Central New York Chapter, K. of C. Raymond Glancy of Auburn, as chairman, over the years, opened the session Saturday.

Presentation was made by grand knights and faithful navigators summoned to the head table by Raymond L. Barry, master, fifth district, Fourth Degree who was toastmaster.

BISHOP KEARNEY in expressing his appreciation cited the knights for their aid to education on a national level and for their contribution to the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception at Washington. He said the local contributions will be used to assure a Catholic education for deserving students.

The Bishop also told of the formal dedication of the Vatican pavilion at the World's Fair, Cardinal Marella likened the two lights of the pillared chapel as beacons of world peace; he said, to the lights in the North Church heralded by Paul Revere, a summons to war.

Honored guests also at the dinner were Rev. James Mowbray, secretary to Bishop Kearney; Rev. Roy Morphy, chaplain of St. John Fisher Council and Rev. John C. Stagg, chaplain of Our Lady of the Genesee Council and faithful friar, Fourth Degree.

John J. Kinney, past grand knight and former district deputy was cited for his work in arranging the dinner and handling the donations of the K. of C. units.

Drive Kickoff In Canisteo

Canisteo—The Rev. Leonard A. Kelly, pastor of the Church of the Assumption, Fairport, will address fund campaign committeemen of St. Joachim's Church, Canisteo, and St. Mary's Church, Rexville, at the campaign kickoff dinner at 7 p.m. Saturday, May 16, in Somers Hall, Canisteo.

FATHER KELLY will be presented by the Rev. Vincent P. Collins, pastor of the Rexville and Canisteo churches. Guests will include several priests in the area.

Nearly 300 committeemen from both churches will visit parishioners on Sunday, May 17.

St. Joachim's parishioners will be asked to subscribe funds toward enlargement of the Canisteo church building and expansion of catechetical facilities. St. Mary's drive is aimed at an increase in weekly contributions to meet operating and maintenance expense.

Plans for renovating St. Joachim's Church include an addition to the rear of the building to provide new sanctuary and sacristy facilities, thus effecting a 70 per cent increase in the present 125-person seating capacity.

More than 70 women of both churches who recently completed a parish census will join campaign committeemen at the kickoff dinner.

Coming CDA Marks 53 Years

Coming — The 53rd birthday of Court St. Joseph, Catholic Daughters of America, was celebrated Sunday, May 3, with dinner attended by 71 members and guests at Morrison's Restaurant.

The moderator, the Rev. John E. Rouch, gave the invocation and was toastmaster. Mrs. Frank Tokar, grand regent, gave the welcome.

GUEST SPEAKER was the Rev. Theodorus A. Horgan, S.A. of Montour Falls. His topic was "Love Of God As It Existed Under Fire." He explained that candles and lights symbolize God's love and love for God. He stated "God never imposes himself on us, we go to Him of our own free will. Love gives and love receives." He also mentioned several instances when problems are caused by the lack of love.

The Court honored Mrs. Jacob Kieglar of Seneca St. on her birthday, and Mrs. Katherine Patterson, a charter member. Miss Joanna James, another charter member, was out of town and unable to attend.

Members of the Bath Barbershoppers entertained with selections under the baton of Ralph Verity of the Savona Central School faculty.
