Notre Dame Highlights

On the baseball scene, the ND Varsity stands with a two-one record, having beaten Academy and Southside and lost to Corning East in a ten inning game. The Corning East game marked the debut of sophomore pitcher Bill Huddle, and was a tough one. Bill Knott, Ron Linnrondoll, Tom Seymour and Mike Johnston have led the offense while Jim Merriam and Matt Cary have held down the hitters.

The JV's are presently 2 and 0, having beaten Southside's Little Hornets twice. They have been waiting for good weather since the first game, which was held at 423, Larry Comerski at 333 and Bob McGuigan at 333 are itching to go to bat. Larry Snyder has led the pitchers, winning their first game, striking out eight without walking. Mike Brennan won the other game, striking out three and walking two.
