NANCY DIPRIMO, Sodality Prefect, places a crown on the statue of the Blessed Virgin. Attendants include Mary Adesso, David Slattery, Mark Mallard and Jo Ann Myer.

Sodality Rite Held In Ithaca

Ithaca, Immaculate Conception Church, was filled to capacity on a Sunday afternoon recently to witness the reception of 26 boys and girls into the Sodality of Mary, and the renewal of their Act of Consecration by 13 members of the Senior Sodality.

Rev. Robert McPiggins, assistant pastor of Immaculate Conception Church, and moderator of the Sodality, explained the purpose of the Sodality. He told the parents what was expected of their sons and daughters as members of this spiritual organization, and complimented the probationers on their year of preparation to become members of the Sodality.

The program included the crowning of the statue of the Blessed Mother, during the fifth decade of the Rosary.

Nancy DiPrimo, prefect of the Sodality, presided at the Coronation.

The choir was composed of a group of staff parishioners, with Anne Tressy as organist.

Watkins Glen Rosarians Hold Annual Breakfast

Watkins Glen — The Rosary and Altar Society of St. Mary's of the Lake, Watkins Glen, held their annual Mother-Daughter Breakfast, Sunday, May 3. The Holy Name men prepared and served breakfast for 200.

An illustrated talk was given by two Sisters from the Mother House in Rochester, Sister Mary Beatrice and Sister Mary Walter.

Mrs. James Scapatura, president of the society, and Rev. Joseph Hogan, pastor, welcomed the mothers and daughters.

Catholic Mother of the year was Mrs. Joseph Lemak, who was presented with a status of the Madonna and flowers.

Mrs. Lemak, a graduate of Mount St. Vincent College, New York City has been very active in Church, School and community projects.

She is a past president of the P.T.A. and is now their public chairman as well as vice president of the Board of Trustees for the library.

She has held offices in the Chemung-Schuyler Diocese, past president of the Rosary Society, its first vice president at the present time and is historian of the Catholic Daughters.

Her husband, Joseph Lemak, is faculty manager of athletics at Watkins Glen High School.

DEADLINE for all news MONDAY NOON

Aquinas Captures Elmira Relays

A flock of records fell as expected Saturday in the Elmira Relays and the happy faces bursting across the finish line were Aquinas Institute runners for the most part.

Aquinas won the meet comfortably with 22 points. Runner-up McQuaid Jesuit, also of Rochester, finished with 12 points, edging out Elmira Free Academy which tied Ithaca high school with 10 points each.

And so Aquinas' collection of gold medals continues to grow. With Randy Block running as anchor man in the 880 relay, the Irish set a new meet record of 1:38 in the event. It was one of the four new meet marks produced by Aquinas during the afternoon. Aquinas also tied another and set a new school record to boot.

Before the glory parade continues, it should be pointed out that McQuaid won the mile medley and set a new record. Eric Knodrick ran a 1:57.8 anchor 880 to help his team defeat Waverly. Elmira Free Academy captured the 480-yard shuttle hurdles; Southside took the distance medley and Geneva won the 440-yard event.

Aquinas broke records in the half-mile, mile and two-mile events to its fourth victory in the last six years of competition in the highly respected Southern Tier meet.

In the two-mile event, Aquinas' John Donovan, Barry McGee, Jerry Murray and Mike Fagan established a new record of 8:27, breaking the meet record of 8:28.4 set by Aquinas in 1962.

The Aquinas squad of Dick Newman, Craig Murray, Tom Guerinot and Randy Block contributed to the new record in the 880-yard relay and in the mile relay Jim Walsh, Jim Benson, Tom Woods and John O'Neill broke their schools established meet record set in 1962 with a 3:54.2 mark.

Aquinas' distance combines have been the terror of the relays circuit this spring setting no less than five new marks to date.

Last Monday Aquinas continued its winning ways by winning its nineteenth consecutive track meet, defeating Madison High School of the Interscholastic League 88-27.

On Saturday, May 23, Aquinas will be host for the first Aquinas Relays, set for Fauver Stadium of the University of Rochester.
