Sportscast
It was one of those weeks when nothing went right for any athletic team that wears the blue and gold.
After reeling off a string of three straight wins, Notre Dame High School's diamond representatives dropped two in a row.
Corning East nipped Warren Tessler's boys 6-5 in an error-filled contest. Then Wellsford caught the Crusaders pitching on an off day and ran up a score of 14-5.
Notre Dame did have some shining moments in that Wellsford fray as Mike Johnston stroked the first home run of the year by a Crusader over the left field fence in the fifth. The Maple Avenue nine also chalked up its initial twin killing of the season in the sixth. Tessler stopped groaning abruptly when the Crusaders came through with a timely win over Ithaca May 21.
Jerry Rosplack handcuffed the little Reds on 6 hits for a 3-2 win. Mike Johnston and Tom Seymour were the hitting stars. Johnston had two singles and Seymour a long triple.
Nick Tessa joined Mr. Tessler in a shifty minute groan as his third base lost their third track meet of the season 95-27 to Southside. Tony Morrow tied the school's record in the pole vaulting mark of 10-8 in that meet.
