

Bishop Kearney's Talk Stated First Friday

Honored guest and speaker for the First Friday luncheon in June month of the Sacred Heart will be Bishop Kearney, according to Donald E. Woelfel, chairman of the Knights of Columbian sponsoring committee.

The luncheon of the First Friday Club will begin at 12:30 p.m. on June 15, 1964. The club members will be joined by Rev. William J. Kearney, bishop of Rochester, who will preside at the luncheon.

Bishop Kearney's appearance at the club in December of 1963 was the first time since the organization began in December, 1944. It was with the bishop's encouragement that this men's luncheon club was started and attendance is continuing to grow. Raymond L. Nary, co-chairman said this week.

Any Catholic layman who receives Holy Communion on the First Friday is eligible to attend.

ANNUAL MASS for deceased members of the First Friday Club will be offered in Our Lady of Victory Church at 9 a.m. Any members able to make the Mass are invited, Grand Knight George Schank announced.

Rev. Louis J. Bohman, spiritual director, St. Andrew's Seminary was the May speaker. The vocation of the layman, he said, is to give of himself to

McQuaid Gollers Defeat Aquinas

McQuaid Jesuit High's golf team avenged the only blot on its recordbook, a loss to Aquinas in the diocesan tournament, by edging the Little Irish last Friday, 9-8, over the Brookline course.

In bringing their match record to 5-0, the Knights were paced by senior Frank Morrell, who took medalist honors with an 80, and senior Mark McConville, whose birdie on the 18th hole added half a point to the victory cushion.

Terry Diehl was low man for Aquinas with an 81.

Celmar Posts Fifth Shutout for Knights

An unaccustomed donation of seven runs by his teammates had McQuaid southpaw Dave Celmer on easy street last Friday at Red Wing Stadium, where the lanky senior notched his fifth shutout of the season, a 7-0 blanking of West High in the first half of a schoolboy doubleheader.

Celmer, whose previous outing had seen him drop a 2-11 decision to Aquinas, was wrapped up in another scoreless duel when his mates came up with 3 runs in the fourth inning, the key blow being singled by Bruce Fink, Mike Spiegel, and Tom Gibson. He showed his gratitude by stringing out the goose eggs for another three innings, and his battery mate, Fink, responded with a three-run triple that highlighted McQuaid's arm seventh.

Equipped Relays in Relay

McQuaid's relay corps was ready for Saturday's 400 yard relay at the Rochester diocesan tournament at the Brookline Golf and Country Club.

The team's powerful track coach took the first place in the relay, with the following times: McQuaid, 1:11.1; High, 1:11.1; and the anchor, Brother Academy of St. Agnes, was next with 1:11.1.

Against 400-yard double hurdle, getting a brilliant victory over Tom Wilson secured a seven yard victory over McQuaid in the relay's first event with an excellent clocking of 28 seconds. Other members of the quartet were Dick Newman, Ray Shea and Dick Schaeffer.

Randy Block of Aquinas did the anchor chores on both the 440 and 880 relays which were won by the Irish. He teamed with Steve Sillick, Craig Zorkey, and Tom Guernsey for the 440 and with Dick Newman, Zorkey and Guernsey for the 880.

Christian Brothers Academy's runners set a 2:05 in the Distance Medley relay to take top honors. St. Joseph's of Buffalo was a close second.

Bishop Kearney's sprint corps captured the freshmen classification with six points.

Erik Kendrick of McQuaid gave his usual eye-popping performance with a 1:57.500 in the mile medley relay, running with Kendrick were Mike LaForce, Tim Meisch and Tony Lagle.
