

Campus Dateline

Latin Awards

Nazareth Academy students of Latin received national awards resulting from examinations in the annual series of the Association for the Promotion of the Study of Latin, sponsored by the Latin magazine, Annuaire Latine. In which 18,000 students participated. Out of 170 girls examined, 134 received awards. The highest gold medalists were Marie Wheelan and Margaret Grace, each scoring 118 out of a possible 120 points. Other gold medalists were Mary Kamb and Julia Nicholas, scoring 115 points each. Silver medalists were Julie Maher, 113 points; Ellen Holden and Ann Waldron 112; and Elaine Tunnaitis with 111 points.

Latin Trophy

Results of the Nationwide Latin Examination was for Cardinal-Mooney High School its first Latin trophy, Louise DeNeve, Janet Skuse and Gary Snyder, sophomores, totaling 118 points out of a possible 120; received medals and Certificates of Superlative Merit. Certificates of Superior Merit for scores above 100 went to sophomores Kathleen Dimick, Jean Edwards, Alyson Cottler, Joseph Leonard, Marguerite Quinn, Lorraine Lomelli, Marilyn May, John Vermaer, Stephen Comit and Mary Anne St. John, Freshman Marguerite LaFre, Elaine Kublik, Gail O'Shaughnessy and Eileen Smith also attained this mark.

Science Honors

Two Mercy juniors, Judy Hall and Joan Stolze, along with representatives from other area high schools, were given recognition at "Awarding science students" at the Annual Junior Science Award Program at Bausch and Lomb's.

Xerox Tour

Forty Mercy secretarial students toured the Midtown branch of the Xerox Corporation recently. According to Business Club president, Kathy Rudy, they were given demonstrations of machines and a history of the company.

First May Day

An honor guard of Sodality representatives accompanied Bishop Kearney as he placed a floral crown on the bronze statue of the Immaculate Conception in the foyer of Cardinal Mooney High School, at the first annual May Day celebration.

Class Day

Thursday, May 28, was the date of the annual Class Day for seniors at Our Lady of Mercy High School. On that day the class presented an hour-long skit entitled "I Remember Mercy" and narrated by Pat Cerame, for the students and faculty.

Business Club

Mercy's library was the scene of a business set-up according to Kathy Cody, president of the Business Club. For this event, senior members of the Business Club invited, from last June's graduating class, girls who have worked for a year.

May Day

St. Agnes High School held May Day ceremonies with a Mass offered by Bishop Kearney.

Girl Sisters

Mercy senior, Mary Anne Sheppelman, will speak at the prospective Girl Sisters on June 6 at 12:30 noon at the Treadway Inn.

May Day

St. Agnes High School held May Day ceremonies with a Mass offered by Bishop Kearney.

Voice Recital

Helen Conway, soprano, and Paula Petrarca, soprano, will present a voice recital Friday evening, June 12, at 8:15 in the Nazareth Academy auditorium, 1081 Lake Avenue. These students are young majors having completed with honor the Regency Music requirements for high school students.

Senior Ball

Mercy seniors will hold their Senior Ball on Saturday, June 6, at the school. The orchestra will provide the music.

Senior Picnic

The graduation class of St. Agnes High School began the first of their many commencement activities with a picnic in Genesee Valley Park under the direction of their class officers: Judith Serafin, Judith Golden, Susan Noll and Dolores Caputo.

Honor Student

Linda M. Bleier, top-ranking honor student of the Junior class of St. Agnes High School, has been listed in the final group of candidates for the National Youth Conference in the Atom.

Development Tests

Students at Bishop Kearney High School have received the results of the National Educational Development Tests administered in March to almost 450,000 freshmen and sophomores throughout the country. These test scores are reported in such a way that students may see where they stand among others at the same grade level. Taken together with the records achieved at school by a student, the test results help students to form realistic educational and vocational plans and to extend their future education accordingly.

Palms Banquet

Sister Marie Margaret, Principal of St. Agnes High School, and Sister Dorothy Ellen, vice principal, were guests of honor at the annual "Palms" Banquet held at the school cafeteria.

Office Listed

The former Six in One Ladder Co. at 474 Thurston Rd. is presently being converted into an office building. The office will be ready by mid-summer and applications are now being taken. Offices will have all modern facilities including telephone, air conditioning and secretarial services.

Off The Press

Mercy's four publications, Big Sisters, Senior Ball, Class Day and Palms, are now being printed.

Science-Math Seminar Officers

SCIENCE-MATH SEMINAR Officers shows with Dr. George G. Berg, center, speaker, are from left, Jim Chaffery, Aquinas, vice president; Stan Jakubaszek, Aquinas, president; Evelyn Dora, Nazareth, secretary; and Judy Hall, Mercy, treasurer.

Now President

The president's level of the Parents' Association of Our Lady of Mercy High School has passed from Raymond Keller to Harry Myer.

Awards Day

The Student Government Association at Mercy is winding up its year with two events: the School Officers' Picnic at Mercy on June 8, and the annual Awards Day assembly, Monday, June 8, according to Ko-La Verde, SGA president.

Best Speller

"Linda" was the word which brought the title of Mercy's Best Speller to freshman Barbara Prosser, the remaining contestants in Mercy's oral spelling on May 26, according to Sister Mary Raphael, vice-principal.

Big Sisters

Mercy juniors will entertain their "Big Sisters" at a brunch of Junior-Senior Dress-Up Day, June 9, according to Polly Eble, class president. As a token of appreciation, the juniors will present a corsage to each senior.

Off The Press

Mercy's four publications, Big Sisters, Senior Ball, Class Day and Palms, are now being printed.

Senior Picnic

The graduation class of St. Agnes High School began the first of their many commencement activities with a picnic in Genesee Valley Park under the direction of their class officers: Judith Serafin, Judith Golden, Susan Noll and Dolores Caputo.

Now President

The president's level of the Parents' Association of Our Lady of Mercy High School has passed from Raymond Keller to Harry Myer.

Awards Day

The Student Government Association at Mercy is winding up its year with two events: the School Officers' Picnic at Mercy on June 8, and the annual Awards Day assembly, Monday, June 8, according to Ko-La Verde, SGA president.

Honor Student

Linda M. Bleier, top-ranking honor student of the Junior class of St. Agnes High School, has been listed in the final group of candidates for the National Youth Conference in the Atom.

Development Tests

Students at Bishop Kearney High School have received the results of the National Educational Development Tests administered in March to almost 450,000 freshmen and sophomores throughout the country. These test scores are reported in such a way that students may see where they stand among others at the same grade level. Taken together with the records achieved at school by a student, the test results help students to form realistic educational and vocational plans and to extend their future education accordingly.

Off The Press

Mercy's four publications, Big Sisters, Senior Ball, Class Day and Palms, are now being printed.

Senior Picnic

The graduation class of St. Agnes High School began the first of their many commencement activities with a picnic in Genesee Valley Park under the direction of their class officers: Judith Serafin, Judith Golden, Susan Noll and Dolores Caputo.

Honor Student

Linda M. Bleier, top-ranking honor student of the Junior class of St. Agnes High School, has been listed in the final group of candidates for the National Youth Conference in the Atom.

Development Tests

Students at Bishop Kearney High School have received the results of the National Educational Development Tests administered in March to almost 450,000 freshmen and sophomores throughout the country. These test scores are reported in such a way that students may see where they stand among others at the same grade level. Taken together with the records achieved at school by a student, the test results help students to form realistic educational and vocational plans and to extend their future education accordingly.

May Queen At Mercy High

MAY QUEEN, Mary Walsh, (center) is surrounded by banner bearers (foreground) and her senior and junior attendants during May Day ceremonies at Our Lady of Mercy High School on May 26. Bishop James E. Kearney offered the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass and preached the sermon.

Girl Sisters

Mercy senior, Mary Anne Sheppelman, will speak at the prospective Girl Sisters on June 6 at 12:30 noon at the Treadway Inn.

Class Day

Thursday, May 28, was the date of the annual Class Day for seniors at Our Lady of Mercy High School. On that day the class presented an hour-long skit entitled "I Remember Mercy" and narrated by Pat Cerame, for the students and faculty.

Senior Ball

Mercy seniors will hold their Senior Ball on Saturday, June 6, at the school. The orchestra will provide the music.

Senior Ball

Mercy seniors will hold their Senior Ball on Saturday, June 6, at the school. The orchestra will provide the music.

Big Sisters

Mercy juniors will entertain their "Big Sisters" at a brunch of Junior-Senior Dress-Up Day, June 9, according to Polly Eble, class president. As a token of appreciation, the juniors will present a corsage to each senior.

Off The Press

Mercy's four publications, Big Sisters, Senior Ball, Class Day and Palms, are now being printed.

Seton Groups In Action

34TH BRANCH of Seton Workers of St. Mary's Hospital to meet at home of Mrs. Joseph Weber, 448 Rock Beach Rd., Tuesday, June 2 at 10:30 a.m. Work on projects for the Christmas Sale will be continued.

40TH BRANCH monthly meeting at home of Mrs. Joseph Rodriguez of Worthington Road, Thursday, June 4, at 8:30 p.m.

26TH BRANCH members viewed slides of Mrs. E. O. Richardson and Mrs. W. E. Barr of their trip to the Holy Land at the May meeting. Mrs. Thomas Meagher will entertain the group, Tuesday evening, June 2.

Troopers Elect Fr. Schifferli

Father William Schifferli, pastor of Christ the King Church, Irondequoit, was elected recently as chaplain to New York State Troopers, Troop A, who serve in western areas of the state.

Plans are currently underway to organize a Holy Name Society for Catholic members of the state police force.

ADDITIONS COMPLETE REMODELING SERVICE

- ALTERATIONS—REPAIRS
- KITCHENS—Yorktown Cabinets or Custom Built
- FAMILY ROOMS—Fireplaces Grilles
- BATHROOMS—Ceramic Tile Work
- PAINTING and DECORATING
- HEATING
- ROOF REPAIRS
- Air Conditioning
- New Roofing & Siding

2359 RIDGE RD. W.
"ROOF RAISING"—Our Specialty!

SPECIAL! LIMITED TIME TO ACQUAINT MORE PEOPLE WITH WONDERFUL ACME QUALITY PAINT

SAVE $11.05

On This Combination Offer!

Your Choice of WOOD or ALUMINUM

When You Buy This 16 Ft. EXTENSION LADDER

Regularly $16.00

For only $4.95

WITH THE PURCHASE OF 4 GALLONS (OR MORE) ACME QUALITY HOUSE PAINT

AT THE REGULAR PRICE

On Sale Now At Your Neighborhood ACME QUALITY PAINT DEALER

Distributed by Hadlock Paint Co., 466-470 Central Ave., Rochester, N.Y.
For the Name of Your Nearest ACME Dealer Phone BA 5-7430

EVERYBODY LOVES A BARGAIN

IN WHISKEY IT'S GOOD-TASTING

WILSON

$4.99 FULL QUART

$2.65 PINT