Msgr. Connors, 66 Years a Priest

Monsignor Thomas F. Connors, pastor emeritus of Blessed Sacrament Church, will mark his sixty-sixth year in the priesthood June 11. He will be 94 on July 12.

He is the founder and first pastor of Blessed Sacrament parish and served actively from 1001 until last year when he retired from the administrative duties of pastor. He is still a frequent visitor to the sick and continues to play a busy role in the spiritual life of the parish.

He has asked that there be no festivities on the occasion of his anniversary or birthday.

Trinity Honors 2 Area Students

Two Rochester girls, Virginia Jameson and JoAnn Madigan, were tapped for campus posts at Trinity College, a Catholic liberal arts college for women in Washington, D.C.

Miss Jameson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Jameson, of 366 Mt. Airy Dr., was chosen vice-president of the International Relations Club for the coming academic year. A history major, Miss Jameson has been active in the IRC for the past two yearse and has also been a member of the Political Club. She is a graduate of Irondequoit High School.

JoAnn Madigan, was chosen song leader for the incoming senior class. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Madigan of 275 Clover St., she served as class song leader this year and was in charge of composing and adapting the songs for Blue Class Day in the fall. She is a graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Three Priests For Missions

Burlington, —(NC)— Three young priests of the Burlington diocese have volunteered for missionary work in Latin America. Bishop Robert F. Joyce has been released from diocesan duties Fathers Peter D. Falco of Burlington; Robert H. Lapan of Rutland and David G. Sevigny of Springfield to serve with the Missionary Society of St. James the Apostle founded by Cardinal Cushing of Boston for Latin American missionary work.

Encyclical to be Topic At International Meet

Racine, Wis. — (RNS) — Religious, political and sociological leaders concluded a three-day meeting here with an agreement to use Pope John's famed encyclical, "Peace on Earth," as the basis for a major international convocation next Feb. 17-19 in New York City.

The convocation will explore how the wisdom and spirit of the encyclical can best be brought to bear on the conflicts that continue to imperil humanity."

Twenty-three leaders attended the closed-door session at Wingspread, the Johnson Foundation conference center near here. The chairman, Robert M. Hutchins, former president of the University of Chicago, said there was agreement that religious, philosophical and ideological differences should not block the effort to achieve peace between nations.

Russia and the United States were among the countries represented. Dr. Hutchins said the participants came as individuals and not as official representatives of their respect governments.

Appearing at a press conference with him were most of the participants, among them Georgi Kornienko, minister counselor of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D.C.

Kornienko commented that the conference had achieved clarification of "what we are speaking about" and "helped us to understand better each other."

Visits Moscow

Notre Dame,—(NC)— Father Theodore M. Hesburgh, C.S.C., president of the University of Notre Dame, arrived in Moscow (May 18) to attend a meeting of the administrative council of the International Association of Universities, it was learned here.

Father Hesburgh is president of the International Federation of Catholic Universities which is a constituent member of the association. He will be an observer at the week-long sessions being held at the University of Moscow and the University of Leningrad.
