

Msgr. Connors, 66 Years a Priest

Monsignor Thomas F. Connors, pastor emeritus of Blessed Sacrament Church, will mark his sixty-sixth year in the priesthood June 11. He will be 64 on July 12.

He is the founder and first pastor of Blessed Sacrament parish and served actively from 1901 until last year when he retired from the administrative duties of pastor. He is still a frequent visitor to the sick and continues to play a busy role in the spiritual life of the parish.

He has asked that there be no festivities on the occasion of his anniversary or birthday.

Trinity Honors 2 Area Students

Two Rochester girls, Virginia Jameson and JoAnn Madigan, were tapped for campus posts at Trinity College, a Catholic liberal arts college for women in Washington, D.C.

Miss Jameson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bernard F. Jameson, of 308 Mt. Airy Dr., was chosen vice-president of the International Relations Club for the coming academic year. A history major, Miss Jameson has been active in the IRC for the past two years and has also been a member of the Pollen Club. She is a graduate of Irondequoit High School.

JoAnn Madigan was chosen song leader for the incoming senior class. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Madigan of 276 Clover St., she served as class song leader this year and was in charge of composing and adapting the songs for Blue Class Day in the fall. She is a graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School.

Encyclical to be Topic At International Meet

Basine, Wis.—(RNS)—Religious, political and sociological leaders concluded a three-day meeting here with an agreement to use Pope John's famed encyclical, "Peace on Earth," as the basis for a major international convocation next Feb. 27-29 in New York City.
The convocation will explore the wisdom and spiritual energy of the encyclical, and will be held in the presence of the American missionary work.

effort to achieve peace between nations.
Russia and the United States were among the countries represented. Dr. Hutchins said the participants came as individuals and not as official representatives of their respective governments.
Appearing at a press conference with him were most of the participants, among them George Korzeniowski, in 1948, counselor of the Soviet Embassy in Washington, D.C.
Korzeniowski commented that the conference had achieved clarification of "what we are speaking about" and "helped us to understand better" each other.
