Smirnoff-filtered through a "mountain" of charcoal

What makes Smirnoff so crystal clear, uniquely smooth, so remarkably free of taste or odor? Every drop is filtered through 7 tons of activated charcoal. That's why it's dryer in a Martini, smoother on-the-rocks, mixes with anything that pours. And it leaves you breathless!

New Fisher Alumni Officers

New officers of St. John Fisher College alumni association are John Hoffman, Raymond Buff, Richard Freitas, president, and Ronald Schoneberger. The association elected Dr. Anthony Pasquitta as "alumnus of the year." He is on the staff of the psychiatry department at Strong Memorial Hospital and head of the alumni's intellectual culture program. Freitas, the new alumni president, is planning manager at Caldwell Manufacturing Co., Rochester.

Swimming Program Set At Neighborhood Sites

Swimming programs for boys and girls, ages five and up, will be conducted this summer in fifteen privately owned outdoor swimming pools and registrations now being accepted for these classes. Instruction is to be offered at all skill levels with particular emphasis given to non-swimmers.

Classes are limited in size to insure the best possible teaching conditions and all lessons are to be taught by qualified American Red Cross Water Safety instructors and aides. At the conclusion of each eight lesson course, students receive signed progression cards and swim suit badges in recognition of the progress made.

SPECIAL ADULT classes are also to be conducted at various locations for non-swimmers as well as for those requiring instruction in more advanced phases of swimming and diving. The purpose of this program is to make swimming instruction and the knowledge of the elements of water safety readily accessible by offering such training at neighborhood sites.

Fr. Callahan Marks Jubilee In Priesthood

Father John T. Callahan, well known to many Rochester area residents, recently marked his silver jubilee in the priesthood.

He celebrated his jubilee Mass at the Church of the Holy Canadian Martyrs, Combermere, Ontario. Bishop William J. Smith of Pembroke presided at the Mass and gave the sermon.

Father Callahan is chaplain at Combermere's Madonna House, actually a village which includes a chapel, two farms, library, shops and several houses — all of which make the setting for a "university" of the lay apostolate.

Founded in 1943 by American newspaperman Eddie Doherty and his wife, a Russian refugee, the Baroness Catherine de Hueck Madonna House attracts hundreds annually to its indoctrination courses.

Father Callahan, prior to serving as chaplain there, was chaplain at Mercy Motherhouse and High School, Rochester, and curia at Sacred Heart Cathedral and St. Augustine Church.

Steinwachs Mark 57th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. William F. Steinwachs of 737 Amott Boulevard were entertained at a family dinner at the home of their daughter on Sunday, June 7. The occasion honored the 57th wedding anniversary of the couple and the birthday of Mrs. Steinwachs.

They have three children, Mrs. Irving F. Nientimp, Alden, and Francis, also nine grandchildren among whom are Sister Thaddeus of the Sisters of St. Joseph who is an instructor at Sacred Heart School and William Steinwachs of the Basilian Order, an instructor at Aquinas Institute.

Mr. Steinwachs is a retired Rochester contractor and home builder.

CYO In The News

This summer, the Catholic Youth Organization will conduct four different day camps throughout Rochester. The day camps will be located at the downtown C.Y.O., St. Andrew's Parish, 623 Portland Ave., St. Augustine's Parish, 410 Chilli Ave., and Holy Apostles' Parish, Lyell Avenue.

All but the downtown camp will run from July 6 through August 28, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. The downtown C.Y.O. day camp will start June 22 and end August 28.

A highly qualified staff has been hired this year to run the different day camps, and many new and exciting activities are planned for the camping season. Some of the activities will include swimming at the C.Y.O. pool, a softball league between the camps, cookouts, hikes, a day camp olympics among all camps, and many arts and crafts.

Registration fee of all the camps is $5.00, which covers the cost of the camp insurance, a camp T-shirt and a camp hat. The camp fee is $5.00 per week, $16.00 for a two week period. If a camper registers for 4 weeks, the fee is then $27.00, plus registration. If the child registers for the entire 8 week camping session, the fee is then $48.00, plus the $5.00 registration fee. The age of the campers will be from 6 to 13 years of age.

For registration blanks and camp flyers, giving all camp details, contact the C.Y.O. at 50 Chestnut St., BA 5-2707.

Counsel Seen Divorce Cure

Detroit — (NC) — A judge said someday "we will arrive at the ideal situation" when a divorce suit simply will state, discord threatens a marriage and the parties are in need of marriage counseling.

Circuit Court Judge Victor Baum, longtime advocate of compulsory marriage counseling as a means of cutting down the rising divorce rate, told the annual banquet of Wayne University's Law Review staff present divorce proceedings bring about family breakups unnecessarily.

Under the present system, he said, one married partner files suit while the marriage is in an acute stage and there is no provision for counseling in an attempt to save the marriage.

GOD LOVE YOU!
 By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

Does not a letter like this make us ashamed? Read it and see if you are willing to give in proportion to the boy!

I am a new convert to the Church and I am very proud to be a Catholic. It had been my dream for a long time. Now I feel that I am a Catholic, I feel many responsibilities toward the poor Catholics of the world. I am 35 years old and I do feel the pain of being poor, but not in the same way as the people you mention in your columns. My worries are small compared to those in Asia and Africa who worry about having no church to go to Mass in, while many (as do I) go to Mass in a huge cathedral. Or those who don't have medicine, while many Americans spend a fortune on reducing pills.

"As I said, I am poor also. I can't afford to go to the theatre and school dances, and I can't buy the latest records and clothes. But when I add up all of my blessings and compare them to the sufferings of the less fortunate, I feel that I am cheating. The poorer people of the world, I would like to see God in at least half the luxury that you and I do. I would like to see you, I am sending you some extra stamps from my collection in the hope that you can use them in some way. They are not much, but they are all I can send you right now. Someday I hope to be able to send enough money to build 100 churches. I am also sending you a silver dollar my mother gave me some time ago. It has great sentimental value, but I want to show the unfortunate of Asia and Africa that they have friends who want to help them. That there are people who care."

GOD LOVE YOU to V.H. for $75 "In thanksgiving for the successful sale of property and in honor of Our Lady of Perpetual Help" to P.H. for $5 "I was going to buy sneakers with this, but I think the poor people need the money more to buy what they need." to E.M. for $10 "In honor of St. Joseph and the Blessed Virgin Mary" to M.K. for $2 "Working for your prayers. I give this to the Missions." to Mrs. J.G. for $10 "In gratitude to St. Anthony and St. John for helping my daughter to find everything that she had lost."

Keep your family together during the summer by praying the WORLD MISSION ROSARY. Blessed by Bishop Sheen, each decade is a different color, representing the five continents where missionaries are laboring to bring Christ to the pagan. Send your request and an offering of $3.00 to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 306 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York 10001.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to: Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 306 Fifth Ave., New York, N.Y. 10001, or your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 50 Chestnut St., Rochester, N.Y. 14604.
