Notre Dame Staff Members Receive Grants

Sister Mary Bernardine, R.S.M., of the faculty of Notre Dame High School, has been awarded a grant by New York State for special study at a Summer Institute in English at Nazareth College from June 24 to August 4. Sister received her B.A. degree from Nazareth in 1962 and has been a member of the English department at Notre Dame High School for the past two years.

THIS GRANT makes a total of five received to date by members of the Notre Dame faculty for summer study. Other grants include: Dr. Dominic Rossi — National Science Foundation award for Summer Institute for High School Teachers of Science at Bucknell University; Sister Mary Carmella — National Science Foundation three-summer grant for study of advanced chemistry at Union College; Sister Mary Borromeo — National Defense Education Act grant for a seven-week intensive study of advanced French at Notre Dame University; Sister Mary Anne — National Defense Education Act grant for a six-week intensive study of German at Princeton University. All of these teachers are pursuing studies beyond the master's degree.

Other Notre Dame faculty members who are participating in summer study include the following: Sister Mary Jonatha, who will attend a workshop for high school religion teachers at Fordham University from August 31 to September 4. Sister will make an intensive survey of new trends in the liturgy, catechetics and Bible study. Sister Mary Jonatha received her M.A. in history from St. Bonaventure University in 1961.

Sister Mary Suzanne will study advanced history at Catholic University in Washington, D.C. this summer; Sister Marie Raymond will take courses leading to a degree in nursing education at Duquesne University in Pittsburgh; Sister Mary Sarto will pursue studies in English and music at Marywood College in Scranton, Pennsylvania.

Sister Mary Jane Frances, a member of the science department at Notre Dame High School, will teach science this summer at Catherine McAuley College in Rochester. Sister received her Master of Science degree from Villanova University, and has been a member of Notre Dame's faculty since its opening in 1955.

Lakemont Girl In CCD Program

Miss Anne Cronin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Crough of P.O. Box 32, Lakemont is one of eight students from The College of Saint Rose, Albany, participating in the Summer Lay Apostolate Program in the Raleigh, North Carolina Diocese under the direction of Bishop Waters.

From June 10 through June 26 Miss Cronin will teach 3rd and 4th grades at St. Thomas More Parish in Chapel Hill to pupils of the Religious Vacation Schools of the CCD program, Confraternity of Christian Doctrine.

Since 1947, Saint Rose students have participated in Summer Program to aid pastors in reaching their scattered congregations as teachers, census takers, visiting, and adult discussion and instruction leaders. The CSMC, Catholic Students' Mission Crusade Unit, on campus sponsors the girls.

Watkins Glen Meeting Set

Watkins Glen—St. Mary's of the Lake Rosary and Altar Society will hold the final meeting for the summer on June 16. The rosary will be in church for all deceased members at 7:30 and the meeting will be in St. Mary's center at 8 p.m.

Mrs. James Scaptura, president invites the public to the program that will follow. Mrs. James Allan of Olean will give a talk and show slides on Africa.

Mothers, Nuns Feted By Scouts

Five Girl Scout Troops of St. Casimir's School held their annual Mother and Daughter Banquet on Wednesday, June 3, at the school hall to bid farewell to Scouting till September. About 225 attended.

The nuns of St. Casimir's were guests and were escorted from the convent to the Banquet by the Girl Scouts.

Arts, Crafts and projects were each troop were on display.

The banquet came to a close with the "Flag Ceremony" and "Singing of Taps."
