

Discotheque

By PAUL CONTESTABLE

The discotheque craze is rapidly sweeping the country and the discotheque is the place to go.

The continuous stream of rhythm and tempo seems to cast an almost hypnotic effect on the listener.

Starting in France, the discotheque spread to New York, Miami and Los Angeles.

Now Decca brings the discotheque into the home where all can enjoy it.

The Decca release offers Make Someone Happy, a fox trot by Peter Duchin.

These include the fox trots, Yesterday, Mack the Knife and Hello, Dolly.

The stereo quality of this record is superb.

Strains of the theatre organ will bring back pleasant memories.

About two years ago, the idea for the recording was conceived by a few of the organist's close friends.

The history of the organ is a story in itself.

The organ's lush timbre, vibrant, naturalistic marimba and superb reeds.

Eddie Baker, a native of New York City, was organist in theatres there for several years.

The recording was done in the empty theatre, thereby adding to the fullness and depth of which the organ is capable.

Selections include: Simply Slightly, Eddie Baker's version of the title song to Ballade.

The Tarriers invite everyone to gather around on their new Decca release.

Featured on the LP are San Francisco Bay Blues, Quinto (My Little Pony), Crawford Song, My Ramin' Boy.

Some fascinating vocals with a couple of first class instrumentalists thrown in for good measure.

The original Broadway cast recording of Anyone Can Whistle provides some pleasing moments of listening to the Columbia label.

The amusing interrogation sequence adds a provocative touch to the score.

The non-profit group supplies regally-free scripts to drama groups, schools and missionaries.

Fade Out, Fade In

By EUPHONIA WYATT

FADE OUT—FADE IN: Rex Harrison made it the tradition to give the lead in a musical to Italian Bernard Shaw.

Although the book and lyrics of Fade Out are by Cochen and Green and the music by Jules Styne.

Certainly the tale of the ugly duckling flying toward its routine as the exploitation of Hollywood excesses.

"Time you tried Bellows Partners Choice, the gentle taste in whiskey."

It's true! Many people like to drown or dilute the taste of whiskey. That's because many people are strangers to Bellows Partners Choice. Our friends, of course, know better. They know the gentle taste. Partners Choice is different. It's made with more gently aged premium whiskeys. Is blended for the sensitive palate. Is lighter, smoother, gentler all the way down. Worth trying. Gentle reader? 4.99 4 ct. $6.19 Quart
