Preludes To Common Worship Vatican Unity Prelate Blesses Grass Roots Ecumenical Action

Boston — (RNS) — Cardinal Augustin Bea, president of the Vatican Secretariat for Promoting Christian Unity, held an "off the record" discussion here with the Boston Archdiocesan Ecumenical Commission before his departure for Rome.

It was the first such meeting in the United States of the Vatican official and a diocesan commission for promoting Christian unity, Auxiliary Bishop Thomas J. Riley of Boston is chairman of the commission.

A spokesman disclosed some details of the meeting held at St. John's Semin-ary. He said Cardinal Bea gave the commission members — including two lay-men — his personal blessing and congratulated the group for "the practical manner in which implications of ecumen-ism were being brought to a diocesan and parish level."

The Vatican official stressed that Pope John XXIII and Pope Paul VI have given close supervision to all ecumenical endeavors of the Secretariat and given It the advantage of their personal direction and interest.

Cardinal Bea reportedly described his hope for the future of ecumenism, some aspects of the statement on Christian and Jewish relations and a short history of the forming of the Vatican Secretariat.

A STATEMENT on "Common Wor-ship" was issued by the Commission following the meeting.

It noted that in the Boston area in recent years there has been a "divinely inspired activity of Christians coming together in trust, conversation, and in prayer." It said that the "historical and cultural heritage" of the area "makes it at times easy for us to respond to this call, at other times difficult."

The statement stressed that commonworship - Catholics joining in prayer with their Christian brothers - is "one very important and central area of ecumenical concern."

It said that in the light of such concern "the spirit prompts us to offer the following statements" on common worship:

"We recognize that all who are broth-ers by baptism and faith in the Lord have a yearning to worship together in professing this faith and manifesting the charley of this one baptism.

"The deep and saddening divisions among Christians, however, necessarily prevent complete union in Eucharistic worship: This union, as the sign and mystic cause of unity, is that for which we most yearn and pray."

It urged Catholics to pray "with our separated brothers" privately, and in certain circumstances, publicly "to further the day when we can be one at the Eucharistic altar and table, and to foster mutual chairty."

The statement noted that the archdio-cesan commission "is ready and eager not only to encourage in every way possible and to give counsel regarding Common Worship," but also to grant necessary permission when required by present Church law.
