ST. WILLIAM. Conesus. Women of Sacred Heart League met at home of Mrs. Pauline Spaine, Wednesday, June 17. One hundred and thirty-five bandages were rolled while Mrs. Clarence Miller read a nine-page letter received by Mrs. Ray Gehlin from Bernadette O'Neill, lay missionary nurse, stationed at a hospital in New Guinea. She wrote to thank the group for the bandages and hospital gowns, also to tell about the work, country and motives. The natives wear very little, she said and a few of the women are being trained to help in the hospital, a few of the hospital gowns were given them to wear as uniforms and they were proud to wear them. Their diet consists of a native potato, Kaw-Kaw and green leaves, eaten once or twice a day, they suffer with tuberculosis, bronchitis and malaria. Their only livelihood is the coconut and more recently they have been growing coffee and cocoa. Miss O'Neill is being assisted by Patricia Ward, both from New Zealand. They have

HOLY GHOST. Coldwater. Sacred Heart Society of this parish to conduct June Business Meeting, Tuesday, June 30 at 8 p.m. in Parish Hall. Mrs. Reed Gates will handle arrangements for refreshments.

ST. ANTHONY. Rochester. St. Anthony Society of St. Francis de Sales Church celebrated their 27th anniversary with a Solemn Mass and group Communion at 8 a.m. June 13 in St. Francis de Sales Church. A breakfast was served later in the school hall.

A BANQUET was held on Sunday in Club 88 with 105 members present. Guest speaker for the occasion was the Rev. Phillip Lioi, assistant pastor at St. Francis de Sales, who spoke on the subject of St. Anthony, patron saint of the organization. The Rt. Rev. Msgr. Edward K. Ball, pastor, spoke briefly to the members and gave the opening prayer.

Mrs. Orante Clonli, president of the St. Anthony Society, greeted guests and expressed her gratitude at the large number attending the Mass and banquet. Several Italian songs were sung by a duet, Adele Clonli and Bruna D'Amico. Movies of the 27th anniversary banquet were shown by Mrs. George David. Dancing followed.

A family dinner was held at the Welcome Ranch. A reception took place at the couple's home in the evening. Besides their son, Father Joseph Trovato, they have another son, two daughters, one grandson and a granddaughter.
