Mission Nuns Take Part In Maryknoll Ceremonies

A young Maryknoll Sister from Rochester pronounced her First Vows, becoming a full-fledged member of the missionary order, at a ceremony held at the Maryknoll novitiate at Topsfield, Mass., on June 24.

Sister M. Michael Anne is the former Mary Louise Herlihy of Our Lady of Perpetual Help parish. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas F. Herlihy, 51 Reliance St., Rochester, she is a graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School and attended D.V. Youville College in Buffalo. She also spent a year as a bank teller at the Eastman Savings and Loan.

At the same time, but in a ceremony at the Maryknoll Motherhouse, Maryknoll, N.Y., four girls from Rochester received the religious habit and new names. They are:

Rita Otterbein, to be known as Sister Marie Rita, a graduate of St. Agnes High School, Rochester, and Rosary Hill College in Buffalo. She was employed by the Monroe County Department of Social Welfare before she entered Maryknoll. Her mother, Mrs. Helen Bernice Rice, lives at 34 Lightfoot St., Rochester, in St. Anne's parish.

Jean Water, now Sister M. Michael Patrick, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Water, 354 Kings Highway, Rochester, in Christ, the King parish. She graduated from St. Agnes High School and was employed by the Rochester Telephone Company before coming to Maryknoll last September.

Elizabeth Erland, who has the name Sister M. Matthew Elizabeth, graduated from Fairport High School and Genesee State Teachers College, Geneseo, N.Y. She taught in the Chenango Valley schools in Binghamton for four years and also in the Fairport Central School. Her father is Mr. Walter Erland, 1005 East Whitney Road, Fairport, in Our Lady of the Assumption parish.

Mary Dally, now known as Sister M. James Nora, a graduate of Our Lady of Mercy High School in Rochester and of Auburn Community College in Auburn. The daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Dally, 223 South Albany St., Ithaca, she was a member of Immaculate Conception parish in Ithaca.

Boston College
David Joseph Angelson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dominic Angelson, 38 Latta Road, received a Bachelor of Science Degree from Boston College, June 8. He was on the Dean's list each year. In the fall he will return for a three-year course in Patent Law.

Funeral Held For Priest, Served Here

Funeral rites for Rev. Clement Killgoar, SS. CC. were held at St. Anthony's Church, Mattitohick, Mass., on June 26. Father Killgoar served in Rochester at Our Lady of Victory Church.

A native of Dorchester section of Boston, Father Killgoar was ordained in Washington, D.C. in May 1942. Following appointments as Seminary procurator in Wareham and Superior of Sacred Hearts Monastery, Fairhaven, Mass., he was transferred in 1949 to Ireland, where he spent two years establishing a House to train missionary priests.

He received a degree in Canon Law at Catholic University, Washington in 1954. After serving appointments in Rochester and Washington from 1955 to 1960, he was named pastor of St. Anthony's in Mattitohick. Last September he was made provincial counselor.

The funeral Mass was offered by the Most Reverend James J. Gerard, D.D. The eulogy was given by Father William Davis, SS. CC. Interment was made in Sacred Hearts Cemetery, Fairhaven, Mass.

Arthur McCann Funeral Held

Geneva — Funeral service for a former Geneva mayor, Arthur J. McCann of 3805 Radnor Pl., Saratoga, Fla., was held June 23 from the Roberts Funeral Home, Saratoga, Fla., and in the Church of the Immaculation in Saratoga. Burial was in Saratoga.

Mr. McCann died unexpectedly June 20 in his home in Florida. He was former vice principal of Taras Shevchenko Ukrainian's poet laureate, on Saturday, June 27 in Washington, D.C.

Ukrainian Shevchenko Anniversary Honorary Committee included the Ukrainian Catholic bishop headed by Metropolitan Archbishop Ambrose Sanyshyn and the Ukrainian Orthodox bishops under Metropolitan Ioan Theodorovych.

Not a Crusade But a Mass Seminar at Interracial Week

Five students of St. Vincent Seminary reported that they had a "crusade" against prejudice. They attended during the week of June 6.

Among the students attending the seminar, the following are named: Douglas C. Hoffman of Rochester Diocese, who described the events of that week.

Annual Social In Perkinsville

Perkinsville — Annual social for the benefit of Sacred Heart Church, will be held July 4 starting at 3 p.m. in Perkinsville Fire Hall. Menu will comprise potato salad, baked beans, hot, hamburger, home made cakes, ice cream, coffee, tea and pop. Entertainment for all will be provided including a fancy work booth and a flat pad.

Mrs. Josephine Davis who manages a modern apartment house of "crime, unemployment and local danger areas," expressing disappointment with the "apathy and non-involvement prevailing among the Catholic clergy and laity."

Charles Calhoun, a Negro attorney soon to move into an all-white neighborhood, explained his move to the students, saying he did so "not on the basis of a crusade, but on the basis of human considerations of respectable neighborhood, good school and attractive home."

Trips were made throughout the area, visiting homes and tenements. The Rochester seminar was especially impressed with the historical presentation given to the week with prayers in common, psalms, readings from St. Paul each evening by the Negro hymns, "We Shall Overcome."

Mrs. Daniel Canwell, chairman of Friendship House, according to Hoffman, summed up the week by proclaiming she attending to be the "Community of God, the Church in Chicago" gathered together in authentic concern for the Negro brothers who are not yet treated as the image and likeness of God.

The seminarist Hoffman stated, returned home "more fully aware of the head-and-blood reality of the race problem and even more conscious of what the Christian response should be."

Receives CWC Award

St. Patrick's Memorial Post No. 1266 (C.W.V.) recently made its annual Rev. Nicholas R. Alletto Award to Gerald Russell, 94 Standish Road, for his active participation of laymen in the political life of the community and the country.

He stressed the fact that in difference towards political life by the laymen results in poor government and that active participation will mean better politics and government for all citizens.
