Father Beeman New Pastor

Father James W. Beeman has been named as pastor of Our Lady of the Visitation Church, Shippensburg, Pa., on June 30.

Father Beeman is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter S. Beeman of Hermitage Road, Rochester. Born July 12, 1926, he attended St. Thomas the Apostle School, St. Andrew's Seminary and Mt. St. Mary's Seminary, Emmitsburg, Md.

Ordained in 1953 by Bishop Leahy of the Harrisburg diocese, Father Beeman served as assistant pastor at St. Mary, Lancaster, St. Patrick, Carlisle, St. Joseph, Danville and St. Columba in Bloomsburg, Pa.

Baker, Kuhn Head Local Dimes Drive

David Baker, Rochester attorney and a member of Our Lady, Queen of Peace Parish, Brighton is chairman of the 1964-1965 Monroe County March of Dimes campaign according to Dr. Frank P. Smith, chairman of Monroe County Chapter National Foundation.

Assisting Baker as co-chairman is Kenneth A. Kuhn, Sr., who headed last year's American Legion-Rainbow-Crutch March of Dimes effort. Kuhn is a member of St. Thomas the Apostle Parish, Colebrook Drive, Irondequoit.

Dr. Smith welcomed the two leaders and said that the March of Dimes in 1963-1964 yielded approximately $89,000, an "encouraging increase" over the previous year's gross total. The National Foundation programs in the fight against birth defects and arthritis are expanding, Dr. Smith said.

MR. AND MRS. JOHN HACH

Hach Couple Leaves For Africa Mission Work

Mr. and Mrs. John Hach, former Rochesterians now residing in Buffalo, are leaving this week for Nyari, Kenya, East Africa to serve as Lay Mission-Helpers at St. Mary's Secondary School.

Mrs. Hach, the former Jean Marie Krapp, attended St. Ambrose School and Our Lady of Mercy High School. She is a teacher and will serve in this Catholic overseas mission in that capacity.

The Lay Mission-Helpers Association consists of Catholic lay men and women who volunteer to serve in overseas missions in their professional and occupational skills. These range from medical to educational, technical and administrative fields.

THE VOLUNTEERS agree to spend three years overseas under the supervision of the bishop of the diocese to which they are assigned. The only material compensation they receive is food, housing, medical care, and $25 per month pocket money.

The Lay Mission-Helpers Association operates under the auspices of His Eminence James Francis Cardinal McIntyre, Archbishop of Los Angeles. Founder was a Los Angeles priest, Msgr. Anthony Brouwers. The Association has sent over 200 persons to missions overseas in Africa, and Latin America.

Each Lay Mission-Helper receives a year's training in theology, scripture, missiology and Catholic social doctrine. He also studies the language and customs of the country to which he or she will be assigned.

Headquarters of the Lay Mission-Helpers Association are at 1634 W. 9th St., Los Angeles, California 90018, where inquiries are welcomed.

Novena To Open At St. Anne's

The 35th Annual Novena of devotion to St. Anne at St. Anne's Church, 1644 Mt. Hope Avenue, Rochester, New York, will open this Saturday, July 18, and continue each day until the Feast, Sunday July 26.

A sermon by the Rev. Leo P. Whoney, O.M.F., together with the Novena prayer and blessing with the relic of St. Anne mark the service each evening at 7:45 p.m.

Weekday Masses will be at 7, 7:30 and 8:00 a.m. Confessions each weekday from 4:30 to 5:30 p.m. and after evening services. Novena booklets and intention leaflets will be available each evening. Visitors are cordially invited to attend.

Sodality Meet At Nazareth

Nazareth Academy sodalists will meet in the school cafeteria Sunday, July 19, from 7 to 9 p.m. to revitalize thinking and action pertaining to the Christian apostolate.

THE PROGRAM will include a Bible Vigil, discussion on topics related to modern Catholic thinking, and questions and answers. The meeting will close with Benediction.

The following priests will participate in the program: the Rev. David L. Gaiser, the Rev. Bernard F. Gross, and the Rev. Thomas G. Lenzard. Topics will include: "The Meaning of the Mass," "Everyday Problems Confronting Catholics," and "The Liturgy and the Sodalist."

Others seated with Lampert are: Dr. Charles Blahop, first vice president; Irving VanDyke, second vice president; Eugene Renz, treasurer, and Judy Kaiser, secretary.

Novena Set At Holy Family

The Annual Novena to Good St. Anne will begin at Holy Family Church on Sunday evening, July 19 and close on July 27 with the Papal Blessing.

This novena has been a tradition at Holy Family since 1884 when Father Dietrich Laurens, the new pastor, originated it.

The Novena this year will be conducted by Father Thomas Schmidt, C.S.S.R., a young missionary priest from New York. Services will begin each evening at 7:45 p.m. and last one-half hour.

Monsignor George J. Schmidt, pastor of Holy Family, invites all to join him in making this novena.

Fr. Baker Day Scheduled

Services on Father Baker Day, Wednesday, July 29, will begin with the offering of a Solemn Requiem Mass in Our Lady of Victory Basilica, Lackawanna, New York. The Most Rev. James A. McNulty, Bishop of the Diocese of Buffalo, will be the celebrant of the Memorial Mass for the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Nelson H. Baker.

Known as the "Padre of the Poor," Father Baker spent nearly 50 years directing and developing Our Lady of Victory Homes of Charity where countless dependent babies, boys, and unwed mothers have received tithes surround the Basilica and National Shrine he built and dedicated to his Patroness, Our Lady.

Since his death, July 29, 1936, the celebration of a Mass and the recitation of prayers at his grave occurred annually. The Very Rev. Msgr. Joseph M. McPherson, General Manager of the Homes, invites the public to participate in this year's Father Baker Day service.

Charity Ladies Honor Patron

Following Mass in honor of St. Vincent de Paul in the chapel at the Columbus Civic Center on Monday, July 20, at 9 a.m., the Ladies of Charity will attend breakfast at the Sheraton Hotel.

It is customary for the group to honor their patron annually. This band of volunteers has given 431 assignments and filed over a thousand hours of service to the Catholic Family Center during the past year. In addition to these seventeen families were remembered at Christmas with food and gifts.

Anyone who would like to fill a need for drivers or clerical help may call Catholic Family Center HA 6-3400.
