Stoeffels Mark Golden Jubilee

MR. AND MRS. DOUGLAS C. STOEFFEL, 2940 Culver Rd., celebrated their golden wedding on July 25. A Mass was said at St. Cecilia's Church, followed by breakfast at the Treadway and a reception at the Newport House. The couple has two sons, Charles and Donald, and seven grandchildren.

Retreat Held
For Clergy of Other Faiths

Faulkner, Md. — (NC) — More than 40 non-Catholic clergymen, all that can be accommodated, signed up for the third annual retreat for fellow Christian clergymen at the Jesuit Fathers' Loyola-on-Potomac Retreat House here.

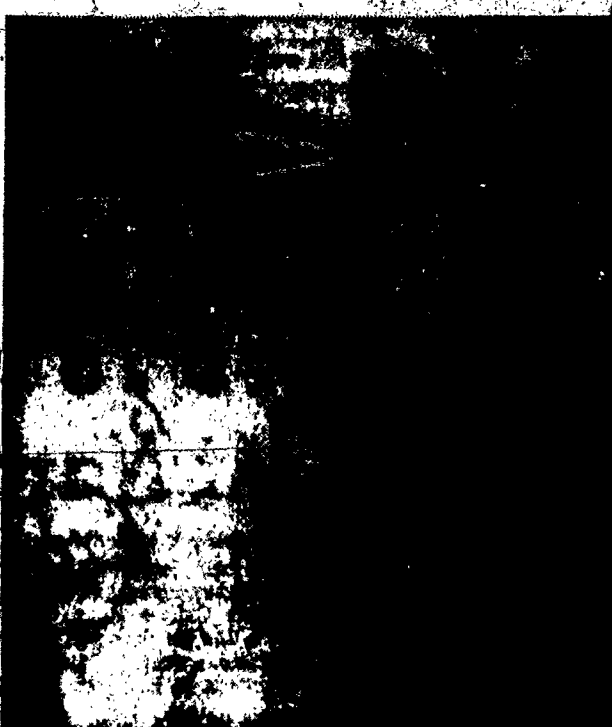

Father Avery Dulles, S.J., theology professor at Woodstock (Md.) College, conducted the retreat July 27-28. He is the author of a number of articles and books, including "A Testimonial to Grace" and "Apologetics and the Biblical Christ."

Previous retreats for non-Catholic clergymen have been conducted at Loyola by the late Father Gustave Weigel, S.J., of Woodstock in 1962 and, last year, by Bishop William G. Connare of Greensburg, Pa.

New Course At Seminary

Bay City, Mich. — (NC) — Saginaw's Bishop Stephen S. Woznick, perhaps with tongue in cheek, has proposed adding a course in hunting and fishing to the curriculum at St. Paul's, the diocesan seminary.

The Bishop spoke at a banquet here marking the golden jubilee in the priesthood of Father Charles Van Colen, pastor of St. Mary's parish for the last 33 years. The bishop noted that the diocese has had a surprisingly large number of priests who have celebrated their golden jubilees. He said that in each case, as well as in Father Van Colen's, he discovered the 50-year priests have in common an ardor for the outdoors — "they hunt and fish."

Golden Wedding Anniversary

MR. AND MRS. SALVATORE SPERANZA marked their Golden Wedding Anniversary with a Mass of Thanksgiving in Church of the Annunciation, July 4. Monsignor Albert L. Simonetti celebrated the Mass and received the renewal of their vows. Their children and grandchildren entertained them with a dinner at Colonial Motel. In the evening, a reception and buffet dinner was held in their honor.

Aleo Couple Marks Jubilee

MR. AND MRS. JOSEPH E. ALEO, 500 Rumson Road, observed their twenty-fifth anniversary on July 18. They were honored by their three sons at a surprise reception in Most Precious Blood parish hall. The jubilee reception in Most Precious Blood parish hall. The jubilarians renewed their vows in Most Precious Blood church where they were married by the Rev. Sebastian Contegiacomo, pastor, on July 22, 1939. The Aleo sons include: Thomas of Rochester, Edward, a student at Idaho State University, and Joseph Jr. stationed with the Navy at Camp Le Jeune, N. C.

Mantle Foundation Aids
N.Y. Catholic Hospital

New York — (RNS) — The "proudest moment in my life," according to Mickey Mantle, didn't happen on a baseball — it came here in St. Vincent's Hospital.

The New York Yankee star referred to the establishment in the Roman Catholic institution of the Mickey Mantle Foundation for Hodgkin's Disease. Cardinal Spellman blessed the plaque identifying the foundation in the hospital's new research building.

"For Mickey, a Protestant, it was the fruition of a long, unpublished 'favorite charity' — help for St. Vincent's 10-year-old research program of research into a disease which strikes only the very young or those 'in the prime of life.'"

Elvin C. Mantle, Mickey's father, died of Hodgkin's disease in 1951, shortly after his 40th birthday.

The foundation named for the Yankee ballplayer actually began 10 years ago when New York City's Commissioner of Records, Maurice J. O'Rourke, himself a victim of Hodgkin's disease, heard of the circumstances of Mr. Mantle's death and Mickey's apparent interest in research involving the disease. O'Rourke arranged a meeting between the Yankee outfielder and Cardinal Spellman. "Since then," according to a Mantle adviser, "this has been Mickey's favorite charity. We have worked without fanfare. Mostly it has been a matter of diverting certain monies received."

Positions Switched

Niagara — (NC) — Father Vincent T. Swords, C.M., president of Niagara University since 1955, and Father Joseph T. Cahill, C.M., head of St. Joseph's College, Princeton, N.J. since 1962, will trade positions

Understand Responsibility

Norwalk, Conn. — (RNS) — newly-organized Catholic Interracial Council will sponsor a city-wide rally here Aug. 16 to stir up Catholic understanding of their responsibilities in the field of race relations.

Formerly part of the Stamford Council, the Norwalk organization was established according to a spokesman, "because the problems faced here were different than those of Stamford. Our purpose is to assist other interracial organizations in education, housing and employment."

The new unit received official recognition from Bishop Walter W. Curtis of Bridgeport, who assigned a chaplain to work with it. The diocese has three interracial councils, the others being in Bridgeport and Stamford. The new council will be active in Norwalk, Wilton and Wallport.
