In Hoc Signo Vinces—In This Sign You Shall Have Victory

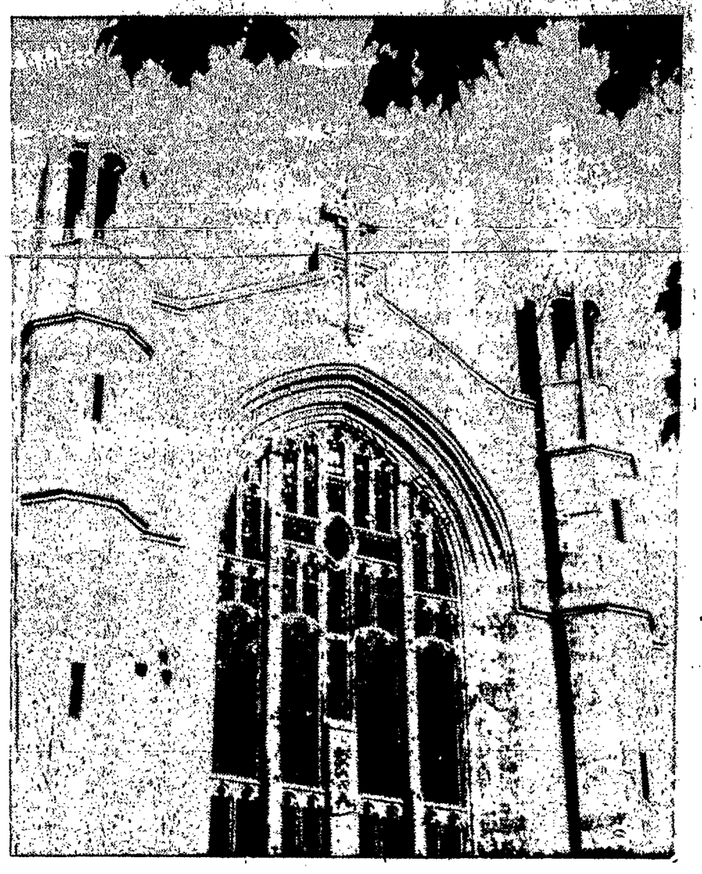
The Sign of the Cross, learned in childhood, marks the beginning and end of Catholic devotions.

The Cross also marks every Catholic church.

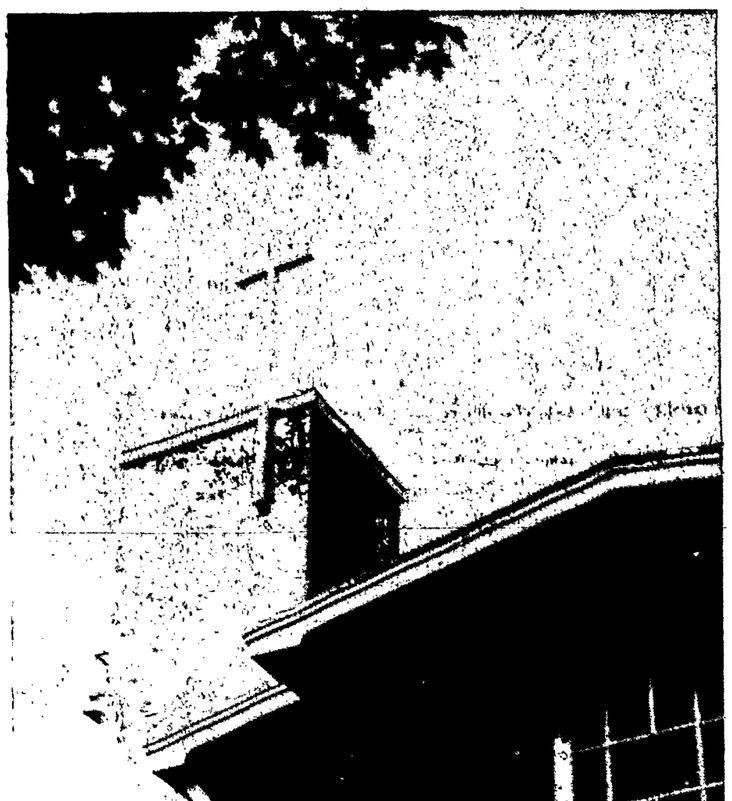
St. Paul once said, "God forbid that I should glory save in the cross of our Lord Jesus Christ."

Today, nearly twenty centuries later, the symbol of our Saviour's love for us towers over the skylines of cities and villages throughout the Rochester Diocese.

Here are some of the more than 150 churches in the Diocese with their crosses flung high and clear for all to see. Recognize them? Numbers are keyed to names listed below.

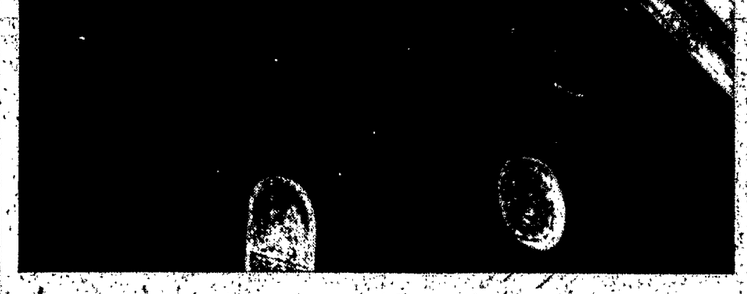


1.

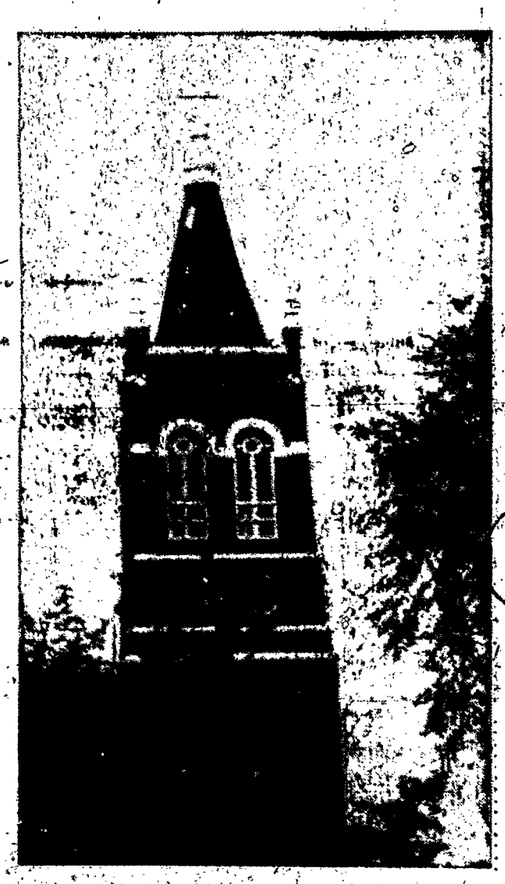


2.

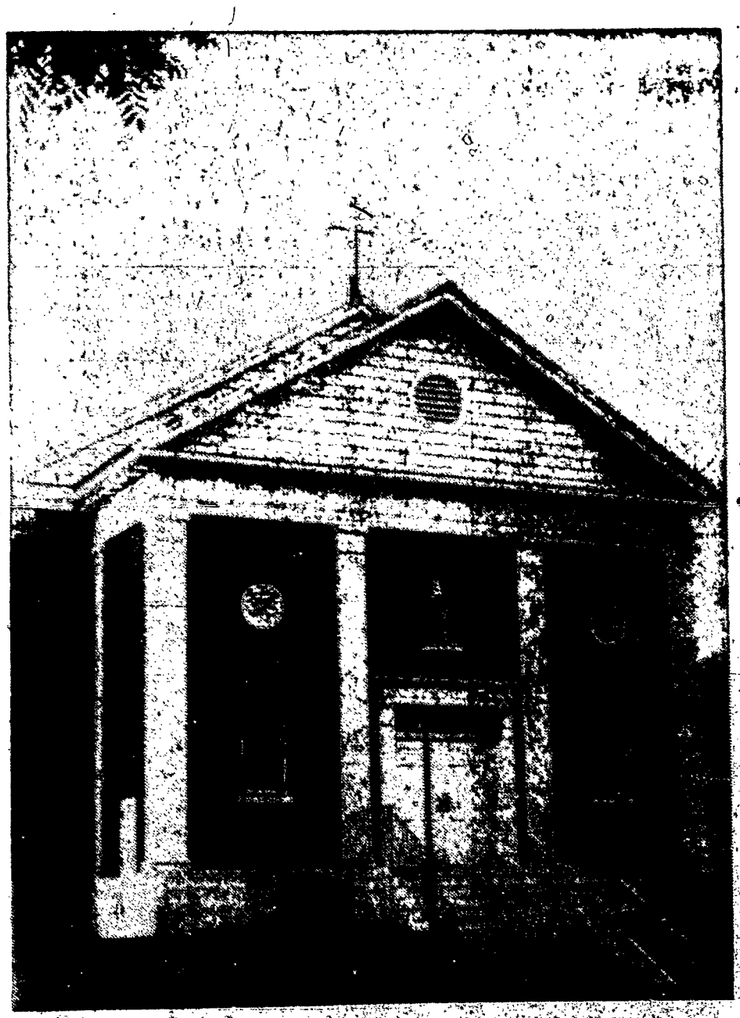
3.



6.

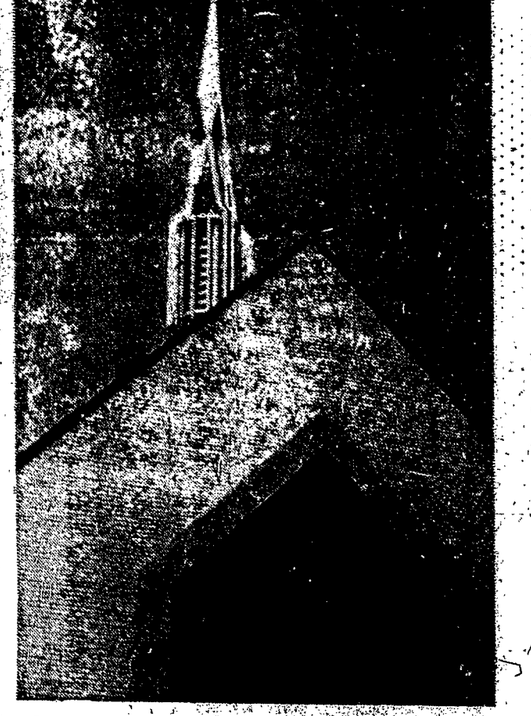


7.



4.

5.



8.

1. Blessed Sacrament, Rochester
2. St. Louis, Pittsford
3. St. John of Rochester, Perinton
4. St. Patrick's, Macedon
5. St. Januarius, Naples
6. St. Ann, Palmyra
7. St. Mary's, Rochester
8. St. Boniface, Rochester