Notre Dame — (NC) — Requiem Mass for Sister Mary Madeleva, 77, educator, poet and for some 40 years a leading figure on the American and Catholic intellectual scene, was held here in the church of Our Lady of Loretto on the campus of St. Mary's College.

Bishop Leo A. Pursley of Fort Wayne-South Bend offered the Mass for Sister Madeleva, who served as president of two Catholic colleges, including St. Mary's, published 18 books, received seven honorary degrees and scores of other honors, and lectured throughout the United States.

One of the best known nuns of her time, Sister Madeleva for years personified the intellectual and professional standards that increasingly have become goals for American nuns generally. Worcester — (NC) — Father Leopold Braun, A.A., who served for nearly 12 years as chaplain to Americans in Moscow and later said he was marked for extermination by Stalin, died here at the age of 62.

He remained until late in 1945, returning to this country on the private airplane that brought the then U.S. Secretary of State, James F. Byrnes, from a Moscow meeting of the Big Three foreign ministers.

In 1952 Father Braun said that before leaving the Soviet Union he was tipped off that orders to "exterminate" him had come from Stalin. He said he was told that if he boarded an airplane on which he was going to leave the country "it will be your last trip."

Anglicans Pray for Unity At Carmelite Shrine

London — (NC) — Some 200 Anglican clergy and laity have placed a Christian unity petition on the altar of the Catholic shrine at Aylesford.

Their petition read in part: "We make an act of reparation for all the evils that were done by our forefathers at the Reformation in destroying this holy shrine. We have prayed this day for the reunion of Christendom and the healing of the 18th-century breach between Rome and the Anglican Communion."

The pilgrimage was organized by the Rev. John A. Wynne of St. Stephen's church in Windsor, home of the royal family west of London. Members attended a private Mass of Our Lady of Mount Carmel at the restored Carmelite shrine.

The prior, Father Malachy Lynch, O. Carm., led them in reciting the Rosary along the shrine's outdoor Rosary Way. In northern England, three Anglican congregations took part as an act of reparation in a big rally in honor of the 40 Martyrs of England and Wales at Sunderland. They cancelled their own Sunday evening services for the purpose.
