Package Stores List Old Mr. Boston Mix

Old Mr. Boston Cocktail Mix in nine different versions is a new product currently being stocked by liquor stores. The Mix according to Mr. Boston Distiller Inc. guarantees no squeezing of lemons or lime, no bitters, no tricky measuring, no mess and no mistakes. An one-ounce gold plated measuring cap on each Cocktail Mix bottle insures exact proportions.

On Dean's List
Raymond A. Kowalski of 95 Angelus Drive was informed that he merited the Dean's Honor List at St. Bonaventure University for the Spring Semester. He is attending St. Bonaventure on a full tuition scholarship for four years awarded at his graduation from Aquinas Institute in 1963.

Elmira K of C Team Shines in State Meet

The Elmira K of C Track Club team, fresh from a hard-earned fifth place tie in the State Meet, hopes to better its third place 1963 finish in the annual Niagara District AAU Meet, Saturday, Aug. 15 at Buffalo.

Coach Glenn Mallette was especially happy about the team's showing in the State Meet at Elmira, August 1. The Elmira runners captured four thirds and a fourth in the Grand Street Boys for fifth place behind the Long Island Striders, Gettysburg of Buffalo, and the Rochester Track Club and the New York Athletic Club.

Obey—Basic Scout Law

Vally Forge (NY)—Obey God and to follow His laws. This is the characteristic trait of a Boy Scout, the bishop-moderator of the Catholic Committee on Scouting told Catholics at the national Boy Scout Jamboree, here.

The Mass was one of scores of religious services representing many denominations held midway through the Jamboree which was attended by some 52,000 boys and adult leaders earlier this month.

Bishop Connors preached the sermon at a Mass offered for Catholic Scouts and adult leaders by Archbishop John P. Cody of New Orleans who is chairman of the Youth Department, National Catholic Welfare Conference.
