Coach Glenn Mallette was especially happy about the team's showing in the State Meet at Elmira, August 1. The Elmira runners captured

Obey—Basic Scout Law

Vally Forge (NY)—Obey God and to follow His laws. This is the characteristic of a Boy Scout, the bishop-moderator of the Catholic Committee on Scouting told Catholics at the national Boy Scout Jamboree, here.

Imitation of Christ "means obedience to God's will at any cost and under any circumstances." Bishop William G. Connare of Greensburg, Pa., said, "Surely this is not strange language for Scouts. By oath and by law you are pledged to obey God and to follow His laws. This is the characteristic of a Boy Scout, the bishop-moderator of the Catholic Committee on Scouting told Catholics at the national Boy Scout Jamboree, here.

Bishop Connare preached the sermon at a Mass offered for Catholic Scouts and adult leaders by Archbishop John P. Cody of New Orleans who is chairman of the Youth Department, National Catholic Welfare Conference.

The Mass was one of scores of religious services representing many denominations held midway through the Jamboree which was attended by some
