

Corning Couple Marks 70th Wedding Jubilee

Corning—Mr. and Mrs. Horace Young of 144 Columbia St. recently marked their 70th anniversary of marriage. Mr. Young, called "Dad" by his friends, is 91 years old. Mrs. Young is 89.

Members of St. Patrick's Parish, the Youngs owe their happy marriage to the fact that they have always had "just one" notebook between them. They were married 70 years ago at St. Mary's Church by the Rev. Dan O'Connell.

Mr. Young, who has been confined to a wheel chair for the past five years, but who amazes his friends by his ability to get on his front porch and watching the passing scene. He has been found there from the earliest good spring day until the brisk days of fall.

When a very young man, Mr. Young worked for the Corning Glass Works. He later went to Findlay, Ohio, with other Corningites to work for the Libby Owens Glass Co. It was when returning home to Corning with his companions to spend a Fourth of July holiday that the train was wrecked at Findlay, Ohio, and 22 young Corning men were killed. He struck a foot injury that remained all his life. He is the last known survivor of that tragedy which is marked by a monument in St. Mary's cemetery in memory of those who lost their lives.

For 43 years, until his first retirement, Mr. Young was employed by the New York Central Railroad. Not content with inactivity, he opened a small grocery store on E. First St., which he operated with the help of his daughter, Mrs. Joseph Ryan of 259 E. First St. About 14 years ago he retired for a second and final time and is now content to sit and smoke and think.

"Outside of my legs, that aren't as good as they used to be," he grins, "I feel fine. I eat good and sleep good, and I really enjoy my cigar out here in the open air."

Mrs. Young, although not appearing outside as frequently as her husband, enjoys good health. They continue to live alone and their children aid in their needs and comforts.

In addition to Mrs. Ryan, the Youngs have a son, Leon, of 148 Columbia St., five grandchildren and 27 great-grandchildren.

Prepare for Supper, County Fair

ANNUAL COUNTRY FAIR and Ham Supper sponsored by St. Phil X Parish will be held Aug. 29 and 30. Servings on Saturday will be from 5 to 7 p.m. and on Sunday, from 2 to 7 p.m. in the cool parish center. Looking through recipes for one of the 175 pies that will be baked for the event are Mrs. Daniel Errico, left, and Mrs. Harvey Limbeck. Cost of the supper is $1.75 for adults and 50 cents for children.

Smorgasbord, Festival Planned

HOLY GHOST PARISH will hold its annual smorgasbord and festival Aug. 25 and 26 on the parish grounds. The Rev. Albert Geiger, pastor, checks last minute details with Walter Pelkey, chairman; Mrs. Michael Naughton, Robert Predmore and Mrs. Vincent White.

Requiem For Brother of Mother Helene

A Requiem Mass was offered for Charles N. Garvin on Friday, August 14, at Holy Rosary Mother M. Helene, former Mother General of the Sisters of St. Joseph. Celebrant of the Solemn Mass was Rev. Richard O'Connell, assisted by Rev. Richard Orlando and Rev. William Hickey.

Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence B. Casey gave the absolution. Also in attendance were the Reverends Charles Connell, William Roche, Daniel Brent, and John Duffy.

Blessing at the grave was imparted by Father William Hickey and Father Michael Tydings.

Chicago Catholics Honor Dr. King

Chicago—(RNS)—Dr. Martin Luther King Jr., noted Negro Baptist integration leader, was named to receive the 1964 John F. Kennedy Award in Interracial Justice by the Catholic Interracial Council of Chicago.

In announcing the award, Edward M. Krulovic, J., council president, said it will be presented to the minister at the CIC's annual benefit dinner here, Oct. 29.

Dr. King, foremost exponent of the non-violent movement against racial segregation, has set up training schools to teach the concept of non-violence to civil rights workers. He has been suggested both in this country and Sweden as a candidate for the 1964 Nobel Peace Prize.
