Padua Gymnasts at World's Fair

GYMNASTIC TEAM of St. Anthony of Padua Seminary, Watkins Glen, under the direction of Fr. Emil A. Rakowski, O.F.M., will appear at the World's Fair on Thursday, Aug. 20. The demonstrations are scheduled for 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. in the New York State Pavilion. They will also put on exhibitions in Brooklyn at St. Francis Prep School on Wednesday, Aug. 19, and in Jersey City at the CYO Center Friday, Aug. 21.

ND Faculty Named

Continuing as members of Notre Dame's faculty in addition to Robert Hill, are the following:

Rev. Joseph F. Reinhart, chaplain. Father Reinhart, an alumnus of St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminaries, is beginning his fourth year at Notre Dame. He is chairman of the religion department and is celebrating his tenth anniversary in the priesthood on June 5. In March, 1963, he traveled to Rome, Italy for the beatification of Mother Seton, founder of the Daughters of Charity.

Sister Mary Declan, principal, will also serve as coordinator of the guidance department. Sister holds a bachelor of arts degree from Nazareth College, and a master of arts degree from Niagara University. She has been at Notre Dame since 1959.

Warren Tessler, vice-principal and director of discipline, will also be chairman of the faculty committee on discipline. He will teach two classes of science and will continue to coach junior varsity football and varsity basketball. Tessler, a graduate of St. Michael's College, Winoski, Vermont, is studying for his master's degree in education at Elmira College. He is beginning his third year at Notre Dame.

Sister Mary Anne, chairman of the German department and moderator of the German Club, will teach German 1, 2 and 3. Sister is a graduate of Syracuse University and holds a master of arts degree from Catholic University of America. During the past summer she attended a Language Institute at Princeton University under a grant from the National Defense Education Act. She has been at Notre Dame since 1955.

Sister Mary Carmella, chairman of the science department, will teach physics and will inaugurate a new chemistry program. Sister holds a bachelor of arts degree and a master of science degree from St. Bonaventure University and has taught advanced studies at the University of Rochester. During the past summer she studied at Union College in Schenectady under a grant from the National Science Foundation. Sister Carmella, who has been at Notre Dame since 1955, is also moderator of the Atomic Circle and of the Nocturnal Adoration Society.

Sister Mary Bernadine, who will teach English and continue as moderator of the Catholic Students' Mission Crusade. A graduate of Nazareth College, Sister received a New York State teaching certificate for the high school English teachers during the past summer at Nazareth College. She has been at Notre Dame since 1962. Sister will continue as moderator of the S.M.C. convention at Notre Dame University from August 27 to 30.

Sister Mary Bernome, coordinator of the French department, will teach French 2, 3 and 4 and will continue as moderator of the French Club and of the National Honor Society. She holds a bachelor of arts degree from Nazareth College, and a master's degree from Villanova University. During the past summer she attended a Language Institute at Notre Dame University under a grant from the National Defense Education Act. Sister has been a member of the staff at Notre Dame for the past eight years.

Mrs. Joseph Bumbalo, R.N., will continue as school nurse and will be moderator of the Nurses' Association. Mrs. Bumbalo is beginning her second year at Notre Dame.

Sister Mary Carmella, chairman of the science department, will teach physics and will inaugurate a new chemistry program. Sister holds a bachelor of arts degree and a master of science degree from St. Bonaventure University and has taught advanced studies at the University of Rochester. During the past summer she studied at Union College in Schenectady under a grant from the National Science Foundation. Sister Carmella, who has been at Notre Dame since 1955, is also moderator of the Atomic Circle and of the Nocturnal Adoration Society.

Sister Marie Jose, graduate of St. Rose's College Albany, will teach French 1 and English 2. A native of Albany, Sister has been on the staff of St. John the Evangelist School, Rochester, and coordinator of the elementary French program there. She will also serve as moderator of the junior class and of the Jugglers, Notre Dame's dramatic club.

Sister Mary Nathaniel, will teach chemistry and elementary algebra. She holds a bachelor of science degree from Nazareth College and is a native of Rochester. She will be moderator on the senior class and of the Camera Club. Sister most

Solemn Funeral Rites For Sister Rose Marie

Solemn services were held for Sister Rose Marie Carballi, S.S. nun, Sister Rose Marie also J. on Friday, August 14 at the church at old Cathedral High Nazareth Motherhouse in Pittsford. She was 68 years old. The Most Rev. Monsignor William T. Craugh, assisted by Rev. William Shannon as deacon and Rev. George M. Kelly as subdeacon. Rev. Albert Schinsky was the Master of Ceremonies.
