

enmphasis on arts

BROTHER GRAY treshmun science MICHAEL JEARY

develop stability

Real Thing In Synthetics

Sister Helen Cecilia of De-Sales High School, Geneva, and National Science Foundation students conduct an experiment in synthetic organics - how to determine the carbon content of an item-at a Rochester Institule of Technology summer course. Dr. K. Thomas Finley, RIT assistant professor of chemistry, guides the scientists David Carnevale of the Geneva school; George Sakewicz and Guy Prentice of McQuaid, Anna Rodriguez of Corpus Christi school and Felice Cerquone of Bishop Kearney High

With a Goal to Attain

Carried away by the opinion polls which dot the political landscape these days, we conducted a poll of our own this week.

We weren't concerned just now with the trek to voting booths in November, but with an equally important trip which occurs every September—the trek back to school for hundreds of teachers and thousands of youngsfers.

We posed the following question to four teachers and to four students, representing a cross section of our Rochester Catholic school system:

In addition to covering the prescribed curricu-lum, what do you hope to accomplish—as a leacher-or as a student—during this new school year?

BUROTHY HICKEY of 57 Rogers Pkwy, Iron-dequoit, entering her freshman year at the Aca-demy of the Sacred Heart had this to say: "High school will be, I hope, a period of growth for me intellectually, apiritually, emotionally and socially. I hope to learn the art of studying, to cultivate the ability to ask intelligent questions and find the shawers, and in general to widen and reline my THOMAS THRASHER, of 150 MacArthur Rd., Greece, a sophomoré at Cardinal Mooney High: "As class president I hope to bring about greater unity in my school. Cardinal Mooney is a new school and so ham't much recognition in the diocese. With greater unity we will have a great increase in-achool spirit, and with the right kind of spirit we will earn ourselves a reputation of which we can

A juntor's approach to September is stated by JOAN WESSE, of 713 Joseph Avenue as the returns to St. Agnés: "As a juntor I think this year offers much more than just new subjects. It his in It the possibility of deciding the course my facture will take—where I will continue my oduce. tion, what courses I will take and what I want to make of my life. With the help of my texchers and guidance counsalors. I hope to set firmly the goals I will pursue. All things considered, this could the most important year of my high school life."

McQuald Senior MICHAEL JEARY, of 102 Suburban Court, Brighton, offered these comments: "One of my biggest objects next year is to know my fellow classmen. I'd like to be able to understand their aims and from these to know my own and perhaps discover shortcomings to correct. I'd like to see movement toward school unity, toward the development of the individual in relation to

JOAN WEBER course for fulnite

Sunbeam Appliances Toast-ers, Mixers etc. Budget Pay-ments. William S. Thorne Jeweler, 218 Main St. East-

FATHER WHITLEY analytical thinking

A Vocation

From Vacation

La Crese,-(NO)- After a vacation with his parents in

Richland Center, Faiher Em-mett Faber left here for a sec-ond three year assignment at the Holy Cross mission in Santa Cruz, Bolivia, which is main-tained by the La Crusse diocese,

Two other La Crosse diocesan priests, Father Joseph Walliew-ski and Edward Penchi; two lay missioners, Mr. and Mrs. Cliff Lund of Stevens Point.

Wis., and five Dominican nuns

from Sinsinawa, Wis., are on the mission staff.

Monuments and Markers for Holy Sepulchre. The better way to choose a monument is to see our indeer display. You will appreciate our no agent plan. TROTT BROS., 1124 Mt. Hope. GE $3271.

granter misty

period of grants

came from a nun, layman, brother and priest:

BISTER MARY TIMOTHY, teaching sixth grade

MISS MARY PIZZO, of 416 Child Street, a sixth grade teacher at Holy Family School: "My plans this year include as much emphasis on the arts as time will allow, I feel that an introduction of famous composers and artists and their works might awaken for my pupils a spark of interest in a world they have never taken much time to look at: a world of beauty in color and song. . . I want to make myself available to any student at any time. I wish to be a confidente as well as a teacher, a friend as well as a disciplinarian, so that each individual in my class can become the finest human being he can."

At Bishop Kearney High School, BROTHER RICHARD GRAY, alegbra and general science tea-cher, is especially concerned with fundamentals of aciencel "Realizing certain inadequacies in the synabus has occasioned a trend to de-emphasize fresh-man general science. I feel that for the average student's year of fundamental science in the field of denta year of fundamental science in the field of blology, chemistry and physics is essential. We are initiating this year a "science survey" course for freshmen, where emphasis will be placed on scientific method in thought, discovery and problem solving in an effort to facilitate the student's mastery of one or more of these fields later on."

REV. JOHN WHITLEY, C.S.B., of Aquinas In-

THOMAS THRASHER DOROTHY HICKEY

his membership in the community called school life. I'd like my senior year to encompass all the qualities of a student maturing and becoming well-sounded in my spiritual and social life.

Comments from the other side of the desk at Good Shepherd School, Henrielfa: "We as edis-cators are not going to look at our children only as they are before us today but rather visualize them in ten or twenty years. Doing this we realize more fully our responsibility to develop in them now fulle Christian virtues, religious and civic responsibilities and moral stability based on justice and charity," stitute sums up his stilltude foward the coming year: "Recent events in Rochester point out the need to develop in our students their obligation to respect the worth and integrity of the individual regardless of race, creed, color or economic circumstance. We will strive to inculcate in our boys moral standards and habits which will help. them to become worthy members of their Church, school and adult society. In a word, we will attempt to develop in our classroom the spirit of analytical thinking, supported by deep religious

"Amen."

OURIER THE NEWSPAPER OF THE ROCHESTER DIOCESE ROCHESTER, N.Y., THURSDAY, AUGUST 27, 1964

The Catholic

Catholic priests in the United States will conduct all Church rites - except Mass - in English beginning Monday, Sept. 14.

And much of the Harr will be said in English probably as of Sunday, Nov. 29.

This mean's American Catholics will be baptized, confirmed, forgiven, married and anointed in a language they will understand.

They will also be blessed and given the Church's sacramen-tals—like the St. Blasse throat blessing or asker on Ash Wednesday-in English.

The only rile to remain As Latin is ordination to the priesthood.

Sung portions of Church rites will also remain in Latin until musicians compose melodies for the new English texts.

At least three publishing firms are rushing the texts into print for use by priests on the target date. The texts use modern style translations - thou and thee are out and you is in,

Ritual experts are now at work in Rome and around the world to make Church ceremonies still more easy to understand by a sweeping revision years to work out.

The switch from Latin to English (and Into other lan-guages in other countries) is viewed as only the first step in s major breakthrough in the Vatican Council's efforts to develop & worldwide greater un-derstanding of the Catholic Church's beliefs and practices.

The decision of the U.S. bishops to start the use of English in mid-September was announced late last week by Destroit's Archbishop John F. Dearden, chairman of the bishop's Commission on the Liturgian cal Apostolate.

Excerpts from New Texts

For Sacraments in English

fession when English replaces Latin in mid-September:

"May our Lord Jesus Christ absolve you, and by His authority I absolve you from every bond of excommunication and interdict to the extent of my power and your need.

Finally Labsolve you from your sins, in the name of the

When Holy Communion is given apart from Mass, the rite will be in English. The priest will hold the Host in his hand and say to the people, "Behold the Lamb of God, behold him who takes away the sins of the world." Priest and people will then say three times together, "Lord, I am not worthy that you should come under my roof. Speak but the

As he gives the Host to the communicant, the priest will say, "The Body of Christ," and the communicant will reply,

word and my soul will be healed."

Father, and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit, Amen."

Here is the way the priest will forgive your sins in con-

Monsignor Maney Resigns Two Diocesan Positions

Msgr. Cocuzzi New Chancellor

Monsignor John E. Maney. at his physician's advice, has resigned as Chancellor and Vicar General of the Rochester Diocese.

Monsignor George A. Cocurit has been appointed by Bishop Kearney to succeed him as Chancellor.

The announcement was made in a statement issued by the Chancery today.

THE CHANCERY statement

"After twenty five years spent almost entirely in diocesan administration, Monsignor Maney has asked Bishop Kearney to relieve him of his duties as Chancellor and Vicar General of the Diocese. Monsignor Maney regrets that, according to his physician's advice, the present state of his health necessitates his making this decision. Bishop Kearney has ac-cepted Monsignor Maney's res-ignation with deep regret."

The Chancery also stated:

Monsignor Maney, on this occasion, has made the following statement: I am deeply grafeful to Their Excellencies, Bishop Kearney and Bishop priests of the Diocese for their many kindnesses and help given me during the years that have been in the Chancery Office. I am very pleased that Honsignor Cocuzd, who has worked with me for many years as Vice Chancellor, now be-comes Chancellor of the Dio-

MONSIGNON COCURS! -The Chincery statement con-

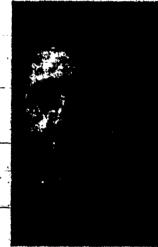

"Monsignor Maney will con-tinue vs paster of Corpus Christi Church."

He just marked his silver fu-blee in the priesthood on July 30. During this twenty five year period, his priestly career has been notably linked to the edu-cational and administrative aspects of Church life.

Following ordination in Rome in 1939, he became a member of the faculty at St. Andrew's Seminary, Rochester.

His long service in adminisirative affairs began twenty years ago when he was ap-pointed in 1944 to the diocesan Tribunal as Vice Chancellor and two years later to be also secretary to Bishop Kearney. He became Chancellor of the Diocese in 1954 and the following year was also elected to the Board of Diocesan Consultors.

He, was twice honored by Pope Pius XII and once by Pope John XXIII, being made a papal chamberlain in 1952, a domestic prelate in 1955 and a protonotary apostolic (highest rank of monsignors) in 1963; He was appointed administrator of Corpus Christi Church in 1955 and pastor in 1962. A native of Geneva, he is the son of Mrs. John A. Maney, now of Albany, and the late Mr. Maney.

MONSIGNOR MANEY

MONSIGNOB COCUZZI has devoted ten of his fifteen years in the priesthood to administrative duties at the Chancery. He was named a Notary of the Diocese in 1954 and Vice Chancel-

Pope John made him a papal chamberlain with the title very reverend monsignor in 1959 and Pope Paul VI confirmed him in this rank in 1963.

Prior to these appointments he studied three years at the Pontifical Gregorian University in Rome to attain his doctorato in canon law.

He was ordained in 1949 and served as assistant pastor at St Jerome's Church, East Rockester, for two years.

He is the son of Mrs Lazarus Cocuzzi of Rochester and tho late Mr. Cocuzzi.

Diocese Mourns Father Mooney

A Priest with Zest for Life

"A good, holy priest who was indeed willing to spend and be spent for the welfare of souls."

Thus did Monsignor Willred T. Craugh Characterize Father Leo C. Mooney in his funeral culogy at St. Patrick's Church on Monday, August 24.

Father Mooney, 69, pastor emeritus of St. Patrick's Church, Rochester, died Friday, August 21, at St. Ann's Home, following a long illness.

The solemn funeral Mass was offered by Auxiliary Bishop Lawrence B. Casey.

ey's role as diocesan Mission Di-rector, Monaignor Craug b noted: "Like bis Master, he ried career in diocesan projects and organizations, Monsignor Craugh stressed his "enthusiasm, his zest for life, his charity. . . . His rectory was a refnized in his heart of charity a (Full text of the eulogy will be in next week's Courier.) PATHER MOONEY, son of James and Ella (Hurley) Mooney, was born in Canindaigua, October 1, 1894. He attended-

Commenting on Father Moontraveled the length and breadth of the diocese to awaken a concern for those who had not yet heard of God's love for

Tracing Father Mooney's va-

PATHER MOONEY

St. Mary's Grammar School and Canandaigua Academy before coming to Rochester to enter St. Andrew's and St. Bernard's Seminary. He was ordained to the priesthood by Bishop Daniel J. Curley of Syracuse on June

He served as assistant pastor in St. Mary's, Auburn, and St. Bridget's Church, Rochester.

Father Mooney organized the Diocesan Society for the Propagation of the Farth and will named its first director in 1928. During his twelve years as mission director he traveled the world over visiting mission-aries. He developed local interest in the missions to make the Rochester Diocese one of the nation's leading contribufors to mission causes.

He was instrumental in bringing the Carmelite nuns to (Continued on Page 2)

FRESH FLOWERS... A true expression of Heartfelt Sy m p a t h y. Call BLAN-CHARD'S and be sure. Open daily till 6 p.m. BA 59494. 58 Lake Ave. Free parking. Adv.

ın Cotton

Flgure