Polish Shrine Draws Throngs
WARSAW — (RNS) — Five thousand Catholics left here on foot for Czestochowa, 185 miles away, to take part in the annual national pilgrimage to the Jasna Gora shrine, patroness of Poland, in the Jasna Gora monastery there. They made up the largest single Warsaw contingent ever to leave for the shrine, where they were to be joined on Aug. 15, the Feast of the Assumption, by many thousands of pilgrims from other parts of Poland. The Warsaw pilgrims, who expected to reach Jank Gora on Aug. 14, left after attending a Mass celebrated by Stefan Cardinal Wyszyński, Primate of Poland, in the church of the Holy Ghost. There were some fears here that government authorities might attempt to hinder or molest the pilgrims, as was the case last year when police set up roadblocks at various points demanding identity cards and vaccination certificates. From these blocks to pass through. But there were no immediate reports of any interference with this year's pilgrims.

Vatican Radio Battles Latin American Reds
Hollywood, Fla. — (NC) — The heavy volume of mail sent Vatican Radio daily by Latin Americans indicates the desire of these people to oppose communism, the English-language program director of the station said here. Father Thomas J. O'Donnell, S.J., one of 25 Jesuit Fathers who devote full time to the Vatican Radio spoke at the national convention of Catholic Daughters of America at the Hotel Diplomat. The Irish-born priest, pointed out that the station broadcasts in 31 languages, said particular emphasis is placed on broadcasts beamed behind the Iron and Bamboo curtain. "The people in Russia and eastern European countries depend on broadcasts for authentic news, teaching and encouragement. Through the Vatican Radio, bishops in these countries can get knowledge of the documents of the Holy See, of news items of the Catholic world and other events in the free world," he said.
