Members of the Spiritual Activities Committee are asked to make their telephone calls for reservations.

Bishop, 5 Priests Offer Same Mass

St. Pierre, Man. (PNS)—The rare occurrence of a Latin Rite Catholic bishop concelebrating Mass with five priests was seen here when Archbishop Maurice Baudoux of St. Boniface marked the 35th anniversary of his ordination.

The priests, each marking his 25th anniversary, were Oblate Fathers Wilfred Sicotte, Omer Robidoux, Jean Lambert, Hilaire Gagne and Thomas Paradis.

The archbishop had the personal permission of Pope Paul VI for the second concelebration in which he has shared. While the practice of several concelebrants, participating in the one Mass is common in Eastern Rite Catholic churches, it is very rare in the Latin Rite churches.

Provision for greater use of concelebration is provided in the Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy, passed last year by the Second Vatican Council and promulgated by Pope Paul.

During the Mass, the six priests faced the congregation, prayed together and shared one large consecrated host.
