St. Mary's Province of the Capuchin Franciscan Order serves parishes, chapels and other institutions throughout New York and New England, and the foreign missions of Guam and Okinawa.

Drive Leaders Named For Lakeside Retreat

Top committee leaders in the campaign for funds to construct a permanent laymen's retreat center at Canandaigua Lake were announced today by the Very Rev. Michael G. Downing, C.S.S.R., rector of Notre Dame Retreat House, Rochester.

Heading the 1500-member committee, which will solicit pledges from retreatants throughout the 12-county Diocese during October, is Frank E. Wolfe of Rochester, a member of the board of directors of Lincoln Rochester Trust Company and a past president of the Laymen's Retreat League.

Serving as chairman of the special gifts committee is Harold J. Coleman, Rochester, chairman of the board of Will Scientific Corporation, who has been identified with Catholic causes for many years.

Chairman of the general solicitation committee is Louis A. Langis Jr., Rochester, executive vice president of Bangie Fuel Service Inc.

THOMAS HUGHES of Rochester, president of the Laymen's Retreat League, heads the advisory committee, with Martin K. Moir, Rochester as vice-chairman. Included on the advisory group are past presidents, officers and regional directors of the league.

Organization of committees is now under way among retreat leagues throughout the Diocese. Campaign goals have not yet been announced.

Plans call for construction of a permanent laymen's retreat center on a 55-acre hilltop in West Lake Road overlooking Canandaigua Lake. The site is five miles south of Canandaigua. Completion is tentatively scheduled for next year.

Negotiations are nearly completed for sale of the present retreat house property, 246 Alexander St., Rochester, to adjoining Genesee Hospital.

Capuchin Named To National Educators' Post

At the closing of the Fourth Biennial Conference for Capuchin-Franciscan educators August 18-20 at Monte Alverno Retreat House, Appleton, Wis., Very Rev. Sebastian Falcone, O.F.M. Cap., Superior of Immaculate Heart Seminary, Geneva, N.Y., was elected Vice-President.

Theme of this year's conference was Capuchin-Franciscan Spirituality, its Nature and Characteristics. The research papers and discussions centered on the nature of Franciscan piety, its direct relationship to the Gospel accounts, the concept of Franciscan religious poverty, the basis of Franciscan charity and an outline of devotional practices peculiar to the spiritual followers of the renowned St. Francis of Assisi.

The Rev. Leopold Protomastro, O.F.M. Cap., Director of Clerics at Immaculate Heart Seminary, delivered one of the major papers of the conference, "Franciscan Devotions." He illustrated how the various devotions of St. Francis grew out of his total and singular devotion to the human nature of Christ. He urged that the piety of Franciscans be ever kept tangible, theological and Christ-centered.

Father Sebastian served as discussion moderator of a research paper on "Franciscan Poverty."

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

The priests of the United States are awakening to the great need of the Church in other lands. Sometimes this is inspired by visiting mission lands or acting as chaplains. In any case, some are sending their inheritance to the Propagation of the Faith, others their savings, others their salaries and their stipends. One priest, when sending in his sacrifice, wrote, "We have to stop giving God the few crumbs and start giving His Church at least the best part of the income of every parish; then I am sure God will bless our country and the whole world with peace and victory over Communism."

As soon as the Spirit of Christ invades the heart of a priest, he looks beyond the confines of his parish and his diocese and out to the poor where Christ lives in humanity. This is also true of Protestant ministers, one of whom wrote, "I have just read MISSION. I am not a Catholic. I have a heart instead of a stone and I heartily endorse my personal check in the amount of $5.00. I have no earnings, cuff links or any gold to give, but such as I have I give to you in the Name of Our Lord with the sincere prayer that it will help some poor soul. I shall try to keep MISSION in mind as long as I have life. I wish that your magazine MISSION could reach more Protestants."

We wish that we could be more personal about the saintly priests who have sent in their sacrifices but in every case they have asked that their sacrifices not be acknowledged, or that no thanks be rendered. This is an added proof that they have given it to the Lord and for the Lord. May such priests multiply by our aid. If this column is read by a priest who has been inspired by his brother priests, kindly cut out this column and write to me.

GOD LOVE YOU to $10. "I never really thought of sending money anywhere, but after listening to you I'm going to send you the few dollars that I have to my name." ... to V.V. for $40 "This is my ten per cent out of my five weeks pay, and my wish is that it be used for the starving children of the world." ... to P.B.F. of Salt Lake City for $7.00 and an additional gift of jewelry valued at $50. ... to be used for food, clothing and medicine for the poor and the sick."

How many of us really live the Mass? How many of us really understand its meaning, or are urged to a greater union with Christ and His Mystical Body? The Society for the Propagation of the Faith has made available an unusual, beautiful, colorful film, "God's Road Company" which shows us how to live each part of the Mass—at the altar, in our lives, and in Christ's Mystical Body throughout the Missions. It lifts the Cross out of the rock of Calvary and through three distinct episodes, plants it in different parts of the world, giving an entirely new understanding of the modernity of the Mass. Calvary becomes something that is happening, not something that has happened. Narrated by Most Reverend Fulton J. Sheen and produced for the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, "God's Road Company" is available to schools, retreat houses, community groups and clubs. For more information contact your Diocesan Director.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of the Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 348 Fifth Ave., New York, N.Y. 10001, or your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duffy, 50 Chestnut St., Rochester, N.Y. 14604.
