School Opening Set In Corning Parishes

Corning — St. Mary's School of Corning, will have about five more students than last year, according to the estimate for the September opening, made by Sister M. Bernard, who is principal of the school.

Anticipated enrollment at the beginning of the term is 312.

The eight-member faculty will have one change. Sister Marie Anthony is coming here from Auburn to teach sixth grade. She is replacing Sister Marie Therese, who is going to St. Rita's at West Webster.

THE SCHOOL will have a new audio-visual room this year. At the end of May an empty classroom was equipped with a motion picture screen and television reception facilities, the principal said. It will be available to students of the entire school.

The interior of St. Vincent de Paul's School has been entirely renovated in preparation for the resumption of classes on Sept. 9.

The work has been done by professional workmen, it was reported.

The school, whose enrollment is already at capacity, expects about the same number of students this fall as a year ago, when the total was about 400.

A slight falling off in the total pupil enrollment at St. Patrick's School is looked for when the school resumes sessions.

Anticipated is an enrollment of 341 compared with about 354 at the opening of last September's term.

There will be one change in the faculty of eight. Sister St. Thomas will teach seventh grade, replacing Sister Rita Marie, who is being transferred to Rochester.

Sister Mary Ida, who has been studying at Notre Dame University this summer, will again be the school principal.

The new mathematics program which has been taught at lower grade levels for several years, will move up to the sixth grade this year, it was reported. The program advances in grade level as the students who have begun with it advance. French, taught at seventh and eighth grade level for the past two years, will be continued.

Ithaca CDA Lists Meeting

Ithaca—Court Santa Maria No. 240, Catholic Daughters of America, will hold their first fall meeting Tuesday, Sept. 15, in the Knights of Columbus Home, Ithaca.

The Trustees of the Court will act as hostesses for the Social which will follow the meeting.
