St. Agnes High School Welcomes Austrian Girl

Miss Flora Johanna Ottisch of Vienna, Austria, is a welcome new student at St. Agnes High School this year. She was chosen to represent her country in the United States by the NCWC student exchange program.

"Honni" is living with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Sousa of 155 Miramar Rd., and their family. The Sousa's two daughters attend St. Agnes; Linda, also a new student there, is a freshman and Mary Ann is a senior with Honni.

Having studied English for the past six years, Honni says she is not having too much difficulty with the language. She also speaks Italian fluently and has studied Latin, a good start for her ambition to be an interpreter someday.

Honni likes St. Agnes, but says it seems very big to her. In Vienna she attended an all-girl school enrolling about 500 pupils. There, school begins at eight and dismisses at two without a lunch period, six days a week. They study about fifteen subjects a year.

Honni also likes our American food, especially potato chips. Her favorite pastimes so far have been sightseeing, reading, drawing (she designs her own clothes) and swimming.

Frater Sullivan Professes Vows As Redemptorist

The main chapel at Mount Saint Alphonsus, Esopus, N.Y. was the scene of a final profession ceremony on Sept. 2. Seventeen Redemptorist students of the Baltimore Province professed final vows. Together with the vows of Poverty, Chastity and Obedience which are taken by all Religious, these men also took the Vow and Oath of Perseverance in the Congregation.

One of those who professed his vows was Frater Cornelius J. Sullivan, son of Mr. and the late Mrs. Cornelius J. Sullivan of 34 Nagel Pl., Geneva. Frater Sullivan graduated from St. Stephen's School in 1954. In August of that year he entered St. Mary's College, North East, Pa., the Minor Seminary for the Redemptorists of the Baltimore Province.

Following his graduation in 1960 he entered the Novitiate at Ilchester, Md. He professed temporary vows on August 2, 1961. For the last three years he has been studying at the Major Seminary at Esopus.

Earlier this year he received Tonsure and the Minor Orders from Auxiliary Bishop James McManus, C.SS.R. of New York. Frater Sullivan plans to be ordained to the priesthood in June, 1966.

The Congregation of the Most Holy Redeemer (Redemptorists) was founded in 1732 by St. Alphonsus Liguori, Doctor of the Church and Patron of Moral Theologians. Their main work is the salvation of the most abandoned souls through the preaching of missions. Their first permanent foundation in this country was St. Joseph's Church, Rochester. Today the Baltimore Province sends missionaries to Puerto Rico, The Dominican Republic, The Virgin Islands, Brazil and Paraguay.

Holy Rosary Units Map Diamond Jubilee Fete

Diamond Jubilee Festival of Holy Rosary Parish will be held in the church parking lot, 414 Lexington Ave., Friday and Saturday nights, Sept. 11 and 12. Programs will begin at 7 p.m.

Numerous colorful booths offering a variety of items will be on the grounds. A raffle is planned for the children and an elaborate array for partaking of delicious refreshments are planned. A giant searchlight will direct the way to this year's festivities.

Leading the Holy Rosary ladies in charge of cake donations for the cake booth, Prizes for the best cakes will be awarded both nights. Committee announced that it would be appreciated if cakes or untraceable plates are brought to the school hall on both nights by 5 p.m. Norrene Ellison, 631 E. 156, is furnishing information on the cakes.

JFK Memorial Chalice Given Poor Parish

Arabi, La.—(NC)— Parishioners of St. Robert Bellarmine church here are without a church of their own-but they're mighty proud of their chalice. It's inscribed: "In memory of John Fitzgerald Kennedy, 1917-1963"—a gift from his brother, Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy.

Father George Landry, pastor of the parish established last March, still is awed over its selection for the memorial. The parish has Sunday Masses in a public school auditorium.

The pastor said in April he received a letter from the New Orleans representative of the Catholic Church Extension Society, explaining the society helps new parishes get started and asking that the pastor list the parish needs. Father Landry wrote back that his parish needed "everything."

A few weeks ago the chalice arrived. Father Landry, in a letter to Auxiliary Bishop Philip M. Hannan of Washington, D.C., acknowledging receipt of the gift, said: "Any words of gratitude seem inadequate to express my deep feeling upon being the recipient.

Ecumenical Talks in NYC

New York—(NC)—A major ecumenical dialogue under Catholic auspices will be held here during the sixth annual sodality-sponsored Congress of the Lay Apostolate Sept. 5 to 7.

An estimated 2,000 persons will attend the congress to hear Catholic, Episcopal, Presbyterian and Orthodox clergymen discuss ecumenism and the lay Christian. Auxiliary Bishop Joseph M. Pernicone of New York will preside at the discussion.
