Greek Terms Ecumenism Abominable

Athens - (NC) - Any form of dialogue between the Greek Orthodox Church and other Christian denominations, including the Catholic Church, was sharply condemned by Orthodox Metropolitan Chrysostomos of Athens. The prelate was recently appointed as representative of the Orthodox Church of Greece to the Pan-Orthodox conference to be held in Rhodes next November. He urged all Orthodox to be on guard against those who want to lead their Church into "abominable ecumenism."

In a personal report to Archbishop Chrysostomos of Athens, Orthodox Primates of Greece, he declared that the Greek delegation will attend the Rhodes congress, but the official attitude of the Greek Church toward dialogue and Christian unity will remain unchanged.

The Pan-Orthodox conference was summoned by Patriarch Athenagoras of Constantinople (Istanbul) to lay down a basis for dialogue with the Catholic Church. Patriarch Athenagoras has fostered ecumenical relations with the Catholic Church. Leaders of the Church of Greece, however, have shown hostility to ecumenism. They refused to send observers to the first two sessions of the Second Vatican Council.

Apartment For Aging

Baltimore - (NC) - A downtown Baltimore site is being cleared for planned multimillion-dollar apartment building for the aged to be sponsored by the Baltimore archdiocese. Plans for the project call for a minimum of 200 efficiency and one-bedroom units, all with their own cooking facilities. The building will also contain dining room facilities, reading rooms, a laundry and open parking space.

The archdiocese is forming a nonprofit corporation to carry on the project and apply for a government building loan under the National Housing Act. Because of the nonprofit character of the project, rentals will only be large enough to cover construction and maintenance costs.
