Tuition Grants

Sister Marie Margaret, principal of St. Agnes High School, announced the award of four one hundred dollar tuition scholarships to St. Agnes students at the first Honors Assembly this school year, beginning a new tradition at St. Agnes.

"These scholarships are being awarded to the student in each class, not holding a scholarship, who attains the highest average in her class," Sister explained when making the announcement. "Such scholarships will continue to be awarded each year, recognizing the efforts of those girls who are striving to do their very best."

Recipients of the partial scholarships this year are seniors Carol Kusak and Susan Stanwix who tied with an average of 94.3 per cent, junior Mary Lou Larkin, 95.8 per cent, and sophomore Judith Kolb, 94.2 per cent.

Guest Speaker

Sister Rose Alma, Superior of the new South American mission of the Sisters of St. Joseph, will be guest speaker at a special assembly of St. Agnes High School students Monday, Sept. 28, according to Mary Ann Nally, president of the Mission Council.

Sister is coming to St. Agnes to personally thank these girls for their enthusiastic support of her newest venture. As a result of Mission Day efforts, the Mission Council presented Sister with a check for $5,000.

Just ten years ago, Sister Rose Alma guided St. Agnes through its own beginnings at the East River Road campus. Now, dressed in her white missionary habit, Sister will appeal for their continued generous aid, both material and spiritual, for this new endeavor. Sister has been asked to describe the work she will be doing; and with the help of slides, Sister hopes to more graphically indicate the needs of this new mission.

Continued support is pledged by St. Agnes girl under the leadership of Mary Ann and the other Mission Council officers: Vice-President Sharon Leonard, Secretary Joanne Weinmann and Treasurer Margaret Zicari.

Bishop's Mass

Bishop Kearney will open the [illegible] year for St. Agnes High School students with the celebration of the Mass of the Holy Spirit tomorrow morning, Friday, Sept. 25, in the school auditorium.

After the opening hymn to the Holy Spirit, the student body, led by their chaplain, Rev. Walter Cushing, will participate in a dialogue Mass and will sing "Lord, Accept the Gifts We Offer" at the Offertory.

Following the Bishop's talk, faculty and students will join him in singing the "Hymn to St. Agnes" which Bishop Kearney himself brought to St. Agnes High School from his home parish in New York City.

Girls of the home economics department look forward to serving breakfast to the Bishop in their home economics dining room.

With Bishop Kearney will be Rev. Walter F. Cushing, the Sodality prefect Paula Schickler, the mission council president Mary Ann Nally, the "Palm" editor-in-chief Marcia Skromak, the student council president Judith Amann, and the senior class officers: president Christine Faraone, vice-president Kathleen Ziebro, secretary Eileen Childs, and treasurer Ann Marie Blum.

Orientation

The Student Council of Nazareth Academy is sponsoring Freshman Orientation Week, according to Karen Bender, president.

The purpose of orientation is to welcome the freshmen and to unite them with the entire student body and to help them to get acquainted with Nazareth traditions.

Wednesday will be "Welcome Freshmen Day"; Thursday, "Getting to Know You Day"; and Friday, "You're One of Us Day." Picnics will be held on the front lawn after school for freshmen.

The Junior Class is sponsoring a "Big and Little Sister Program." Another Student Council project aims to get students interested in knowing the student handbook. It involves tests on the handbook. The homeroom winning the contest will receive a banner reading: "N.A. Quiz Kids."

Secretaries Club

Nazareth Academy's Future Secretaries Club will entertain as guest speaker Marie Douglas, an alumna of the Class of 1964, at its meeting Oct. 1.

Marie will discuss the qualifications of a private secretary and explain some of her duties as private secretary for the American Hockey League, a position she accepted after three years of secretarial training at Nazareth.

The club sponsors at least one talk each year by someone who has been a member of club or the academy business department. While this year's speaker has had limited experience as a private secretary, she has had some unique opportunities and duties.

She believes that the club members will be interested in hearing about such phases of her position as supervising and furnishing of the league's new Rochester office. This included the purchasing of desks, files and other equipment. Another phase of her work involves travel to cities where the Rochester team plays.

Fathers' Meet

The Fathers' Club of St. Agnes High School will commence their '64-65 program with a combination business-pleasure meeting this evening, Sept. 24, at 6:30 sharp in the school cafeteria.

Bernard J. Weber, president of the group, disclosed the evening will begin with a roast beef smorgasbord served by the Grinnans. This meal will be followed by a short, but important meeting and then, as special entertainment, by a program of the Liederkrans Choral Group.

Featured guests will be the fathers of the new freshman class at St. Agnes. Mr. Weber invites all former members to join him and his fellow officers Vice President William O'Leary, Secretary Bryon Stutsman and Treasurer William Bleier—in welcoming these new members.

For further information contact any of the above officers or the Fathers' Club moderator, Rev. Walter Cushing, chaplain of St. Agnes High School.

Honor Roll

At St. Agnes High School's first honor assembly of the year held on Friday, Sept. 18, Sister Marie Margaret, principal, gave public recognition to the successful efforts of the students who, at the completion of last June's work, had earned places on the First and on the Second Honor Roll.

Students attain rank on the First Honor Roll if they have an average of 90 per cent or above, if they have "Satisfactory" or better ratings in all character traits, and if they have no more than three periods of absence.

To attain Second Honors, a student's average must be at least 85 per cent, and the student must meet the other requirements of the First Honor Roll.

Leading the senior class is Linda Bleier with an average of 98.0, followed by Mary Egan 96.5, Vivile Vitkus, 95.3, Kristine Queichenbach 94.7, and Eleanor Celentani 94.6. Twenty-five seniors are listed on the First Honor Roll, thirty-six on the Second.

The five top juniors are: Carol Uebelacher 96.6, Patricia Steiner 96.0, Mary Lou Larkin 95.8, Julie Mancini 95.0, and Nancy Helget 94.6. Thirty-two juniors rank on the First Honor Roll, twenty-four on the Second.

Paula Connelly heads the sophomore list with a 96.8 average, followed by Carol Caldwell, 95.3, Patricia Edelman, 95.2, Arinette Sleyman 95.2, and Martha Popoduke 94.7. On the First Honor Roll there are thirty-two sophomores, and on the Second, thirty-three.

Membership Tea

A Membership Tea sponsored by the Mothers' Club of Bishop Kearney High School on Sunday afternoon was attended by more than eight hundred members.

Under the chairmanship of Mrs. Loretta Wahl a program of musical selections from "The Sound of Music" was given by Mrs. Florence Ross accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Helen Kondolf.

The tea was closed with an address to the membership by Brother J. M. Clark, principal of Bishop Kearney High School.

Talk on Europe

Louise Wilson will speak on her recent trip to Europe at a meeting of the Rochester Chapter of the Cystic Fibrosis Foundation at the Health Association, 973 East Ave., Rochester, Monday, Sept. 28, at 8 p.m.

Sodalists To Converge For Annual Workshop

Sodalists of the Rochester Diocese will meet for their annual Sodality Workshop at Holy Family Parish this Sunday, Sept. 27 from 6 to 10 p.m. The workshop is an evening of intense sodality training and study for directors, moderators, officers and unit leaders of both parish and school sodalities.

Its purpose is to help prepare these people for their function and responsibility as sodality leaders.

The keynote address at 8 p.m. will be given by Rev. Francis Courneen, S.J., professor of philosophy at Canisius College and moderator of sodality there. His topic is: "The What and Why of Sodalities."

Supper will be served and the schedule will include discussion groups and panels under the direction of Sister Maureen, R.S.M., Rev. William Marceau, C.S.B., and Rev. Michael Volpe.

Sponsored by the Rochester Diocesan Federation of Sodalities, the workshop will be an opportunity for sodalists to join forces with other directors, moderators and officers for a fruitful exchange in preparation for the coming year.

Military Rites For Kin of Priest, Nun

Military services were held in Arlington, Va. on August 14 for Vincent G. DeRitis, Jr., Lt. Col. U.S. Army, retired, who died August 10.

Born July 4, 1915 in Rochester, Col. DeRitis was the son of Elvira and the late Vincent DeRitis. He attended Allendale School and Hill School, Pottstown, Pa.

He entered the army in 1941 and was awarded for heroic action against the enemy in March, 1945 near Wesel, Germany. He retired in 1961 with the rank of Lt. Col. At the time of his death he was employed with the Quartermasters division at the Tank Arsenal in Warren.

Surviving are his wife, Olga; one daughter Sharon of Crystal City, Mo.; his mother Mrs. Elvira DeRitis of Rochester; four brothers: Rev. Gilbert DeRitis of Puno, Peru; Harry of Seattle, Washington, Joseph of San Francisco, and Paul of New York. The deceased is survived also by three sisters: Sr. Anne Vincent of Rochester, Theresa DeRitis, Rochester and Mrs. Cecil Rasbach of Webster.

Military services were conducted in the Arlington Cemetery chapel, followed by burial in the cemetery.

Aden J. Connor Mass In Ontario

Ontario — Funeral Mass for Aden J. Connor was offered by Rev. John Duffy, a nephew, in St. Mary's of the Lake Church, Sept. 9. Mr. Connor, 70, of Ontario died Saturday, Sept. 5, 1964.

Mr. Connor was a veteran of World War I having served in France. After the war he was employed by Woosters of Union Hill in the building and construction trade before going into the same business for himself.

At one time he was employed by Monroe County Parks system.

Until the time he was stricken with arthritis he had been farming with his brother, John, in Ontario.

Surviving are his wife Laurette; two sons, James and Gerard all of Ontario; three sisters, Katherine Connor and Mrs. Sarah Kimmel of Wayland and Margaret Connor of Rochester; several nieces and nephews.

Burial was in Calvary Cemetery. Arrangements by Murphy Funeral Home, Ontario.

Requiem Said For Nun's Sister

Requiem Mass for Mrs. Elisabeth Lomb of 42 St. John's Park, was offered at Holy Cross Church on Monday, Sept. 21. Miss Lomb died on Sept. 19.

Rev. William J. Brien was celebrant of the Mass. Rev. Frederick W. Bush and Rev. Robert H. Fennessy were in the sanctuary.

Miss Lomb was a graduate of St. Bridget's School and Nazareth Academy. She was a registered nurse for more than seventeen years, serving at the United Hospital in Port Chester and the County Home and Infirmary before becoming a private nurse.

Survivors include two brothers, George F. and Fred E. Lomb and two sisters, Mrs. John A. Heeks and Sister Grace Madeline, S.S.J., of St. James parish, Waverly.

Blessing at the grave was given by Rev. William Brien at Holy Sepulchre Cemetery.
