

Dear Letters Young

Everyone Does

By MISS LORETTA YOUNG

Dear "Loretta":
Please answer just one simple question—did a girl twenty and a half years of age have her heart? My mother says no. All of the girls I know share their hearts with their boyfriends. Why can't I? Please help me!

"Left-Out"

Dear "Left-Out":
Just make sure that there is enough love in your heart for you to give yourself a relatively unimportant task. Just remember, the more you begin to share your love, the more you'll have to do it later on. It's a terrible nuisance, believe me!

One last question: If all the girls you know wanted to be like you, would you mind being in their shoes? I don't know, little girl. Train yourself now to make your own decisions and then do what your conscience dictates. But for heaven's sake, as well as your own, don't start running with the pack at this age. It's unwise and unattractive.

Knights Plan
Columbus Day

Two events are planned by members of Rochester Council No. 176, Knights of Columbus in their annual observance of Columbus Day according to Grand Knight Robert J. Farrell.

The annual Mass, this year will be celebrated by Rev. William B. Holberton, chaplain of St. Anne's Church, 1200 Mt. Hope Ave. at 8 p.m. Monday, Oct. 12. All knights and their friends are being invited by the Grand Knight.

The customary dinner is scheduled at 7 p.m. at Mundy's Restaurant, 2851 West Henrietta Rd. Guest speaker will be the Hon. Frederick J. Mitz, Rochester city court judge and Council advocate. Toastmaster will be Richard A. Stearns.

Tickets for the dinner and dance at $4.80 per person are being obtained from George Schenk, Vincent Hannon, chairman, officers of the council at the Clubroom, 50 Chestnut St.

The knights on Sunday, Oct. 11 at 8:30 p.m. on WHAM are urging all members and friends to listen to an address of "Christopher Columbus and the Eternal Challenge of Discovery" by Supreme Knight John W. McDevitt.

Religion Differences
Dear "Loretta":
I have been going with a non-Catholic girl for a few months now. My parents do not approve of it and every once in a while the subject is brought out into the open. This girl is a very nice, sensitive girl. I have made up my mind that I must do all that I can to make her feel that I love her and that we must stop talking. I have thought about how to tell her but I'm afraid of hurting her feelings and making her angry at me. Please tell me how I can tell her without hurting her feelings.

Dear "Loretta":
I don't see where it makes any difference who kisses whom as long as affection is felt and displayed.

China Reels
Three Closing
OF Seminary

Three regional seminaries established here in 1951 to train students for the priesthood from the three southern provinces of China—Fukien, Kwantung and Kwangsi—has been forced to close down.

Church authorities said the anti-religious policy of the Chinese Communist regime has rendered the existence of the seminary "useless and devoid of any meaning."

The last attempt to send young priests to the China mainland, the Church authorities said, resulted in their arrest as soon as they arrived there.

They said that of the 200 priests trained by the Hong Kong seminary, one-third are in prison, while 68 carry out an "uncertain ministry" in China. The rest, they added, are conducting pastoral work among Chinese refugees in Hong Kong, Formosa, and other Asian countries, the United States and Europe.
