

Judgment Day Near For Aquinas, McQuaid

By WRETT JOHNSON

Sunday next may well be called judgment day for two of the area's football elite.

Two talented teams, the Aquinas Little Irish and McQuaid's Black Knights, face the task of making an indelible impression in local football circles.

Given a break by the weather, the battle between Rochester's behemoth of sport played for 2 p.m. at Aquinas Memorial Stadium, could lure up to 14,000 fans. It's the first time the two football giants have met on the gridiron.

Although Aquinas has a football reputation from here to there, Coach Tom Seymour's Knights have come a long way in recent years including winning 10 of their last 11 outings. McQuaid had little trouble beating past Bishop Walsh of Olean last week to win 33-6. The same day Aquinas dropped a tight 13-7 decision to Jamestown, surprising the figure filberts who predicted a landslide victory for Jamestown.

The Knights 2 and 1 on the season, own a 27-18 victory over Mt. Carmel but were tripped by Balavia, 33-13. The Irish with a 1 and 2 record lost also to Saint Pizant, 24-20, while sinking by Corning, 32-7.

COACH TOM SEYMOUR, in his second year at the McQuaid helm, has four more tough foes remaining after Sunday's encounter with Aquinas including Watertown, St. Francis and Jamestown.

Big gun for the Knights is Mike Spiegel, 176-pound senior halfback who has three touchdowns and a sparkling 18-yard per carry average. Halfback Dan Wegman and fullback Mike Meyer both have two touchdowns to their credit and have been averaging better than six yards a carry. Tight end is Dick DeLuca, a 145-pound senior who can run and pass with the best of them.

When it comes to talking about the McQuaid line, you'll get all the adjectives from Seymour. "I can tell you that 207-pounder Dennis Filato and rugger Jim Corrado, both vital defenders on the unbeaten 1964 squad. Both boys play two-way and are rated by the Black and Gold coaches as "more than adequate."

Sitting up the football picture at the Olean Avenue school, it appears that Seymour has built a versatile squad which is a threat both in the air and on the ground.

Aquinas got its offensive punch from halfback Jim Cato, a 165-pound speedster, and fullback Don Garvin, a hardness junior. Cato has scored three touchdowns, and has around out 334 yards in 37 carries for an average of 9 yards per carry. Garvin ate up 1283 yards for a 5.3 average. Irish coach Joe Repko is known for grind 'em out football and as a rule doesn't depend on passes. This year all Aquinas touchdowns have been via the ground.

Bounding out the backfield are Pat DiStola, a hard-running halfback and quarterback Craig Eggen, who is expected to be ready after recuperating from a leg injury that kept him out of uniform at the last two games.

Aquinas has also received fine efforts from backfieldmen Randy Black and Jim Dolly, center Dick Waterrott, a work horse who goes both ways, and tight ends George Kermis and Dick Gureytski.

At the Dewey Avenue school Coach Repko's Irish have shown a well-balanced attack, but tactical errors and poor pass defense stymied their efforts so far. To remedy this Repko has been working on defense all week. After studying the scouting reports he said, "We have to adjust our defenses to try and exploit any apparent weaknesses."

From all reports, Aquinas' defensive secondary handled itself well against McQuaid pass patterns in recent practices. This may be more difficult Sunday, however, when DeLuca's status (checking for the Knights) "Tickets are available at either school and at the Aquinas Memorial Stadium box office on the day of the game."

McQuaid Wins 33-6, Girds For Aquinas

By GARY HOLCOMB

McQuaid Jesuit High's football Knights, preparing for this Sunday's battle with the Little Irish of Aquinas, ripped Bishop Walsh of Olean, 33-6 at McQuaid last Saturday.

The Knights turned in their best offensive and defensive efforts of the season in stopping Walsh. They opened up after an exchange of punts in the first quarter. Dan Wegman began the drive with a 48-yard run, and on the following play, Mike Spiegel ran off tackle and broke loose for a 57-yard TD. It was a spectacular return to offensive action for the McQuaid halfback, who had been limited to punting chores by a shoulder injury.

The McQuaid defense again held Walsh on the next series, but a Walsh punt put the Knights all the way back to the down 4-yard line. The backfield went to work from there as McQuaid moved 66 yards in 8 plays. Two long runs by Mike Meyer and Spiegel set up the score as Spiegel went in from the 3 to make it 13-0.

DAN WEGMAN

Midway through the second quarter, Bishop Walsh attempted a quick kick and McQuaid recovered on the Walsh 24. On the second play, Dan Wegman scored from 6 yards out, and the Knights led, 19-0.

In the final minute of the first half, McQuaid received a punt on its own 35. Quarterback Dick DeLuca, back to back, found Spiegel in the open 25 yards downfield. He connected, and Spiegel has his third touchdown of the afternoon.

Following the second-half kickoff, defensive halfback Mike LaForte recovered a Bishop McQuaid fumble on the visitors' 46 and two plays later, Meyer went 33 yards around end for the Knights' final score. DeLuca ran for his second punt to add a finishing touch.

Walsh's only tally came after a pass interception on a 2-yard plunge by quarterback Mike Favone.

McQuaid made one more threat on Best DiPalo's 50-yard run just before the game ended.

Kearney High Nips Notre Dame

In a game tinged with excitement, Bishop Kearney stage a comeback when it seemed that all hops for victory was lost, to nose out previously unbeaten Notre Dame of Elmira 15-12 at Aquinas Stadium last Saturday night.

In this, their second home outing, the Kings broke an early scoreless deadlock and grabbed the lead in the second quarter as halfback Doug Klem found an opening at-tackle and scurried 57 yards to paydirt. The extra point attempt failed, and the Kings led 6-0.

The standard for the victors offensively was Doug Klem. Larry Hamilton and Joe Ranich played key roles for the winners. Both teams turned in outstanding jobs defensively, coming up with who key play after another.

Next Saturday, Kearney will journey to Tonawanda for a game with Bishop Gibbon in what promises to be an exciting struggle.

Notre Dame's next game will pit them against an undefeated Corning East team at Corning on Friday, October 9. East has looked impressive in its victories, and last Friday night routed Hornell 34 to 6.

In the second half, neither team could get rolling until the fourth period. Notre Dame appeared headed for another touchdown as they drove deep into Kearney territory. However, the Kings' defense would then make what must be considered the crucial play of the game as Rip Coleman sacked off a Mike Bennett pass at the Kearney 23. After a penalty,

Do You Have A MONSTER In Your Home?

We don't mean just any monster — we mean a particular one — an octopus.

It starts so innocently — just a two-way electric outlet plug. But then it grows — one "two-way" attached to another, and another, and another, complete with electric tentacles just waiting to trip you up.

Result — a full-fledged "octopus" threatening you with fire hazards, poor lighting and blown fuses.

WHAT TO DO: — Usually an "octopus" is a sign that your electric wiring is not up to the demands of 1963. If this is happening at your house, see your electrician or call us at LO 2-7000 and ask for the Residential Wiring Bureau. We'll be glad to prescribe the proper treatment.
