Mission Territory in America

ing $75,000 last year and it was our biggest year so far. At the camp at Herrington Lake for underprivileged boys we averaged 50 persons a day for four weeks. We had volunteers from eight colleges and one weekend had to feed 44 people.

"We don't know how much money we'll need next year if we set down and figured it out we'd quit," the priest concluded more dramatically than factually. "We go from week to week."

Father Belting said he wished wealthier parishes would adopt poorer ones — such as St. William's in Lancaster or St. Clare's in Berea or St. Paul's in
