$500,000 Drive Set For Retreat Center

Nearly 1,000 retreat league leaders from parishes throughout the Diocese will have committees kickoff meetings next week in the $500,000 fund drive for a new, permanent laymen's retreat center.

Next week's meetings will launch the general solicitation phase of the diocese-wide campaign. Special gifts committees already are visiting retreatants, seeking support in the form of pledges extending over a 30-month period.

Funds are being sought for construction of a new Notre Dame Retreat House overlooking Canandaigua Lake, to replace inadequate facilities at 246 Alexander St., Rochester.

FRANK E. WOLFE, campaign general chairman, announced that early reports from the special gifts group have been "highly encouraging." He noted particular interest in the reservation of individual memorials which are available in the new retreat building.

Contributors to the Notre Dame Retreat House Building Fund are being given an opportunity to become "shareholders" in the diocesan retreat movement. Donors of $5 or more per month will be given "shares" in the form of a facsimile stock certificate suitable for framing, signifying their support of the retreat movement.

The Very Rev. Michael Downing, C.S.S.R., Retreat House rector, said construction of the new center, to be erected on a 55-acre hilltop in West Lake Road, five miles south of Canandaigua, will begin in Spring, with completion scheduled late next year.

Designed for a total of 150 individual retreatants, it will increase present capacity by 50 per cent. Located near the geographic center of the 12-county Diocese, the new center is ex-

Movie Called 'Dirty Story'

New York—(NC)—The movie "Let's Talk About Women" was evaluated in Class C (condemned) category by the National Legion of Decency which said it "is one prolonged 'dirty story' repeated in various offensive, as well as crude, ways." The Italian-made movie is being distributed by Embassy. The legion's objection stated: "In eight of its nine vignettes this film is so obsessed with erotic themes that the end result is one prolonged 'dirty story' repeated in various offensive, as well as crude, ways."

Faith of Neighbors Studied

Buffalo — (RNS) — Protestant, Catholic and Orthodox clergymen, opening the second annual series of forums here on "Your Neighbor's Faith," agreed that Christian unity efforts must continue despite all difficulties.

More than 1,000 persons attended the first of several panel discussions on controversial questions. The forums will be held weekly through Nov. 4.

Protestant Episcopal Bishop Lauriaton L. Steele of Western New York said that although the unity movement may at times be "disturbing," it has been "gathering strength for more than 50 years."

Father Robert S. Sweeny, secretary of the new Commission on Unity of the Roman Catholic Diocese of Buffalo, called obstacles to Christian unity "staggering," but said many unity problems are "open to solution right now" while others must be left for future generations to solve.

"Polygamists do not belong in the ecumenical movement any more than bigots," he cautioned, but noted that "God has lifted many scales from our eyes" that once blinded Christians to unity.

The Very Rev. John E. Palat, president of the Buffalo Council of Eastern Orthodox Churches, said the churches share a belief in Jesus, accept the same Bible and pray the same Lord's Prayer but still must resolve many divisions to achieve unity.

Dr. David F. Cox, executive secretary of the Council of Churches of Buffalo and Erie County, reported "far greater unity among Protestants in the United States than is sometimes supposed."

Father Sweeny said Catholics cannot back down from "recognition of the primacy of the Pope" but that collegiality of the bishops — in which the Pope would increasingly consult other Roman Catholic bishops in major decisions and pronouncements — would make the place of the Pope in the Catholic Church more understandable and acceptable to Christians now outside the Church.

ELECT

MRS. CAROLINE BRANCH

REPUBLICAN

COURT

A Woman dedicated to helping others

Mrs. Branch has worked unceasingly to assure better human relations and higher living standards for ALL our citizens. She served as President of the Montgomery Neighborhood Center for three terms, and as a member of the Diocesan Assembly of Council of Social Agencies. She is the only Family Court candidate in the November election who has had broad experience in the Social Agencies. She is thoroughly familiar with family problems and the proper agencies to contact to help solve them.

A Woman is needed on the Family Court

Three new judges of the Family Court, a 4th judgeship has been added and this job should be filled by a qualified woman. Nearly 50% of all Family Court cases involve women and girls, requiring a woman's understanding on the part of a judge. Mrs. Branch has already worked on behalf of children and parents in the Children's Court and Family Court. She has served on the Committee for these courts. Significantly, she is a member of the Family Law Section of the American Bar Ass'n.

A Leader in Community Service

Caroline Branch has been a volunteer worker for years, serving organizations on behalf of youth and the needy. Chairman of Committee on Emotionally Disturbed Children; Board member of Y.W.C.A. for 11 years; Advisor on Y.M.C.A. co-ed activities; 3 term president of Rochester Orthopedic Center which corrects children's eye conditions; past vice president of Rochester Association for the United Nations. In 1958, Mrs. Branch received the Helen Jones Memorial Award for Distinguished Service to the Community of Rochester.

Found fully qualified by Monroe County Bar Ass'n.

This approval reaffirms the qualifications of this outstanding candidate for the Family Court. Caroline Branch has been a practicing lawyer for 26 years. She has upheld the highest traditions of her profession. She has concentrated on FAMILY LAW. Her "family viewpoint" even carries to her own home where she makes a "home-away-from-home" for deserving students from around the world. November 3d... be sure you vote (and tell your friends to vote) for Caroline Branch... Row A. You'll be proud you had a part in electing this experienced and able woman.
