Unit Installs New Slate

Members of the Rosary and Sacred Heart Society of St. Cecilia's parish, Elmira met in the church last Sunday for installation of the new officers for the coming year.

Following services in the church, the members attended their annual dinner held in the school hall.

Dr. Joseph L. Hogan, professor of dogmatic theology at St. Bernard's Seminary was the guest speaker. His topic was "Christian Symbolism."

Crusaders Drop Second Straight

By Tony Greco

Notre Dame suffered its second consecutive setback Friday night at the hands of Corning-Painted Post East by a score of 21 to 0. East, led by Nick Pappas and Pierce Baker, struck early in the opening minutes on a 31 yard scoring pass from Baker to Pappas.

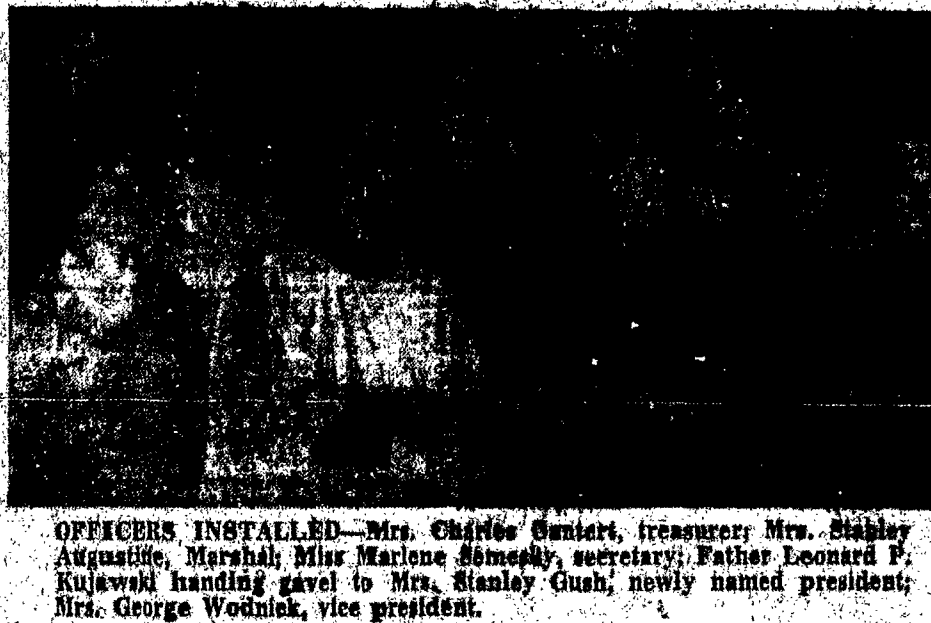

The Crusaders then took the ensuing kickoff and marched to the 26 yard line of the Trojans where a fumble ended the drive. East's next score came on a 74 yard run by Pappas which electrified the fans and gave East a 13 to 0 lead.

Jerry LeBaron kicked his second straight extra point, upping the count to 14 to 0. Corning scored once more in the first half on a 24 yard pass from Baker to Jack LeBaron, an excellent place kicker, again converted and this proved to be the last point scored in the game.

The Crusaders moved the ball well, thanks to Joe Casco and Larry Hamilton. But fumbles and interceptions dashed any scoring hopes.

One bright spot in the game for ND was the fine play of end Tim Backes. Backes ran his patterns beautifully and made a number of fine receptions.

The Crusaders' next game will again find them traveling to Corning. This time they will meet the Vikings from Corning Painted Post West. Led by Lar-
