Muskalonge Wins In Wehle Derby

The St. Lawrence River up held its reputation as a prime fishing area for Muskalonge during the month of September by providing the three winners in the Louis A. Wehle Fishing Contest.

Two Ogdensburg residents led the way. Donald Reynolds entered a 46 lb. 2 oz. musky, followed by a 41 lb. 8 oz. fish caught by Donald Evans.

Third spot in the division went to Mrs. Carolyn V. Patterson, 68 Bowery St., Spencerport, who caught a 40 lb. "tiger" while fishing with Len Hartman, who has been a frequent winner in the Wehle derby.

Other area winners included Smallmouth Bass — Ernst Nau, 860 Meige St., Rochester. Walleyed Pike—Max Eckl, 27 Lodердale Rd., Rochester. Perch—Joseph Kamm, 333 Weaver St. and James Jason, 951 Garson Ave., both of Rochester.

Aid Hospital Fund

'Anxiety' Besets Nation

By RUSSELL SHAW

Washington — (NC) — The man who called this an age of anxiety obviously never talked to Father William McNamara, O.C.D., director of the Spiritual Life Institute of America.

It's not that Father McNamara would necessarily dispute the description. But he has an answer for the anxiety and spiritual unrest besetting the 20th century. Its name is contemplation.

"Contemplation is an experiential awareness of God and an understanding of everything against the background of eternity," the soft-spoken Carmelite priest explains.

"The weakest thing about our society is an almost total absence of contemplation. For fruitful contemplation you need leisure, and we have not yet learned to use leisure," he said.

But Father McNamara thinks he can help show modern men how. That was why he founded the Spiritual Life Institute of America (SLIA) three years ago and why he is now preparing to put its program into high gear in a setting of stark natural beauty in the Arizona desert.

There, at a site near Sedona, Ariz., he and a group of coworkers are creating two institutions unique in American Catholicism—a spiritual research center and a contemplative center.

Focal point of the spiritual research center is the Chapel of the Holy Cross, a striking and austere structure designed by the famous architect Frank Lloyd Wright. The center will be a place for "prolonged seminars and workshops in a place of prayer" aimed at "getting theology into the marketplace," according to Father McNamara. Sessions there will bring together theologians and leaders in various secular fields for discussions seeking to "get contemplation into a living situation in the real world."

The first such seminar was held in August and, like the future functions planned there, it had an ecumenical slant, with Protestants and Jews as well as Catholics among the 30 speakers and participants.

Ars Antiqua Sets Program At Nazareth

An Ars Antiqua presentation of "The Games of Siena: Music and Entertainment at the Time of Galileo" will be held at Nazareth College Saturday, Oct. 17 at 8 p.m.

The production by the local society, which specializes in presenting music and art from previous periods in history, will reveal aspects of Italian society in which Galileo played a major role.

The program will be one of several activities scheduled at Nazareth to celebrate the quadricentennial of Galileo.

Political Issues To Be Discussed At Nazareth

Political campaign issues will be discussed at the first faculty-student coffee hour of the academic year at Nazareth College Tuesday, Oct. 20.

Dr. Mary Bush, professor of government at Nazareth will preside. Sophomores Margaret Connor of Long Island, and Christine Shea, 205 Colebrook Dr., will lead the discussion.

Faculty-student coffee hours will be held every other week. Discussions are scheduled on such contemporary topics as the presidency, political issues in 1964, censorship, and the role of women.

Civics Club Given Charter

The St. Monica's Civics Club of St. Monica's School this week received its official charter from the Commission on American Citizenship in Washington, D.C.

The charter formally recognizes affiliation of the local unit with the national organization at The Catholic University of America. Eighth grade pupils of Sisters Maura, Margaret Louise, Joan Thomas comprise the local club membership.

The officers of the newly organized club are: president, Timothy Zimmerman; vice presidents, Gail Fox, James Root; secretaries, Colleen Hogan, Sharon Stacy, Thomas Farrell; treasurers, John Fanligrossi, James Schrelb, Gregory Benedict.

The theme of this year's program is "Politics is Your Business."

Vandals Wreck Saint's Shrine

Denver — (RNS) — The nationally famed Mother Cabrini Shrine in Mount Vernon Canon, 20 miles west of Denver, has been closed indefinitely because of vandalism and theft of a relic of the saint.

Mother Frances Xavier Cabrini, a native of Italy who came to the United States in 1889, died in 1917 and was canonized in 1946. First U.S. citizen to be canonized, she founded the Missionary Sisters of the Sacred Heart.

Frank J. Morelli, chairman of the Mother Cabrini Shrine committee, said vandals caused thousands of dollars of damage when they were thwarted in efforts to break into donation boxes. Material damage was conservatively estimated at $5,000. No value could be placed on destruction of the statue of Mother Cabrini nor the disappearance of an irreplaceable religious relic. Missing from its gold-plated reliquary was a piece of bone from the body of Mother Cabrini.

Fisher Names Class Officers

Results of the election of officers for the class of 1965 at St. John Fisher College were announced by the Rev. Peter Sheehan, C.S.B., dean of students.

Named president of the 141-member senior class was Andrew Sciarabba, son of Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Sciarabba, 83 Eastview Ave. A 1961 Aquinas Institute graduate, Sciarabba is an accounting major.

Daniel Fagan, son of Mrs. Ethel Fagan, 48 East Ave., Fairport, received the second highest number of votes to become class vice-president. He is a graduate of Minerva Deland High School, Fairport, and a business major at Fisher.

Class secretary Joseph Mancuso, also an accounting major, was graduated from East Ridge High in 1961. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas C. Mancuso, 185 Empire Blvd.

A Penfield Central High graduate Stephen Christopher, was named class treasurer. He is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Christopher, 15 Halloway. Christopher is a mathematics major.

Film on Bad Literature Slated In K. of C. Rooms

The latest film, "I'd Rather Have A Paper Doll," exposing the indecent literature racket, will be shown at the meeting of the "Family Campaign for Decent Literature" approved by Bishop Kearney in the Knights of Columbus clubrooms, Tuesday, Oct. 20 at 8:15 p.m.

The group backing the campaign is sponsored by Rochester Area Knights of Columbus and meets every third Tuesday according to John E. Ward, chairman.

Calling attention to the program, Chairman Ward in a letter to all interested this week said "The purveyors of immoral smut are becoming increasingly bold on all fronts: magazines, paperback books, movies and television."

THE PROGRAM has two major aims: To alert all people of the seriousness of the problem; to encourage the establishment of neighborhood committees to combat the distribution of this material through the neighborhood stores by use of "moral persuasion."

The committee has available to any interested organization, a 50-minute program including a speaker and presentation of the film "Pages of Death."
