Bishop Has An Audience of 12,000

Bishop Kearney has just completed his rounds of the two seminaries, two Catholic colleges and ten high schools of the Rochester Diocese where he said Mass and spoke to open the academic year for a total of more than 12,000 students.

At each school, he offered Mass in honor of the Holy Spirit, traditional Mass asking God's blessing on a major undertaking.

His talks varied from school to school but his basic theme stressed devotion to religious practice and thorough mastery of the subjects under study.

Notre Dame Highlights

By HANK LOCKWOOD

Notre Dame's National Honor Society will sponsor a dance in the gym after Friday's football game.

Sister M. Bernice, moderator, announced that with the funds from the dance, the Honor Society will establish a scholarship for a deserving eighth-grader to attend Notre Dame.

David Frick, newly elected president of the society, hopes to make the scholarship an annual project.

Seven Notre Dame centers have received letters of commendation from the National Merit Scholarship Corporation. Academically among the top two per cent of the nation's seniors are Alan Burnell, Mary K. Hennessy, David Mamant, Michael Morrell, Anne Sutton, John Swift and Gary Valtio. All of whom achieved scores above 132 in the tenth annual competition.

Dedication of ND's activities and organizations to Christ the King has been set for a period on Monday, October 26.

Each year near the Feast of Christ the King, benediction and a symbolic dedication of each organization, as well as the offering of all of its activities. Students who will represent their clubs are: Ed Curtin, Sodality; Steve Keating, Student Council; Mike McGee, C.S.M.C.; Carole Chalk, yearbook; Mike Malone, sports; and Sy Kleimki, Catholic Youth.

Other members of the Sodality are: Mary Ann, Ed Kesner, Paul Ekes, Maryanne Price, Margaret Nolan, Dick Budnick, Kathy King, Regina Liffa, Joe Murphy, Mary C. Rhee and Dave Frisk.

Doctor Cyril Harris, author, spoke at the initial meeting of "Books Sandwiched In," a new enrichment program for students, today in Notre Dame's library.

Future "Books Sandwiched In" meetings will feature student and faculty book reviewers, and outside speakers on pertinent topics. Sister M. Annetta, member of the Sodality, is the mark. She said that the talk about "explore new areas of student interest." Thomas Kondrak is chairman of the program.

The Credo, Notre Dame's yearbook, received a first-place rating of A at the recent yearbook conference at Columbia University. Miss Rita Lockwood, yearbook moderator, stated that this rating was indicative of the excellence of the Credo, which has achieved an A rating for the ninth successive year.

Neoturnal Adoration will begin on Saturday, Oct. 24 at Saint Peter and Paul's Church, Elmira, at 10 p.m. Eastern Standard Time. All Holy Hours will begin on standard time.

CDA Hears Australian

Miss Gwenda J. Altord, 16-year-old senior high school student from Leonatha, Victoria, Australia, was guest speaker at the October meeting of the C.D.A. Court St. Joan of Arc, Waverly at St. James School. She traveled 11,000 miles to come to the U.S.

Mrs. Sue Downs, grand regent presided at the business meeting. Reports were heard from Miss Mary Falsay, Mrs. Helen Motey and Mrs. Emma Mahoney.

Notre Dame Gets 6-0 Corning Win

By TONY CRESCENZI

The Crusaders of Notre Dame journeyed to Corning for the second time Friday night, and gained a measure of revenge by defeating Corning-Painted Post 6-0.

A crowd of 5,000 witnessed a tough defensive game filled with tension.

However, the joy of victory was marred somewhat by the injury to sophomore Joel Ramlich. Ramlich sustained a shoulder separation when he made a game-saving knockdown of what appeared to be a touchdown pass late in the fourth quarter.

The Crusaders scored in the second quarter when they marched 48 yards in 11 plays. The march stayed strictly on the ground with Ramlich, Hamilton and Casel taking turns running the ball. The West line Joe Casel blitzed the drive by scampering into the end zone from the five-yard line.

The Notre Dame defense, led by Mike Malone and Joel Ram-
