Deanery Meet In Mt. Morris

Mt. Morris — The Livingston Deanery of the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women will meet with its new moderator, Rev. Charles Langworthy, assistant pastor of St. Patrick's Church, at its first meeting of the 1964-65 season. The meeting will be held Monday, Nov. 9, at 8 p.m. in the St. Patrick's School Library.

Changes in the liturgy with a special discussion of the Mass will be the main program for the evening according to Father Langworthy. The discussion will include plans for the diocesan meeting to be held in Avon, Sunday, Nov. 15, and the annual Thanksgiving Offering which is sponsored nationally by the N.C.W. and a tentative program for the coming year. Mrs. Marion G. Wade, president of the St. Patrick's Rosary Society, with her committee will act as hostesses. A record book is expected at this meeting in order to have a good beginning for a successful year.

GOD LOVE YOU!

By MOST REV. FULTON J. SHEEN

Are you worried about the condition of the Church, your Church, in other parts of the world? Are you wondering why the poverty of the bishops at the Council has been a recurring theme in this column? We hope you are. We know that you are. We are here in Rome with us. Then you would see that you cannot judge the Church in the world by the Church in the United States.

We in the United States are living in a false Sunday prosperity for which we thank God. But in the Middle East, throughout the world, Christ is living in different Gospel scenes. Christ is in China today as if His Body were once torn in the Tomb on Holy Saturday. In Japan He is weeping again over a city where few wives away His tears. Behind the Iron Curtain He is buffeted between Pillars and Herods who daily condemn Him to death. He is being chased from the Sudan and the Congo as He was once driven from the land of the Gerasenes. In the slums of Latin America He cries unrecognized in the poor. "The Jews have killed the King of the Jews," but the Son of Man His nowhere to lay His head.

It is this persecuted Christ that we see in every life of the bishops at the Council. They are here as the representative of Christ living in the Mystical Body throughout the world. You read about the Council in the press, but I tell you that there is an agonizing, suffering, impoverished Christ in the bishops here. You read only about Mass, but most of the bishops here live either on the verge of poverty or in danger of persecution.

We who live in comparative peace and comfort are a part of this persecuted Christ. What is little for us to give in the name of Christ may sustain the life of Christ in another. Take, for example, the words of our bishops who wrote me in Rome. I think me for 210 one dollar Mass stipends. Such stipends are a lot for our poor diocese. This is enough for the living and transportation expenses of two missionaries if a whole year. How this makes us think of the words of St. Paul: "Of course, I do not mean that others should be relieved to an extent that leaves you in distress. It is a matter of share and share alike. At present your plenty should supply their need. In that way we share with each other, as the Lord commands." "The gifts that God has given us are not to be hoarded, but to be shared. Little had no lack."

Another bishop wrote to tell me: "I must leave the Council. I just received news that two villages in my diocese were surrounded by a group of unidentified men. Eight were killed. It was a matter of hours before the news came that 2,000 of my good people are without food and shelter. My eyes are out to sleep. Can you help me?"

In the name of Christ crucified, may I ask you to help our brother bishops and priests and religious and faithful throughout the world? Will you heed this Christ appeal? Who will? The rich? The comfortable? The benefactors of "million dollar schools and churches? The poor in spirit? Remember, the Holy Father's Society for the Propagation of the Faith is the only mission organization in the world that aids the missions everywhere. Christ everywhere. Thank you and God love you.

GOD LOVE YOU in M.O.M. for $3.45 "I have been accustomed to spending this amount on myself each week — just for chocolate! How ashamed of myself I felt when I read about the poor missionary bishops. This is the beginning of a weekly offering for those who can put it to much better use than I." ... to M.F.B. for $1,000 "For the Holy Father's Mission. I was so busy that there didn't seem to be time for a vacation. Now it gives me more pleasure to send him the money than to take a vacation trip. I am 44 years old and still working."

Would you like to get more mileage out of your money by giving to the Missions? By taking out an annuity with The Society for the Propagation of the Faith you will receive annual returns on your investment and save on capital-gains tax while you save souls. Send your appreciable securities to The Society for the Propagation of the Faith and you will receive a greater return spiritually and materially. Direct your request for our pamphlet on annuities, including the date of your birth, to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, 34 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, 10001.

Cut out this column, pin your sacrifice to it and mail it to Most Rev. Fulton J. Sheen, National Director of The Society for the Propagation of the Faith, 34 Fifth Avenue, New York, New York, 10001, or to your Diocesan Director, Rev. John F. Duff, 80 Chestnut Street, Rochester, New York 14604.

Dear Loretta Young Happiness

By MISS LORETTA YOUNG

Dear Loretta! (we'll call him Nick) for two years now. He plays in a band and travels quite a bit. I really believe he loves me but all of a sudden he decided to call it quits. I really love him and can't bear the thought of losing him. I have tried, really tried, every possible way to find an answer but nothing has even come close to solving my problem. I had really hoped things would work out with Nick and me but I don't see what I can do now. He has my ring and will not send it back and that's the last thing I would think he would do if we were through. We always got along real well and we would never even argue — the real perfect couple. Please, please help me. I love him and think he really loves me. "A Girl in Love"

Dear "Girl in Love": The answer is that he has called it quits. Either he has fallen in love with someone else or he has simply decided, for any number of good reasons, that he does not want to keep you hanging around. Be thankful that he's honest!

Two years is a long, long time to be really in love and not have gotten married, don't you think? Either a broken engagement or a broken marriage. You were engaged, weren't you? Loretta

(Miss Young welcomes your letters with your questions, reactions and opinions. Write to her, care of this newspaper.)
