Disc Notes

Take Your Shoes Off

by PAUL CONTESTABLE

You are invited to Take Your Shoes Off With The Serendipity Singers on their new Philips LP and enjoy some tunes handled with impeccable taste and superb artistry. In the past year The Serendipity Singers have shown they can make any type of music sound great. And this album offers just such a variety of sound.

Beautiful Friendship, Sunday in Savannah, Lorna's Here, I'm Painting the Town Red, Better Luck Next Time, As Long As I Live, Statue of Snow, My Future Just Past and I'm in Love With the Honorable Mr. So and So. Contagious enjoyment.

offering. The Kangaroo, to a Discotheque Dance Party on the Philips label. The album was recorded live at the famous Rainbow Room near Philadelphia.

Their single hits and their two previous LPs are still making sales history, but this album may pass them all. There is a little bit of something for everyone in this album.

Since joining Philips Records, Woody Herman has earned a Grammy Award for one of his topnotch records. Now they offer The Swinging Herman Herd Recorded Live with all the zip and zest that it takes to make a truly great LP.

The live excitement and infectious beat of the selections in this LP will really set the room a rockin'. They include the title tune, All My Loving, Hand Clappin', Go Pa Pa Don, The Soul Twist, What's I Say, The Kangaroo, High Heel Sneakers, More, It Ain't What You Got, Lucille and Shang-La Solid Rhythm.

Brilliant Interpretations offer a fresh treatment to the material in this release including everything from a novel treatment of Little Brown Jug to some beautiful love ballads that are light and pleasing. And you'll want to join right in when they sing their current single hit, Same Old Reason.

Joe Carroll joins the herd as vocalist on this album recorded at Harrah's Club at Lake Tahoe. With great material and fantastic arrangements, the Herd offer some exciting listening.

The new record, like its predecessor, Sing for Joy, was taped by Jerry Thomas in Elmira; proceeds from both benefit the Sisters of St. Joseph. They can be purchased at Mt. Carmel Studio, Trant's, Lewis Music Store and Nazareth College Book Store.

Also included are That's My Home, Autumn Wind, Sobbin' Women, Spring, Take Your Shoes Off, High North Star, Lazy Afternoon, Whale of a Tale, Foghorn and Rider. Top-notch entertainment.

The Music, Music, Music Girl, Teresa Brewer sings Golden Hits of 1964 on the Philips label in a musical showcase of top tunes by a top vocalist. Her diversified talents lend well to all types of tunes from Dem Ya to The Girl From Ipanema.

Also included are Where Did Our Love Go, World Without Love, Chapel of Love, My Guy, Suspicion, Love Me With All Your Heart, Hello Dolly, Everybody Loves Somebody, My Boy Lollipop and Gonna Get Along Without You Now. Great sound.

Religious Plays Available

Rochester Repertory Company announces its 1964-65 Season of religious plays available to groups in this area. For Christmas, The Night The Little Angel Sang by Lillian Dunlap George and for Easter, Veronica's Veil. Both plays last approximately 30 minutes. The Night The Little Angel Sang, is the story of Tobias, the one little shepherd who is left behind to watch the flock while the others start off in search of The Child. The Players are prepared to act in any conditions and under any circumstances, with or without a stage. For further information contact Mrs. Arthur Fanale, HU 2-1093, or write to 1701 Winton Road, North. Dale Altus and Sally Crosby are shown as Joseph and Mary in The Night The Little Angel Sang.

Kiddy Parade To Welcome Santa Claus

Elmira — Everybody loves a parade. Especially the children. And they are in for a fun-filled parade on Friday, November 27, starting at 9:00 a.m. in Elmira.

Iszard's seventh annual Christmas parade welcoming the arrival of Santa Claus to the Elmira area will be held at that time.

Mr. William Iszard, parade chairman, stated "Our plans were started on Friday, November 29, 1963 to bring to the children of the area the kind of a parade that children of all ages will enjoy. And now, after a year in the making, we will be ready with what we feel is the most colorful and enjoyable event of the year."

Open House At St. Mary's

Corning—About 300 parents and friends of parochial students attended an open house in St. Mary's School to celebrate Catholic Education Week. Student guides took the visitors throughout the building to see such features as the new audio-visual room and library. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Joseph Kosty, Mrs. Joseph Stenger, Miss Hilda Schosger and other members of St. Mary's Rosary and Altar Society.
