

Newark Parish Bazaar Lists Committee Heads

Newark — St. Michael's Church of Newark will hold a parish bazaar Wednesday, Dec. 2, in the school auditorium between 10 a.m. and 9 p.m. Mrs. Frederick Collins, general chairman, has announced the following committee chairmen for the event:

Miss Mary Muscolino will be in charge of sewing and hand-made articles with Mrs. Joseph Sova in charge of knit goods. Mrs. Robert Heath of aprons and Mrs. Theodore Sheehan doll clothes.

Mrs. Leo Whelan is in charge of baked goods and gourmet foods, with Mrs. Kenneth Filippello and Mrs. Bruno La-gana in charge of baked goods and Mrs. Thomas Healey Jr. and Mrs. Robert Leone in charge of gourmet products.

Mrs. V. James Palmeri is chairman of the fish pond hand-made toys, with Vincent Nieskes making wooden toys.

Mrs. T. W. Potter is responsible for the greens; Mrs. Robert Brown and Mrs. James Planagan, the art booth. Mrs. Anthony DeSteffen and Mrs. Eugene Young the boutiques.

Mr. Howard Franklin, Miss Nancy Bramante, Miss Kate Allen and William Finewood prepared the posters.

Mrs. William Darcy is in charge of the baby sitters; Mrs. Eugene Baumann chairman of the hostesses. Mrs. Edmund Schram heads the telephoning and Miss Theresa Colarino the publicity.

Mrs. Abdul DeMetsenaere will make the Danish pastries for the coffee hour and Mrs. Cornelius Longrove will be in charge of sandwiches and pizza for the allday snack bar.

Stanley Fleisher will do the winter scenes to carry out the theme of "Winter 'Round the World" for the event.

What's New in the Parishes

ST. FRANCIS XAVIER. Christmas Dinner in honor of St. Joseph teaching in St. Francis Xavier School, Thursday, Dec. 10 to be sponsored by Sacred Heart Women's Club. Entertainment to be provided by Blackfriars who will present a Christmas play "Unto Us A Child Is Born."

ST. JEROME, East Rochester. Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association Branch held Installation Banquet at the Country House, Mrs. Julia Bleier, past president, installed the officers: Father Roy E. Morphy, pastor; Mrs. Mary Saxe, supreme diocesan examiner; Mrs. Genevieve Turner, president; Mrs. Bleier, Mrs. Gladys Cialini, vice president; Mrs. Anne Brusco, recorder; Mrs. Dorothy O'Brien, assistant recorder; Mrs. Eva Joslyn, financial secretary; Mrs. Mary Magee, assistant financial secretary; Mrs. Ruperia O'Brien, treasurer; Mrs. Gladys Kryer, assistant treasurer; Mrs. Mary Courtney, marshal; Mrs. Gladys Kryer, guard; Mrs. Agnes Arnold, publicity.

Rosary Society Communion and Breakfast was held Sunday, Nov. 22. The Fall Fiesta was held in C.Y.A. Hall, Nov. 20 and 21.

Rosary society of St. Jerome's Christmas Dinner and Bazaar at the Country House, East Linden Ave., Dec. 7. Father Roy E. Morphy, guest speaker. Mrs. Veima Short, chairman. Mrs. Clara Paul, co-chairman. Reservations are being made at LU 6-1430 or LU 6-8192. Articles for the Bazaar will be accepted. Farewell to Mrs. Short leaving soon for Buffalo will be expressed by members. Mrs. Rosalie Van Scott is president. Mrs. Anne Sullivan, LU 6-1122, the new sunshine chairman.

HOLY ROSARY, Our Lady's Guild Christmas Party, Tuesday, Dec. 1, 8:30 p.m. at the Wishing Well, 1190 Chilli Ave. Band leaders to call members for reservations with deadline, Nov. 25. Kay Bowser and her band members from Augustine St. in charge of arrangements.

ST. JOSEPH, Pentfield, Rochester Police Chief William M. Lombard addressed men of the newly formed Holy Name Society, Nov. 16. He denied the existence in our modern society of an infection he termed "anti-policies," and offered as a remedy, better understanding on the part of the public of police operations and problems. John Ferroni was elected and installed a first president of the Society with Thomas Falk, vice president; Robert Mooney, secretary; Robert Roser, treasurer and Carl Trabert, sergeant-at-arms. Father Raymond Booth, assistant pastor, installed the new officers.

HOLY FAMILY, Rochester. Meeting of Eucharistic League, Monday, Nov. 30 to be preceded by Church services at 7:30 p.m. An interesting program is planned.

GUARDIAN ANGELS, Henrietta. Christian Mothers' Rosary Society plans its Christmas Party, Tuesday, Dec. 1, School Hall, 2061 E. Henrietta Road. Tureen Supper to be served at 7 p.m. A Parcel Post sale and entertainment planned. Any desiring may bring a fifty cent grab bag gift. Hostesses to be bands of Pat Tomkinson and Carolyn Toomey. All women of the parish invited.

OUR LADY OF MT. CARMEL, Ladies Auxiliary 285, Knights of St. John met, Monday, 16. Miss Fran Pilato, newly elected president who was installed with the following officers at a banquet at Valley Echo, Browncroft Blvd. Nov. 4 will conduct the next meeting. Other officers are: Father Joseph Gorman, spiritual advisor; Rose Randisi, past president; Rose DiBenedetto, Mary DiMarco, vice presidents; Anne Spano, treasurer; Sarah Mazzullo, messenger. On the Board of Trustees are: Madeline Panepinto, Josephine DeFrank, Father Broccoli; Marie Mazzullo, guard; Madeline Pizzo, district representative. Madeline Panepinto was banquet chairman and with her committee served refreshments after the meeting.

HOLY ROSARY, Ladies Guild and Holy Name Society are joining for Christmas Party, Dec. 12, School Hall. Orchestra for dancing and refreshments. Committee headed by Mrs. Jack Ellison and Michael Culhane. Reservations limited to 50 couples are being made by calling CL 4-8446 or CL 4-1131.

CHRIST THE KING, Holy Name Society and Men's Club "Career Night" in parish hall, Kings Highway, Monday evening, Jan. 11. All parents with students (boys or girls) in the eighth grade and on high school will be invited to come to the hall with them. Set up in hall will be various booths manned by persons in various professions and businesses that a student may wish to know about.

learn about or ask questions about: Booths for banking, accounting, priesthood, politics, sales, industry have already been arranged. More will be added. Any parishioner (man or woman) who is in business or a profession not listed, who would like to be represented should contact Bernard H. Florack, CO 6-2780 as soon as possible.

ST. ANNE, Rosary Society's Tureen Supper at Dec. 8 meeting in School Hall. Blackfriars will stage their Christmas pageant, "Unto Us A Child Is Born," after the meeting. Many of the organization's outstanding actors will participate according to Robert D. Smettliff, Blackfriars' president. St. Anne's Rosary Society has participated in the Madonna Plan for many years and again donations will be given. This international project sponsored by National Council of Catholic Women gives assistance in training, medical aid and nutrition to women and children in more than 60 clinics throughout the world. Mrs. Joseph LaDuca is tureen supper chairman assisted by Mrs. John Malara.

ST. LAWRENCE, Rosary Society's Christmas Party, Wednesday, Dec. 2 at 6:15 p.m. in Greece Ridge Fire House, Ridge Road and Long Pond Road. Tureen supper to be followed by grab bag and entertainment by Mesdames Joseph Lester, Mesdames Harold Staron, William Merkel, Fred Turner, James Yaeger, James Farnam, Anthony Yankloki, Stanley Nentarz. Refreshments to be served by Mesdames James Anderson, Charles Marong, Daniel Cannan, James Shannon, Carmelo Gioseste, John Ferrante. Gifts for party to be packed by Mrs. Edwin Eber and Miss Bessie Harrigan.

HOLY CROSS, Men's Club "Gala" Mixed Christmas Party Italian Style, school hall, East Road, Dec. 5. Reception at 7:30 a.m. to be followed by Alsatiano Dinner. Entertainment to comprise variety show: singing, dancing until "A Santa Claus" direct from Italy" is promised. Tickets are being received by calling Bob Bloom 3-7871 or any officer of the Men's Club. Admittance by ticket only. No tickets will be obtainable at the door.

ST. PIUS X, Rosary Guild monthly meeting Dec. 1, 7:30 a.m. Christmas program is being planned by Girl Scouts (Caldette and Junior) and the Brownie Troops. These groups are sponsored by the Rosary Guild. Entertainment will feature a pageant, history of the Advent Wreath and caroling. Troop leaders are Mesdames Joseph Wood, Henry Stevens and Philip Dwyer, John Herlihan.

ST. THEODORE, Holy Name Society annual spaghetti supper Wednesday, Dec. 2 at 7 p.m. in Social Center. Guest speaker is Father Daniel Brent, associate superintendent of schools. Tickets at $1.00 are available from officers or after Sunday Mass. For reservations call BE 5-1575.

EAST ROCHESTER, Ladies Catholic Benevolent Association Branch of St. Jerome's Christmas party at home of Mrs. Gladys Kreyer, Roosevelt Rd. East Rochester, Dec. 3 at 6:30 p.m. Father Roy E. Morphy, guest. Members asked to bring own service and a plate to pass. $1 gift exchange. Mrs. Anna Brusco is handling information.

HOLY GHOST, Home-School Association, Coldwater, will meet Wednesday, Dec. 2 and hear Father Henry Atwell of the Courier-Journal speak on "New Horizons in the Liturgy."

Frances Regan, Curtis Amesbury, Hostess, chairman. Mrs. Robert Powell and Program Chairman, Mrs. William Wark.

ST. SALOME, Mothers' Club Christmas Party, Dec. 7, 8 p.m. School Hall. Sisters of Mercy who teach in the school to be guests of honor. They will be feted with a grocery shower and gift for the convent. An exchange of small gifts between the members to take place. Mrs. William Raab, food chairman; Mrs. James Nuccielli, co-chairman; Mrs. Duane Tillotson, decorations chairman; Mrs. Donald Kitzel, co-chairman; Mrs. Donald Leder, entertainment chairman.

EPIPHANY, Sodas, Altar Rosary Society November meeting was held at home of Mrs. M. Garman where members were shown and urged to make Advent Wreaths. Annual Christmas Dinner, Tuesday, Dec. 1, 8:00 p.m. at Wayne County Extension Service Building, Alton, N.Y. Arrangements are being made by Mrs. Ann Gatchel, Helen Gaige, Elaine Costello and Mary Sinze. A white elephant sale and auction to follow the dinner. Each member to bring a gift for a boy or girl for the Community Christmas basket. Members and their husbands invited. The Children's Christmas Party Sunday afternoon, Dec. 13. The Mesdames Gorman, VanDeVelde, Becker, Zabarowski and Allman are making the arrangements.

MOTHER OF SORROWS, Rosary and Altar Society Christmas Party, Tuesday, Dec. 1 at 8 p.m., Church Hall. Presentation of "Twas the Night Before Christmas" was especially written and directed by Mrs. Warren Leitch. Choir under direction of Greenfield and James Hasenbauer took First Place in the J.V. Division after losing only one of eight debates.

McQuaid Debaters On Nov. 14 McQuaid debaters took first place in the First Annual Junior-Varsity Tournament of the Rochester Chapter of the Optimist International posting a 5-1 record against six area schools. The McQuaid squad was composed of sophomore Kevin Hennessy and junior John Keenan on the affirmative, and sophomores Joseph Lombardi and Timothy Collins on the negative. Combs won a special award as "Best Negative Speaker."

Aquinas Institute's JV team represented by Sophomores Chris Gratton, Patrick Gleason, James Sioia and John McCarthy took Second Place with six wins and two losses.

The accumulative record for the season sees Mooney with twelve wins, four losses and Aquinas with eleven wins, five losses.

In the Debate League's Novice Division, Aquinas repeated its match for second place behind Irondequoit High School. McQuaid took Third Place in the Novice Division with five wins and three losses. James Doyle, George DeRoller, Michael DeLuizio and Gerard Aman represent the Aquinas Freshmen. Thomas Kostizak, Leo Pudup, Thomas Kay and Patrick Hanahan represent the McQuaid Freshmen.

The accumulative records for this division over two meetings shows Aquinas in Second Place with eleven wins, five losses. Victor High School is in first

Debaters at St. Andrew's

James Valone and Thomas Dixon of St. Andrew's Seminary check chart for standings of contestants in weekend debate tournament which drew young orators from several high schools of western New York State.

High School Forensics

Aquinas Wins Four Aquinas Juniors debating on the varsity level took Second Place at the St. Andrew's Fifth Annual Debate Tournament held November 20-21. Competing in the twenty school tourney were Martin Drilling and Mark Killenbeck who debated the affirmative on control of nuclear weapons by an international organization. The affirmative record was four wins and no losses. The other half of the squad representing Aquinas is composed of Ronald Hoening and Walter Kopinski who lost one debate to First Place Mt. St. Joseph Academy of Buffalo.

Kearney Takes First

In the Second Meeting of the Rochester Area Debate League Bishop Kearney High, represented by Sophomore Patricia Rudy, Robert Kiggins, Joan Greenfield and James Hasenbauer took First Place in the J.V. Division after losing only one of eight debates.

McQuaid Debaters

On Nov. 14 McQuaid debaters took first place in the First Annual Junior-Varsity Tournament of the Rochester Chapter of the Optimist International posting a 5-1 record against six area schools. The McQuaid squad was composed of sophomore Kevin Hennessy and junior John Keenan on the affirmative, and sophomores Joseph Lombardi and Timothy Collins on the negative. Combs won a special award as "Best Negative Speaker."

The accumulative records for this division over two meetings shows Aquinas in Second Place with eleven wins, five losses. Victor High School is in first

Planning year's program for the Catholic Widowed Parents Club are (standing): Rev. Gerald Dunn, moderator, Kaleel Hadeed, Herman Harrister, and Anthony Ferraro. Seated (from left) are Sue Muzdakis, Marge Jacobsen, secretary, and Delores Schnacky, vice-president.

Widowed Parents Club

Prominent speakers have been scheduled for first Friday meetings of the club to assist widows and widowers with their problems of bringing up children. The club announced a program of social and service activities for the coming year. Events planned include a first Christmas party for the children in the club.

What's new besides the bottle?

The gentle taste in whiskey is even gentler.

Gentle before. Even gentler now. Made with choice whiskeys blended with finest grain ne... Pours from a new gentle-shape bottle. Feels good to the hand. Treat your drinks gently with Partners Choice. $6.99 Quart

St. Stanislaus Ladies show articles from their recent Christmas Sale.

Henrietta KC To Promote 'Christ in Christmas'

Knights of Columbus, Our Lady of the Genesee Council them in their holiday displays. To bring the campaign to greater coverage the council will conduct a religious outdoor display contest for private homes.

Bumper stickers are being made available to the member and there will be a committee to contact commercial establishments in the town. The committee will provide window display posters to merchants.

John E. Troy Final Rites

Rt. Rev. Msgr. John M. Duffy offered the Funeral Mass for John E. Troy in St. Augustine Church, Nov. 10. Mr. Troy of 793 Arnett Blvd. died Nov. 7, 1964.

Surviving are three brothers and three sisters. W. Joseph Troy, Miss Mary E. Troy, Mrs. E. J. (Margaret) Elk, Miss Elizabeth B. Roy, Walter J. and Francis A. Troy, several nieces and nephews.

Blessing at grave in Holy Sepulchre Cemetery given by Rev. Bruce F. Ammering. Arrangements Alvah Halloran and Son, Funeral Home.