New Church For Auburn

ST. HYACINTH'S new church in Auburn was dedicated last Saturday, Nov. 28, by Bishop Kearney. The above view shows the Bishop celebrating Mass; the exterior view catches parishioners as they leave following the ceremony. The approximate cost of the church, according to Father James Cholewicki, O.F.M., Conv., pastor, was $360,000.

Forty Hours

Devotions of the Forty Hours will be conducted in the following churches of the Diocese of Rochester: Sunday, Dec. 6—Blessed Sacrament, Immaculate Conception, St. Peter and Paul, Rochester.

St. Agnes Chaplain Set For Liturgy Discussion

Bath—The Rev. Walter F. Cushing, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Cushing of 269 Denison Pkwy., will discuss the new liturgy of the Mass in English during a public lecture Dec. 3 at St. Mary's Church in Bath.

Bath and area residents are invited to the discussion which will be held at 8 p.m. in St. Mary's Hall. This will also be the first in a series of information classes for those interested in the Catholic faith. The first Masses in the new liturgy in the Bath church took place on Nov. 29.

Father Cushing is a Cornish native and graduate of Colgate Free Academy is chaplain of St. Agnes High School in Rochester. He attended a week of conferences at Fordham University where the English liturgy subject was studied.

Celebrant at the first Mass in English at the Bath church was the Rev. Brendan Wobley.

25 Years Ago

(From files of Catholic Courier, Dec. 7, 1939)

Rev. Francis J. Lane, Catholic chaplain at Elmira Correctional Institution, was elected president of the Prison Chaplains Association and became the first of a group of chaplains of all denominations to join the United States and Canada.

Interior of St. Andrew's Church, Portland, Me., was dedicated for the church's observance of its 25th anniversary. Rev. George W. Ekl, pastor and founder of the parish was directing the celebration.

First duty of a Catholic is to read and support the diocesan newspaper and the Catholic Courier is worthy of that support. The Rev. Peter Starn, CSSR, of Melrose, N.Y., declared at all Novena services in Rochester's St. Joseph Church.

Rev. Roy Kiggins, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Lourdes Church, will serve as chaplain for Elmira Council Grand Knights Edward A. Claus.
