Mass Offered For Deceased

Auburn—Members of Auburn Council 207 Knights of Columbus held a Memorial Mass for deceased members Nov. 29 at 11 a.m. in Sacred Heart Church. The Mass was also offered in memory of President John F. Kennedy.

Rev. Raymond J. Wahl, pastor of Sacred Heart and prior of Auburn Assembly Fourth Degree of the council, offered the Mass. Mass Chairman Almiral Bergeron and Joseph J. Janosko, grand knight, were servers.

The color guard of the Fourth Degree and members of Rt. Rev. Msgr. Frederick G. Straub Memorial Post 112 of the Columbian Squires also attended. The church was filled for the service.

Feast Day Radio Rosary

Bishop Kearney will lead in recitation of the Rosary on the Family Rosary for Peace Program Tuesday, Dec. 8, feast of the Immaculate Conception of the Blessed Virgin Mary.

The program is broadcast nightly by Rochester's radio station W8AY and Auburn's WMBQ-FM at 7 p.m.

The Bishop has dispensed Catholics of the Rochester Diocese from the Church's laws of fast and abstinence on the vigil of the feast, Monday, Dec. 7.

4 Area Students in 'Who's Who'—Four area Niagara University students are included in the 1964-1965 edition of Who's Who Among Students in American Colleges and Universities.

They are: William J. Scanlan, 12 Renouf Drive and Richard J. Gangemi, 66 Rochview Terrace, both of Rochester; John J. Empor, 151 Osborne St., Auburn; Leo T. Connolly, 22 Miller St., Seneca Falls.

25 Years Ago

(From files of Catholic Courier, Dec. 7, 1939)

Rev. Francis J. Lane, Catholic Chaplain at Elmira Reformatory was elected president of the Prison Chaplains Association and became executive head of chaplains of all denominations throughout the United States and Canada.

Interior of St. Andrew's Church, Portland Ave., was especially redecorated for the church's observance of its 25th anniversary. Rev. George W. Eckl, pastor and founder of the parish was directing the refurbishing and the celebration.

First duty of a Catholic is to read and support the diocesan newspaper and the Catholic Courier is worthy of that support, the Rev. Peter Starin, CSSR, of Melrose, N.Y., declared at all Novena services in Rochester's St. Joseph Church.
