Irish, Mt. Carmel To Clash Sunday

By WHIT JOHNSON

A potentially powerful Aquinas Institute basketball team will be looking for its second win of the season at the expense of Mt. Carmel High School Sunday afternoon in Auburn. Game time is set for 3 p.m. with a preliminary game between the schools' junior varsity squads slated for 1:30 p.m.

Last week Aquinas opened its cage season with a 75-67 victory over Canandaigua High.

Local basketball buffs will have an opportunity to compare the comparative strength of one of the area's newer basketball powers on the basis of the result of the Aquinas-Mt. Carmel frey. Last Sunday Cardinal Mooney High School, playing its first varsity basketball game, defeated Mt. Carmel, 55-42, at the Maiden Lane School.

In spite of their opening loss the Carmelites field a well-balanced club and may well be a positive threat to the Irish.

Last season Aquinas defeated Mt. Carmel twice, 83-52 and 75-64.

Mt. Carmel will look to Bill Dolan, Kevin Proctor and Neil Salvage to lead its attack. Dolan scored 11 points against Mooney, Calvage 8 and Proctor 6.

Aquinas will counter with Dave Mancuso, Bob Keegan, Jim Caverly, Jim Coffey, Wayne Desbrow and Pat DiNicola.

Football Greats Interviewed By TV's Tom Decker

Leo V. Lyons, 604 Beach Ave., a pioneer and one of the founders of the National Football League was featured on Tom Decker's television program with two All-America football stars, Sunday night on WROC-TV.

Heard and interviewed by Tom Decker, noted television personality were Bill O'Connor of Manhattan College and Vannie Albanese, Syracuse University, football stars in their college days and Lyons.

In the Lyons segment of the program were shown pictures of the original Jeffersons organized by him and forerunners of the National football league of today. Harold (Butch) Clark, Gerald (Red) Quigley and Ralph Henricus, all Cathedral High basketball stars who turned to football after graduation were pictured. Lyons cited among early team members on his squad, Jim Thorpe, and many others in the headlines of the times.

Now Historian (honorary) of the National Football League, Lyons is devoting full time to recording the annals of the league. His collection of photos, action and posed, number 400 taken down through the years.

First Varsity Game

GETTING SET — Pat Shatzel of Bishop Kearney getting away a set shot in a game last week against Naples Central. Bishop Kearney edged Naples Central, 41 to 39, in the first varsity basketball game for the locals on the BK floor. A pair of free throw conversions by Mike Clark tied the score at 39-39 late in the final period to set the stage for Rood's winning basket. Walt Szarlacki notched 11 points and Rood 10 to spotlight the victory.

Holy Name Drive Soars Over Goal

Pledging $282,049.80, the parishioners of the newly founded Holy Name of Jesus Parish in Greece exceeded the minimum financial goal of $180,000.00 by more than a hundred thousand dollars.

Father Thomas Reddington, pastor of the new parish and honorary chairman for the campaign, expressed his gratitude to the parishioners at the Masses last Sunday in Cardinal Mooney High School, calling the results a wonderful expression of their faith, their confidence in the new parish and their generosity and understanding.

The Pacesetters Committee and their prospects accounted for $44,250; the Advance Gifts Committee, headed by Donald Dohr and Carl Cottorone garnered $61,314; and the General Committee led by George H. Scheible, amassed a pledged total of $176,483.80.

The entire campaign committee, over 300 in number, attended a General Kickoff Meeting Saturday, Nov. 14, at which Msgr. George A. Cocuzzi, Chancellor of the Diocese was the featured speaker.

The next day, the committee went out en masse to visit the remaining parishioners, making their reports to the chairman during the remainder of the day in the campaign headquarters set up in St. Charles Borromeo portable school building.

Construction for the new church building on the Bonesteel St. property is tentatively set for spring 1965.

Professional counsel for the campaign was provided by Joseph J. Connorton, a representative of Foley Associates, Inc., a national fund-raising concern of Rochester, N.Y.

McQuaid Suffers First Loss, Faces Madison

By JESS HEWITT

Jarred by a double-overtime loss to Irondequoit at the War Memorial last Friday, McQuaid Jesuit High will be out to grab a belated second victory this Saturday night when it begins its home schedule by entertaining Madison.

The Knights, who roared away from the starting line with a 74-54 romp over Batavia on Thanksgiving Eve, found little to be thankful for two nights later when they succumbed to Irondequoit's foul shooting and tough defense by a 50-46 count in two extra periods. But despite the presence of high-scoring Simeon Clements in the Madison cast, McQuaid will be favored to atone before a home crowd this time out.

Missing from the McQuaid lineup will be backcourt man Bob Brady, who suffered a knee injury in the first quarter at Batavia and may be out of action for as long as a month. Seniors John Stanley and Dan Wegman and junior Tom Blake will alternate in filling the gap.

The Knights' two appearances presented a study in contrast on almost every count, the most painful one being the final score. In winning at Batavia, they shot 41 percent from the field, grabbed 55 rebounds, and piled up 16 assists. Against Irondequoit, the shooting fell off to 21 percent, the rebounding to 27, and the assists to a dismaying zero. Oddly enough, the Knights improved their foul shooting remarkably in the latter game, going from 31 percent to 61 percent, but it was in that same department that Irondequoit won the tense battle, cashing in 22 of 27 free throws, including 7 in the decisive overtime.

McQuaid led almost all the way in the Memorial game and took a 35-31 margin into the fourth quarter. But Irondequoit rallied behind Vandy Bollinger and Bob Hubbard to forge ahead, and it took a jump shot by Lance Compa in the last two minutes to tie the score in regulation time. Neither team scored. Irondequoit didn't even get off in the first extra session, and a field goal attempt as the score remained deadlocked at 43-all. Then the fouls began to mount, as Irondequoit went to the driving shots. The Indians made their free ones count, and that was the ball game.

Individually, the two games saw Tony Leonardo enjoy a hot night at Batavia with 31 points on a 15-for-32 shooting effort and a slightly frigid evening at the Memorial with 15 points and a 5-for-25 showing from the field. The 6-3 McQuaid senior's 46 points easily set the team scoring pace, with Mike Spiegel's 26 and Compa's 18 the next best totals. Spiegel's 18 rebounds at Batavia, Gerry Bunce's 12 against Irondequoit, and Compa's 4 assists at Batavia were other individual highs of the early season.

The McQuaid junior varsity also got off to a flying start at Batavia, the Knight sophs giving new coach Mike Gribuski a 65-41 win.

Fisher Faces St. Andrew's In Season Opener

A "tall but green" St. John Fisher College basketball squad will open its 17-game 1964-65 season Friday against the college students of St. Andrew's Seminary. Game time in the Fisher campus Athletic Center is 8:15 p.m.

Coach Robert F. "Bobby" Wanzer has been juggling the Cardinals in practice in an attempt to find the best working combinations. Although he has the tallest squad in history, only three of Coach Wanzer's 15 players have had more than one year of college court experience. They are seniors Mike Davids and Jack Galbraith and a junior, Fred Curran.

The six sophomores on the squad have had limited experience. Tallest of the second year men is 6 ft. 4 in. Gerard McCabe. Three of the half dozen frosh who survived the cut are McCabe's height or better. Tallest is 6 ft. 7 in. Bob Krist, former Eastridge High School star.

Saturday's bill will open with a preliminary game at 6:30 pitting St. Andrew's Prep freshmen against the frosh from Cardinal Mooney High School.

64-58 Victory For Mt. Carmel

Auburn—Mount Carmel High School's varsity basketball team scored an upset 64-58 victory over an all veteran Southern Cayuga Central five on Nov. 27 before an overflow crowd at Mt Carmel court.

The SCC team, composed of athletes from Genoa, King Ferry and Sherwood Central School are pre-season favorites to win the Cayuga County Central School League.

Bill Dolan paced coach Mike Cuddy's small but swift-moving Crusaders with 21 points. Neil Salvage and Kevin Proctor, chipped in with 12 points apiece.

Carmel pulled away midway in the fourth quarter and then managed to freeze the ball during the last four minutes of play. Maurice Reynolds was top scorer for SCC with 21 points.

Two Road Games Set For Mooney

Cardinal Mooney High School got off to a flying start this past Sunday when it defeated Mt. Carmel of Auburn 55-42 for its first basketball victory at the varsity level. Junior Kevin Dugan and Sophomore Jim Harrington paced the winners with 15 and 14 points respectively. It was, however, an aggressive defense that was largely responsible for the victory. The tough defense, led by Terry Murphy, Otis Davis, Jim Musclow, Jim Worth, Tim Kier, Dugan and Harrington thwarted a number of fine Mt. Carmel scoring efforts.

In the preliminary games, the Mooney J.V.'s won 37-32 with Dick Musclow pouring in 19 points. The Cardinal's Freshman team started the afternoon with a close 43-40 victory. Gary Braun paced the Frosh with 13 points.

Cardinal Mooney takes to the road for two tough ballgames this weekend when it travels to Greece Arcadia of the Monroe County League this Friday and then to St. Francis of Athol Springs this Sunday. The next home game for the Cardinals will be Sunday, Dec. 13 at 2 p.m. against Baker Catholic of Lackawanna of the Buffalo Catholic league.

Cato Women Plan Events

Cato—Members of the Altar and Rosary Society, St. Patrick's Church, met for the monthly meeting Nov. 19 at the church hall. First order of business was sorting and weighing and packaging clothes for the needy of the world. A total of 35 boxes containing 1,082 pounds of clothing was sent from the parish.

Committee included Alice Burns, Margaret Muhlnickel, Pat Farneth, Vi Davenport, Harvey and Shirely Chapman, Rita Brackins, Betty and Bert Green, Helen and Bon Colonnese.

Plans were made for a covered dish supper for the women of the parish on Dec. 10 in the church hall. A parish party for children is scheduled for Dec. 20 from 2 to 4 p.m.

Mrs. Vi Davenport heads the committee for the annual church floor refinishing job on Dec. 5.

Noted Philosopher

Etienne Gilson Listed At Fisher

One of the world's most distinguished Christian existential philosophers will speak at St. John Fisher College next Wednesday evening. Etienne Gilson, founder and director of the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies at St. Michael's College, University of Toronto, will discuss "The Lutheran Reformation: Theological and Personal Conscience" in a free public lecture scheduled for the St. John Fisher Athletic Center at 8:15 p.m. Dec. 9.

PROFESSOR GILSON, who was born in Paris in 1884; received his doctorate in philosophy from the University of Paris in 1913. Later he became a member of the faculty of the University. He has been a guest lecturer at many of the leading universities of the world and has received honorary degrees from such institutions as Oxford, Cambridge, St. Andrew's, Aberdeen, Harvard, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Milan, Glasgow, and Freiburg.

Gilson has been honored by his native France for services rendered in many fields. He served in the French army in World War I. After that war he was engaged in relief activities in Russia. Active in politics as well as intellectual pursuits, he served in the upper house of the Fourth French Republic. In 1945 Gilson was a cultural advisor with the French delegation to the United Nations. Later he was a UNESCO delegate from France. His many services to his nation have won for him membership in the French Academy.

A prolific writer, Gilson has authored approximately 50 books and more than 400 published articles. Among his books are Being and Some Philosophers, which established him as one of the world's outstanding Christian existentialists; Painting and Reality, a collection of the Mellon Lectures on Fine Arts which he presented at the National Gallery of Arts; and his most recently published work, The Spirit of Thomism.

At his only previous appearance at St. John Fisher College two years ago, Gilson attracted a standing room only audience. The material to be presented in his speech next Wednesday is from a series of lectures he is currently delivering at the Pontifical Institute of Mediaeval Studies entitled: "The Birth of the Lutheran Reformation."

St. John Fisher College invites the public to attend the Gilson lecture.
