Irish Swim To Victory

For the second time in as many weeks Aquinas Institute swimming team has registered victories to remain undefeated this season.

Aquinas Institute defeated McQuaid Jesuit High School, 51-44, in swimming Nov. 28 at the Catholic Youth Organization pool.

The Irish captured eight of 11 events to win their first meet of the year. Aquinas has never been defeated in swimming by McQuaid according to records of the past seven years.

Double winners in the meet were Jim Nally, Mike Cahill, Dan McCarthy, and Bruce Smith of Aquinas and Mullins of McQuaid. Nally took first place in the 100-yard backstroke, his specialty which he negotiated in 1:06.5, and in the 200-yard individual. McCarthy won the 50-yard freestyle and helped his team to victory in the 200-yard freestyle relay. Smith also was a member of the winning 200-yard freestyle relay and placed first in the 100-yard freestyle.

Freshman Mike Cahill swept the 200-yard freestyle in 2:18.3 and the 400-yard freestyle in 4:50.9.

Mullins, McQuaid's double winner, took the 100-yard butterfly event in 1:07.5 and aided his teammates in capturing the medley relay.

Another event won by Aquinas was the 100-yard breaststroke won by Bernard Zapf in 1:15.8.

Last Saturday the Aquinas finnen dunked Fairport, 52-43, at Fairport. Jim Nally and Mike Cahill led Aquinas with two triumphs each. Nally won the 200-yard individual medley and the 100-yard butterfly. Cahill took the 200-yard freestyle and the 400-yard freestyle. Bernie Zapf captured the 100-yard backstroke and contributed to his team's victory in the 200-yard medley relay.

Aquinas hosts Wayland Saturday, Dec. 12, at the C.Y.O. pool with the meet set for 2:30 p.m.

Clothing Drive Meets
Last Year's Total

Reports of clothing shipments by 63 parishes of some 140 participating in last month's 14th annual Thanksgiving Clothing Collection in the Rochester Diocese indicate that the diocesan total will at least approximate last year's record of 282 tons, according to an announcement this week by the Rev. E. Leo McManus, diocesan director of the clothing campaign.

"These 63 parishes and two institutions, St. Bernard's Seminary and St. Ann's Home, have completed shipments of 314,535 pounds of usable clothing for the needy overseas in the Brooklyn warehouse of Catholic Relief Services," said Father McManus. "This represents an increase of nearly 1,100 pounds over their contributions to last year's collection."

Of the total now reported, 35 parishes in Monroe county contributed 221,541 pounds. Sacred Heart Cathedral, with 38,760 pounds donated, again led the parishes.

Other large contributions were reported from St. Charles Borromeo (22,400 lbs.), Greece, St. Margaret Mary (17,105 lbs.), Rochester; St. Alphonsus (15,150 lbs.), Auburn; Our Lady of Good Counsel (12,600 lbs.) and Holy Cross (11,110 lbs.), Rochester; St. John Evangelist (10,808 lbs.), Greece; Immaculate Conception (9,662 lbs.), Ithaca; St. Rita (9,618 lbs.), West Webster; Holy Rosary (8,629 lbs.), and St. Boniface (8,485 lbs.), Rochester; and Our Mother of Sorrows (8,437 lbs.), Greece.

The final report, together with a complete listing of the participating parishes, will be published in the Courier following the filing of the remaining parish reports with the diocesan director.

Each parish bears the cost of shipments to the Brooklyn warehouse. The Foreign Operations Administration makes available the ocean transportation, and the distribution of the clothing regardless of race, color, or religion is directed by the overseas personnel of Catholic Relief Services, the relief agency of the U.S. Catholic bishops.

Crime Soars in Nation, Moral Breakdown Blamed

Chicago — (NC) — FBI Director J. Edgar Hoover, warned that a breakdown in national morality, evidenced by the fact that crime has increased five times faster than the population, "can only render us impotent as a people and as a nation."

His warning that without law and order, society will destroy itself was given at the annual award dinner of Loyola University's Stritch school of medicine in the Conrad Hilton Hotel at which Hoover was presented with the Sword of Loyola, an award of the university.

"We must never forget that government cannot favor one group or one special interest over its duty to protect the rights of all citizens. We must constantly guard government against the pressure groups which would crush the rights of others under heel in order to achieve their own ends," Hoover told the 1,114 persons present.

"It is a great misfortune that the zealots or pressure groups always thing with their emotions, seldom with reason. They have no compunction in carrying, lying and exaggerating with the finest passion. They cry liberty when they really mean license, spearheaded at times by communists and moral degenerates," the FBI director said.
