AQUINAS LEADS

On the onset of the Christmas holidays the Aquinas Novice and Junior-Varsity debaters won First Place in the Third Meeting of the Rochester Area Debate League at Eastridge High School.

In the Novice Division Aquinas Freshmen Ed Wurtz, Kevin DeLeon, William Pixley and James Georger won all eight debates and lost none. The second Novice debate team in the RADL won six debates and lost two as they were awarded second place. Debaters were Freshmen George DeLeon, James Doyle, Gerard Aman and Michael DeLuza.

Both Aquinas teams now have seventeen wins and seven losses for the year which places them in a tie with each other for over-all First Place. Victor High School took Third Place at the Third Meeting with five wins and three losses as their total for the year also totals seventeen and seven.

In the Junior-Varsity Division Aquinas' "Maroon" team posted seven wins and one loss to take First Place for the day. Patrick Gleason and Chris Grat-tan won three of four debates as Kevin Donovan and Mark Killenbeck won all four debates. Irondequoit was second with six wins and two losses as Mooney (Cardinal) High School came in third with six wins and two losses also. Aquinas and Cardinal Mooney are tied with each other over the three meetings with a total of eighteen wins and six losses.

The Fourth Meeting of the Rochester Area Debate League is to be at Victor High School Feb. 6.

AWARDS IN MIAMI

Three Aquinas students won three plaques and an additional medal at the Fourth Annual Miami Beach Forensic Festival held Dec. 28-30 at Miami Beach Senior High School. This is the second year in a row that Aquinas has won both debating and oratory awards.

In Varsity Debate, Senior Robert Craig of St. John Evangelist parish, Greece and David Hill of St. Helen's parish, Gates posted five wins and two losses before losing to Regis High School of New York City in the Quarter Finals. Both students received a plaque for Fifth Place in the field of over sixty debate teams.

In Original Oratory, Senior Thomas Farrell of Sacred Heart parish took Fourth Place with his speech on "The Decline and Fall of Man." Thomas received a plaque and the additional medal for being a finalist.

Gordon J. DeLeon, debate coach at Aquinas accompanied six Aquinas students for this annual Christmas Tourney.
