Church Pushes Bus Ride Bill

Cleveland (NC)—Auxiliary Bishop John E. Wrealon of Cleveland has asked pastors to make available at church doors petitions urging the state legislature to pass a fair bus bill. Under the bill youngsters in parishes and other non-pupil elementary schools who live more than two miles from school would get bus rides with no additional charge to parents. Transportation for students in independent high schools would be permitted but not required—just as it is now for public high school students. The bill would affect as many as 63,000 Ohio children.

Ordain Women To Priesthood?

Rome (NC) — An international organization of Catholic women has petitioned the papal commission here entrusted with the revision of canon law to change those portions of the law which it contends no longer correspond with the civil and social status of women.

The petition, submitted by St. Joan's International Alliance, specifically asks that women not be required to cover their heads in church, that they be admitted to the sacramental diaconate and eventually to the priesthood.

The petition suggests the revision of 25 canons of the Catholic Church's official Code of Canon Law. It refers especially to canon 87 which recognizes the fundamental rights of all baptized persons, whether men or women. The petition further requests that qualified women be consulted in the revision of the law.

The petition is based upon an extensive study by Miss Josepha Theresia Muench of Germany, a graduate theologian, who presented the petition to Vatican authorities here. Miss Muench has contended that several canons restrict the basic franchise accorded to women in canon 87. She recommends in the petition that canon 490, which states that all provisions regarding male Religious also apply to female Religious, be applied

Prelate OKs Unity Meets

Pittsburgh (NC) — The Diocese of Pittsburgh has authorized a program for mixed prayer gatherings with Protestants and Orthodox.

Bishop Wright suggested such prayer gatherings be held "in a worthy but neutral place other than the church auditorium where are held the proper liturgical or regular religious services of any one of our Christian Churches." Suitable places, he said, might be the social hall or library of any one of the local Christian churches, a school hall or any community hall acceptable to the participating clergy.

Cardinal Meets Moslem 'Pope'

Cairo (RNS) — The Second Vatican Council's draft declaration absolving Jews of the centuries-old charge of deicide in the crucifixion of Christ — target of bitter criticism in the Arab states — was discussed here by Franz Cardinal Koenig, Archbishop of Vienna, in an historic meeting with Grand Sheikh Hassan Mamoun, Islam's supreme religious figure.

The occasion marked the first time that a Prince of the Catholic Church had been received by the spiritual head of the
